Searching & Linking Articles Using
CU Library
Databases

- Welcome and introduction - Anne

- If you would like to follow along please log in to the following web address to begin
- As you're locating the website I would like to tell you a little about our purpose for this Tech Talk today
- I've noticed a growing trend with many of our Clemson faculty currently using the eReserve service the library provides. Many of the articles they request are available from our online databases from the library's webpage. Many times material is needed more quickly than what we may be able to provide so Lori and I wanted to share this information on not only "how" to locate material but also share the process of "linking" the article to your Blackboard course.
- If everyone is ready we will begin with OneSearch

Searching with OneSearch

The screenshot shows the Clemson University Libraries website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the number '3' and the date 'October 23, 2012'. Below this is the main title 'Searching with OneSearch' in a large green font. The website header features the 'CLEMSON LIBRARIES' logo and the text 'Clemson University Libraries'. A green arrow points to the 'OneSearch' search bar, which is the first tab in the center of the webpage. The search bar contains the text 'Search for Articles, Books & More' and has a 'Search' button. Below the search bar, there are three columns of links: 'FIND INFORMATION', 'LIBRARY SERVICES', and 'ABOUT THE LIBRARY'. The 'FIND INFORMATION' column includes links for 'Catalog (Books & more)', 'Research by Subject', 'Databases A-Z', 'Architecture Library', 'Special Collections', and 'More...'. The 'LIBRARY SERVICES' column includes links for 'My Library Account', 'InterLibrary Loan', 'Subject Librarians', 'Study/Meeting Rooms', 'PASCAL', and 'More...'. The 'ABOUT THE LIBRARY' column includes links for 'Staff Directory', 'Directions & Parking', 'Exhibits / Events', 'Giving to the Library', and 'Digital Collections'. Below the search bar, there is a 'LIBRARY NEWS BLOG' section with a list of recent posts: '10.15.12 Daily Photo', 'Library Thanked in Anderson...', 'Hours - Fall Break', 'You Asked We Answered', and 'New Exhibit in Cooper'. To the right of the blog is a 'Share your suggestions with us!' section with a 'SUGGESTIONS' button. At the bottom of the page, there are logos for 'RefWorks' and 'Giving to the Library'.

- OneSearch is the first tab in the center of the webpage
- OneSearch is a beta version of a Googlization of library resources...books, articles, artifacts, digital resources, etc.
 - You can find many things via this search option, but keep in mind that it is not the only option
- Today we will be searching for articles by keyword

- Under the OneSearch tab - type in a keyword or article title

For example

intellectual property and copyright

- The topic we are searching today is “intellectual property and copyright”
- We are going to type our topic in the search bar

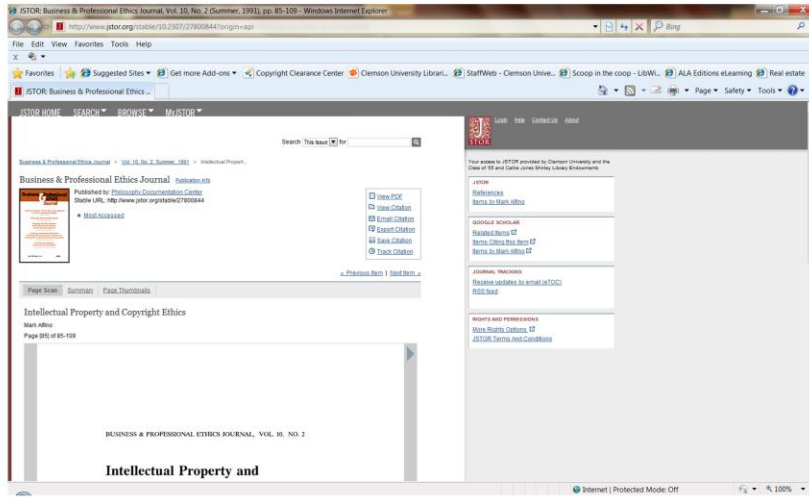

Click the item you choose

The screenshot shows a search results page from a library. The search query is "Intellectual property and copyright", which has returned 945,638 results. The page includes a "Refine your search" sidebar with filters for Content Type, Subject Terms, and Publication Date. The main results list includes:

- Intellectual Property and Copyright Ethics by Alfino, Mark. Business & Professional Ethics Journal, ISSN 0277-2027, 07/1991, Volume 10, Issue 2, pp. 85-109. Issues relating to intellectual property and copyright ethics are examined. It is vital that those attempting to settle intellectual property issues attend... Ethics, Copyright, Intellectual property, Technology. Journal Article: Full Text Online.
- Intellectual Property and Copyright Issues in Online Learning Environments by Szanto, Edit. Journal of Instruction Delivery Systems, ISSN 0892-4972, 2001, Volume 15, Issue 1, pp. 17-25. Provides an overview of intellectual property and copyright issues as they relate to online learning environments... Online Courses, Intellectual Property. Journal Article: Citation Online.
- Additional developments - copyright (Intellectual Property Copyright) Berkeley Technology Law Journal, ISSN 1086-3818, 2008, Volume 23, Issue 1, p. 503. Evaluation, Copyright law. Journal Article: Full Text Online.
- Intellectual property: patents, trademarks, copyrights and trade secrets by Holland, Catherine J. 2007. Entrepreneur magazine's legal guide, ISBN 9781599181479, xx, 402. Intellectual property. Book: AVAILABLE, KF2080 .J539 2007, Cooper Library.

- A couple of things you'll notice:
 - You can limit to scholarly publications
 - You can limit by date
 - You can see that the search results bring up both books and articles
- Our selection will be an article by Mark Alfino from "Intellectual Property and Copyright Ethics"
 Mark Alfino
Business & Professional Ethics Journal , Vol. 10, No. 2 (Summer, 1991), pp. 85-109
 Article Stable URL: <http://www.jstor.org/stable/27800844>

- If you select an article from your query, OneSearch will direct you to the web page with the article in either a PDF or html format

Locate the stable URL

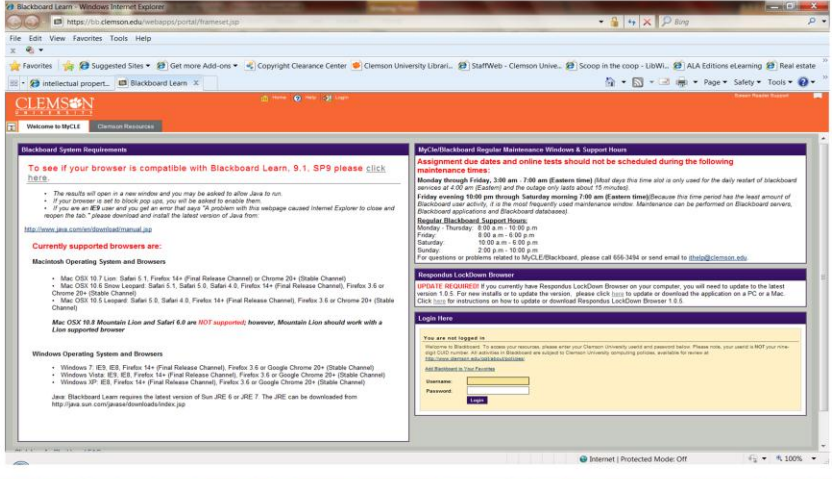

The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the JSTOR website. The address bar shows the URL: <http://www.jstor.org/stable/27809844?origin=api>. The page content includes the journal title 'Business & Professional Ethics Journal', the issue information 'Vol. 38, No. 2, Summer, 1991', and the article title 'Intellectual Property and Copyright Ethics'. A green arrow points to the 'Stable URL' field, which contains the URL <http://www.jstor.org/stable/27809844>. The page also shows the author 'Mark A. Rothstein' and the page number 'Page 102 of 109'. The browser's status bar at the bottom indicates 'Internet | Protected Mode Off'.

- Locate the stable or permanent url – highlight and copy the url

● Open Blackboard

bb.clemson.edu

The screenshot shows the Blackboard Learn website interface. The main content area is divided into several sections:

- Blackboard System Requirements: Includes instructions on how to check browser compatibility and lists currently supported browsers for Mac OS X, Windows, and Java.
- Mac OS X Mountain Lion and Safari 6.0 are NOT supported: A warning message for users on these operating systems.
- Windows Operating System and Browsers: Lists supported Windows versions and browsers.
- Java: States that the latest version of Sun JRE 6 or JRE 7 is required and provides a download link.
- MyClemson Backboard Regular Maintenance Windows & Support Hours: Details assignment due dates and support hours for Monday through Sunday.
- Respondus LockDown Browser: Provides instructions on how to update or download the application.
- Login Here: A section for logging in with a username and password field.

- Once you have highlighted and copied your URL you will then want to login to Blackboard

- Click on your Courses tab & choose the course you would like to add the material to

The screenshot displays the Blackboard Learn interface in a Windows Internet Explorer browser window. The address bar shows the URL: https://bb.clemson.edu/webapps/portal/frameset.jsp?tab_tab_group_id=2_1. The page title is "Blackboard Learn - Windows Internet Explorer".

The interface is divided into several sections:

- Course Search: A search bar with a "Go" button and a "Course List" dropdown menu. Below the search bar, it lists "Courses where you are instructor" with a link to http://bb.clemson.edu/webapps/portal/frameset.jsp?tab_tab_group_id=2_1.
- Course Setup and Deletion: A section titled "Course Central (Course Setup Tool)" with instructions on how to use the tool. It lists supported browsers for Course Central: Windows 7, IE8, IE9, Firefox 11, Firefox 3.6 or Google Chrome 20; Windows Vista, IE8, IE9, Firefox 3.6; Windows XP, Firefox 3.6; Mac OS X 10.7 Lion, Safari 5.1, Google Chrome 20; Mac OS X 10.6 Snow Leopard, Safari 5.1, Firefox 3.6, Google Chrome 20; Mac OS X 10.5 Leopard, Firefox 3.6 (works but slow - not recommended).
- Course Deletions: A section titled "Course Deletions" with a link to "Delete your Blackboard courses using Central."
- Notices: A section titled "NOTICE TO INSTRUCTORS" and "NOTICE TO STUDENTS" providing important information about course setup and enrollment.
- Student Assessment of Instructors: A section with two buttons: "Student Assessment of Instructors Faculty Access" and "Student Assessment of Instructors Student Access".

At the bottom of the browser window, the status bar shows "Internet | Protected Mode: Off" and a zoom level of "100%".

- Click on your Courses tab & choose the course you would like to add the material to

Reserves

Materials (books, articles, class notes, solutions, sample tests, etc.) selected by faculty members may be placed "on reserve" for a semester for use by students in their classes. These materials may be made available in print or electronically.

Where are they?

Print reserve materials	Cooper Library Circulation Desk, 4th Floor Architecture Library Reserves Shelves (Lee Hall)

Adobe Acrobat is needed to view MyCLE reserve items. Campus Lab computers have Acrobat loaded. Download the Acrobat Reader from <http://www.adobe.com/>, Call the Help Desk at (864) 656-3494 for assistance.

- Does this seem overwhelming or like there are too many steps? Want us to do it for you?
- If you feel overwhelmed with searching/uploading/ or dealing with copyright we can handle it for you.
- Under Services from our main library we page click on Reserves and it will provide you with all of the information you need to get your eReserve started.
- You may have material you are unsure if it may need copyright permission before posting to your blackboard course, our library eReserve service takes care of obtaining copyright permission on your behalf at no cost to you or the student
- Our current budgeted amount is up to $200 per text for material not falling under the fair use guidelines
- Once we obtain permission we will post your material in the eReserve section of your Blackboard course.
- This slide shows instructions for locating your material in the eReserve module of Blackboard
- 1st you login to bb.clemson.edu

Library eReserves

Tips for Searching

- Remember to use keywords instead of natural language (Google-type searches)
 - For example, search for "college students and sleep" rather than "effects of sleep on college students"
- Use truncation symbols to search for multiple word endings
 - For example, "college student*" will find results for both "college student" and "college students"
- If there is an option, try adding multiple databases to your search
- Most importantly, if you get stuck, ASK US for help!

25 October 23, 2012

Google Scholar

The screenshot shows the Google Scholar interface. At the top, there is a search bar with the text "effects of sleep on college students" and a search button. Below the search bar, it indicates "About 214,000 results (0.11 sec)". The results list includes:

- Sleep habits and patterns of college students: A preliminary study by WC Euboltz, F Brown, B Soper - Journal of American College Health, 2001 - Heldref Publications. Full-text @ Clemson. Cited by 113.
- How sleep deprivation affects psychological variables related to college students' cognitive performance by J Pilcher, AS Walters - Journal of American College Health, 1997 - Taylor & Francis. Full-text @ Clemson. Cited by 109.
- Sleep quality versus sleep quantity: relationships between sleep and measures of health, well-being and sleepiness in college students by J Pilcher, DR Ginter, B Sadowsky - Journal of psychosomatic research, 1997 - Elsevier. Full-text @ Clemson. Cited by 183.
- The neurocognitive effects of alcohol on adolescents and college students by DW Zeigler, CC Wang, RA Yoast, BD Dickinson - Preventive Medicine, 2005 - Elsevier. Full-text @ Clemson. Cited by 150.

- Google Scholar offers another option for searching for articles
- From the Scholar home page, if you go to “Settings”, you can set it up to search for Clemson’s “Library Links”
- Once you find the full text, you can follow Lori’s instructions for posting it on reserve in BlackBoard

LibGuides

- Listing of resources provided by librarians
- Available on many topics
- Provide links to finding books and articles
- Check out the guide on Copyright and Fair Use!

<http://libguides.clemson.edu>

The screenshot shows the 'Copyright' LibGuide page from Clemson Libraries. The page has a header with the Clemson Libraries logo and navigation tabs for 'Home', 'Public Domain', 'Fair Use and Distance Education', 'Fair Use', 'Obtaining Permissions', 'Classroom Copies', and 'Students'. Below the header, there are tabs for 'Basics', 'Copyright Definitions', 'Resources', and 'In the News'. The main content area is titled 'Copyright' and includes a search bar and several sections of text:

- Purpose: Members of the Clemson community, including faculty, students and staff, often have occasion to use copyrighted material in connection with their teaching, classroom assignments or research. The purpose of this guide is to promote the understanding of and compliance with applicable provisions of copyright law. It provides practical information in order to encourage and promote the lawful use of copyright protected materials.
- What is Copyright?: The U.S. Copyright Act (Title 17 of the U.S. Code) is the federal statute that describes copyright law in the United States. Copyright protection applies to original works of authorship and is a tangible medium. Copyright works may include literary, dramatic, musical, architectural, cartographic, choreographic, pictorial, graphic, sculptural and audiovisual creations. A tangible medium may include anything from paper to hard drives and other electronic memory devices, the web, film, software, architectural blueprints, etc.
- What is protected?: Copyright protection is designed to give creators of original creative works the right to be compensated when others use their works in particular ways. It grants copyright holders with exclusive rights to the reproduction, adaptation (translation of derivative works such as a translation or adaptation of a movie from a book), publication, performance, display of the work publicly. Today, copyright protection is automatic. So no registration, use of the copyright symbol or notice is required. However, use of the copyright symbol is recommended because it reminds the public that the work is protected. Copyright registration is required before a lawsuit for copyright infringement can be filed. If the copyright is timely registered, the copyright owner can also recover statutory damages and costs and attorney fees which can be significant in an infringement lawsuit.
- What is NOT protected?: Works not fixed in a tangible form of expression (improvisational speeches or performances that have not been written or recorded); Titles, names, slogans or short phrases; common symbols or designs; mere listings of ingredients or contents.
- Why is copyright important?:
