

Curriculum Vitae of James B (Bo) Garland, AIA NCARB

32 Brockmore Drive
Greenville, South Carolina 29605
Telephone: 864.423.9003

EDUCATION

2003 — Master of Architecture; Clemson University, Clemson South Carolina

Studio South Founding Member – Studio was awarded ACSA Collaborative Practice Award 2003 – Patricio del Real thesis advisor; The Hundred's Project.

1996 — BS Design; Clemson University, Clemson, South Carolina

ARCHITECTURAL REGISTRATION

South Carolina (2006)...Georgia (2009)...NCARB Certification

PROFESSIONAL

2008-present — Principal; Bo Garland Architects, Greenville, SC. Commissions include:

- South Greenville Fire District Substation #7 – Piedmont, SC. New 6,000 sf. station with 2 double truck bays. Construction scheduled to begin June 2011.
- New 4,000 s.f. Dental Clinic for Dr Ryan MacRae; Greenville, SC. Project is under construction.
- New office upfit for Merge a web solutions company, located in the NEXT building...Greenville, SC. Tenant moved in February 15, 2010.
- Youth Facility for Trinity Lutheran Church, Greenville, SC.
- Digital model and renderings for Easley Town Center – Cedarwood Development Group
- Addition to Carroll County Animal Hospital to include pet spa facilities – Carrollton GA.

2003-2009 — Architect; The Ellis Group P.A. Architects, Greenville, SC.

- Creekside Professional Village; Building 1, 2 and 3 – Lead Designer/ Project Architect. Project received EPA Energy Star Recognition for commercial buildings.
- ROX Convenience Store Prototype Design and Construction Documents – Lead Designer/Project Architect.
- Midtown Deli Prototype Design and Construction Documents – Lead Designer/Project Architect.
- Shoppes at Pelham – Lead Designer/ Project Architect. Upscale retail center.

2000-2001 — Project Manager; Neal Prince + Partners Architects, Greenville, SC.

1996-2000 — Project Manager; The Ellis Group P.A Architects, Greenville, SC.

ACADEMIC

2009-present — Lecturer; Clemson University School of Architecture:

- Second year architecture studio professor
- Successfully coordinated student design competition sponsored by AIA Columbia
- Sponsored two student projects for AIA South Carolina Design Awards. One student received an honor award.

ELECTED AND APPOINTED PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION POSITIONS

Regional

2011- Present — Committee member; South Atlantic Regional Conference Continuing Education Planning Committee. AIA South Carolina.

2009 — Committee Member; South Atlantic Regional Tours and Special Events Committee. AIA South Carolina.

State

2010-Present — Member; Architecture Archive + Museum Task Force: AIA South Carolina.

2007-2009 — Upstate Regional Director; AIA South Carolina. Architecture School Liaison.

2005-2007 — Emerging Professionals Committee Member; AIA South Carolina. Founding member of this board. Developed Intern Friendly Firm Program.

Local

2008-present — Architecture Month Committee Co-chair(08)/committee member(09,10,11) AIA Greenville. Founder of ARCHITECTURE MONTH in Greenville County.

- Received AIA National Component Excellence Award at Grassroots 09 for Community Outreach – Non-staffed Chapter.
- Secured national traveling exhibit “America's Favorite Architecture” to be displayed in Greenville County Library Hughes Main Branch.
- Coordinated proclamation of April 2008 as Architecture Month in both City of Greenville and Greenville County.

2007 — President; AIA Greenville.

- Instituted Architecture Student Scholarship and assisted with gifting $8,000 to Clemson CAF for Graduate Level Architecture Scholarships.

2006 — President Elect; AIA Greenville.

2005 — YAF Director; AIA Greenville.

2004 — Emerging Professionals Director; AIA Greenville.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

2008 – present — Committee Member; South Carolina Cherokee Heritage Memorial Committee. Provided preliminary design sketches for an amphitheater and memorial park.

2009 – present — Board Member; Mauldin Methodist Church Board of Trustees.

1997 – 2000 — Coach; Covenant Methodist Church Boys 16-18 Basketball.

- Took team to State playoffs in 2000.

DESIGN AWARD JURIES

2008 + 2009 — Guest Judge Children's Lego Competition; Greenville County Library System.

2008 — Juror, Honor Awards, Illuminating Engineering Society Greenville South Carolina Chapter.

GUEST LECTURES

2006 + 2007 + 2008 — Arch 881 Professional Practice; Clemson University.

- 2008 – “The Young Professional's New Practice”
- 2007 – “Storytelling 2.0 and the Young Professional”
- 2006 – “Storytelling 1.0 and the Professional Path”

2007 and 2008 — Ms. O'Neill's Geometry Class; Woodmont High School, Greenville County School District.

- “The Geometry of Architecture and the Architecture of Geometry”

2008 — Career Day; Hillcrest Middle School Greenville County School District.

- “What it takes to be an Architect”

2010 — Career Class; Greer Middle School Greenville County School District.

- “Architecture is cool”

2011 — Art Class; Bryson Middle School Greenville County School District.

- “Architecture is about creating space”

PUBLICATIONS

2007 — “Collaboration between Architects & Engineers”, Greenville Magazine, Oct 2007, p40.

2007 — Chronister, Lisa M., AIA, LEED. (2007, Oct 30) Bo Garland YAF Leadership Profile www.aia.org/nwsltr_print.cfm?pagename=yaf_a_071024_garland.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

2010 — Certificate of Appreciation 'Commendable Volunteer Service'; AIA Greenville

2009— AIA National Grassroots Leadership Conference; AIA Greenville Component Excellence Award for Community Outreach – Program founder and Committee Co-chair.

2009 — Certificate of Appreciation 'Commendable Volunteer Service'; AIA Greenville.

2007 — Personal Proclamation; from Greenville County South Carolina Councilman Jim Burns for “Participation in Building Safety Week 2007”.

2003 — Alpha Rho Chi Medal; Clemson University School of Architecture.

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL

Italy – Rome, Pisa, Florence, Genoa, Vicenza, Sienna, Venice, Padua, San Gimignano

France - Paris, Normandy, Massif Central and the South of France.

Spain – Bilbao Guggenheim