NOTE: Advising worksheets are supplemental planning aids. Every effort is made to ensure accuracy; however, it is the student's responsibility to understand and meet degree requirements as stated in the applicable Undergraduate Announcements. All students must have a cumulative grade point ratio of 2.0 or better before being admitted into the Economics BA major.

[1] All students are required to take the Clemson Math Placement Test (CMPT) prior to registering for their first math course at Clemson. To take the test, go to https://mthsc.clemson.edu/cmpt/ and follow the instructions. See advisor for information on course selection. The following sequences are also acceptable: MATH 1060/1080; and MATH 1060/2070. Students considering a graduate degree in economics should begin with MATH 1060.

[2] Two semesters (through 2020) of the same modern foreign language are required. Language courses at the 1000- level are now considered "prep" courses and count as electives.

[3] See General Education Requirements (p. 38 Undergraduate Announcements).

[4] Three credit hours must be selected from ECON 3440, 3500, 3600, 4020, 4040, 4100, 4240, 4260, 4350, 4550.
Note: Only ECON courses numbered 3160 and above may be used to satisfy the major requirement.

[5] See General Education Requirements (p. 38 Undergraduate Announcements). Some general education requirements may be satisfied by other courses in the curriculum (double-dipping). In this case, elective hours must be substituted.

[6] Economics majors may choose, in consultation with their advisors, any College-approved minor (see p. 93 Undergraduate Announcements).

[7] Elective hours may be used for courses not required by General Education or your major curriculum and may be taken in any combination or at any time during your college career.

[8] Students considering a graduate degree in economics or related fields should take MATH 3020. The math sequence becomes MATH 1060, 1080, 2060, and 3020.

[9] This course satisfies the cross-cultural awareness requirement.

[10] Reserving this course, electives, and coursework for some minors (when possible) increases study abroad opportunities. Contact the Office of Student Enrichment (374 Sirrine) for further information and assistance with study abroad opportunities.
