² Two semesters (through the 202-level) in the same modern foreign language are required. Language courses at the 100-level are now considered "prep" courses and count as electives.

³ See General Education Requirements, p. 34 Undergraduate Announcements.

⁴ Social Science Requirement must be in an area other than Anthropology or Sociology (see p. 34 in Undergraduate Announcements).

⁵ Humanities courses numbered 300 or higher (AAH 210, MUSIC 210, THEA 210 are also acceptable). The Humanities for this purpose include Art and Architectural History, Communication Studies (except 364 and 368), English (except 304, 312, 314, 316, 333, 334, 335, 485, 490, 495), Languages, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Theater (except 377, 487, and 497), and Women's Studies, as well as courses entitled Humanities.

⁶ Elective hours may be used for courses not required by General Education or your major curriculum and may be taken in any combination or at any time during your college career.

⁷ See General Education Requirements (p. 34 Undergraduate Announcements). This requirement may be satisfied by "double-dipping" other courses in the curriculum. In this case, elective hours may be substituted.

⁸ See list of approved minors (p. 86 Undergraduate Announcements).

Note: Students must place material in an electronic General Education portfolio to document their work on General Education competencies. Information and instructions are available at <http://www.clemson.edu/academics/programs/eportfolio/>.
