BIG WINS FOR THE WILDCATS

In the last four seasons, Kentucky victories include:

- No. 1 LSU in its national championship season
- Georgia
- Clemson, Music City Bowl
- Auburn
- Louisville
- Florida State, Music City Bowl
- East Carolina, Liberty Bowl

"Moving forward, I'm making a call to service to all those involved in this program directly and indirectly. We will begin what I'm calling 'Operation Win.' This means continuing to strive for excellence in every possible area of Kentucky Football."

— Joker Phillips, UK Head Football Coach

26 PLAYERS TO THE NFL

During the past three years, 26 Wildcats have signed NFL contracts. Among them is Wesley Woodyard (below), who is the special teams captain of the Denver Broncos.

Why High School All-Americans Choose KENTUCKY

"I came to Kentucky for my official visit after going to Florida, Georgia and LSU. It felt like home (at Kentucky). I felt comfortable here. The players were so friendly and welcoming."

— Joe Mansour, a MaxPreps All-American from LaGrange, Ga.

"People say when you get to that one school, you get that certain feeling. The first time I stepped on (the UK) campus, I got that feeling."

— Ryan Mossakowski, a SuperPrep and PrepStar All-American from Frisco, Texas

"It was the support of the coaches and players, and how much everyone wanted me to be here. And I knew Kentucky is a great institution, academically and athletically."

— Mike Hartline, a PrepStar All-American from Canton, Ohio

"I came to Kentucky for the opportunity to play in the SEC, and because of the great coaches and great people."

— Morgan Newton of Carmel, Ind., an All-American by MaxPreps and SuperPrep, Parade, The Sporting News and ESPN/Rise magazines

Recruits often mention the honest, open approach of the Kentucky Coaching Staff as a prime reason to become a Wildcat.

RYAN MOSSAKOWSKI

Making a MAJOR IMPACT

Kentucky has had six Freshman All-Americans since Joker Phillips returned to Kentucky, along with 16 players who have earned SEC All-Freshman honors.

HONORS WON BY KENTUCKY FRESHMEN SINCE THE RETURN OF COACH JOKER PHILLIPS

Quarterback Morgan Newton started eight games last season as a true freshman, helping lead the Wildcats to a bowl game, and was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Offensive guard Larry Warford earned immediate playing time as a true freshman and was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

NEW ON THE SCENE

Defensive end Taylor Wyndham, shown here sacking Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow, was named Freshman All-America last season.

Football in the BLUEGRASS

"The excitement of game day at Commonwealth Stadium is like no other."

— Garry Williams, Carolina Panthers

Former Kentucky linebacker Terry Clayton, who is deaf, could not hear the crowd noise at Commonwealth Stadium. "But," Clayton said, "I can feel the rumble!"

"Putting on that jersey makes you feel good - a sense of pride, wearing that number and representing your school ... The fans are always riled up in Commonwealth. It gets your blood pumping."

— David Johnson, former All-SEC free safety

UK cheerleaders have won 18 national cheerleading championships, including 14 of the last 16 years.

At left, thousands of fans regularly turn out for the Cat Walk that greets the UK players and coaches when they arrive at the stadium. Later, the noise level at Commonwealth Stadium reaches a deafening crescendo when the Wildcats take the field.

Kentucky has broken the school record for attendance each of the last three seasons, once again ranking in the nation's top 25. On game day, Commonwealth Stadium usually becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

"I love game day at Commonwealth. It really is one of the reasons I went to Kentucky. You have thousands of fans waiting on you to arrive at the Cat Walk, screaming and yelling for you. The excitement continues to build as you wait for the game to start. And when those bright lights turn on at Commonwealth, you can't compare that to anything."

— Wesley Woodyard, Denver Broncos

Fabulous FACILITIES

In its commitment to providing the finest in football facilities, the University of Kentucky has ...

- Built a new locker room at Commonwealth Stadium
- Installed a Bermuda grass playing surface at the stadium, including a superb drainage system that maximizes player safety and maneuverability
- The Nutter Training Center, which features a spacious weight room, a new locker room, new state-of-the-art team and position meeting areas, a player lounge and support facilities
- Constructed the Tim Couch Practice Fields, including two beautiful grass fields and a sports-turf field, stadium-style lights and drainage system
- Installed a new FieldTurf playing surface in the Nutter Field House, which features a full 100-yard field. FieldTurf is the same surface used by 22 National Football League teams

“They expect us to be the best, so they give us the best [facilities]. There’s an atmosphere of winning, and it rubs off on you.”

— James Whalen, former UK All-American and NFL veteran

The Wildcats' weight room features 15 Olympic lifting platforms, more than 100,000 pounds of free weights, and numerous specialized strength and conditioning machines.

“UK has better facilities than many NFL teams I’ve seen. They are updated, spacious and state-of-the-art.”

— Glenn Holt, Minnesota Vikings

UK added three new full-size practice fields, including two beautiful grass surfaces and a sports turf field. A drainage system and stadium-style lights are part of the project, giving the Wildcats a state-of-the-art practice area.

Kentucky has constructed seven new football facilities since 2005, increasing the safety, convenience and efficiency of the Wildcats.

UK has installed a new playing surface in the Nutter Field House, which features a full 100-yard field.

Fabulous FACILITIES

The new locker room in Nutter Training Center (above) is filled with spacious oak lockers. Each locker has a padded seating bench, an electrical outlet and is larger than the old lockers. The Wildcats also enjoy a beautiful, comfortable locker room in Commonwealth Stadium (below).

The central hallway at the Nutter Training Facility was recently redesigned to honor UK's recent bowl success as well as former Wildcats who have played in the NFL.

Kentucky's new team meeting room features comfortable seating for the players and state-of-the-art technology for film study.

Kentucky Offense ON THE MOVE

Senior tailback Derrick Locke already ranks in the top 10 rushers in school history. A dangerous runner, pass catcher and kick returner, Locke was named All-SEC as an all-purpose player last season.

JACOB TAMME

“Coach Phillips has the perfect system for offensive-minded players. It gives people a chance to make plays, make runs and catch balls. It’s a system that helped make me the player I am today.”

— Jacob Tammé, Indianapolis Colts

Versatile Randall Cobb scored 15 touchdowns last season as a wide receiver, rusher and punt returner. "Ask the SEC's defensive coordinators if there's another guy in the game who can do as much in crunch time as Cobb can," wrote Ned Colegrove of FoxSportsSouth.com.

RANDALL COBB

UK's offensive line, featuring guard Stuart Hines, ranked in the nation's top 25 last season in fewest quarterback sacks and fewest tackles for loss allowed.

UK HIGHLIGHTS WITH JOKER PHILLIPS AS OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR ...

- School record 475 points in one season
- 5,764 yards total offense in one season
- Balanced attack has featured 3,000-yard passers, 1,000-yard receivers and 1,000-yard rushers
- Over the last three years, 12 UK offensive players have signed NFL contracts

End DeQuin Evans (55) and tackle Ricky Lumpkin (53) lead the Wildcat defensive line. Evans ranked among the SEC leaders in quarterback sacks and tackles for loss last season. Lumpkin posted a career-high tackle total a year ago.

The Kentucky defense has made dramatic progress under coordinator Steve Brown, significantly reducing points and yardage allowed during his three seasons.

DANNY TREVATHAN

UK HIGHLIGHTS UNDER DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR STEVE BROWN ...

- Improved from 99th to as high as 35th in the nation in scoring defense
- Improved from 118th to as high as 40th in the nation in total defense
- Wildcat players have led the SEC in tackles and total passes defended
- UK defense scored game-winning touchdown in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl

Linebacker Wesley Woodyard led the SEC in tackles in 2007 and now plays for the Denver Broncos. "Coach Brown's knowledge definitely prepared me for the NFL. When I first got to the Broncos, we ran a very similar defense to the one we ran at Kentucky," Woodyard said.

Speedy linebacker Danny Trevathan racked up 82 tackles last season.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE SPECIAL TEAMS

SPECIAL TEAMS HIGHLIGHTS IN RECENT SEASONS ...

- Lones Seiber set the single-season school record for most points by a kicker (2007) and the UK career scoring record (2009)
- Special teams made a decisive game-changing play in each of UK's three-consecutive bowl wins (2006-07-08)
- UK led the SEC in net kickoff coverage (2007 and 2008)
- UK led the SEC and ranked third in the nation in kickoff returns (2008)
- All-SEC punter Tim Masthay led the league in punting (2008)
- Keenan Burton is the SEC's all-time career leader for kickoff return average (2007)
- UK led the nation in punt return average. UK was the only team to rank in the nation's top 10 in punt and kickoff returns (2006)
- Broke the school records for punt and kickoff returns and only team to rank in nation's top five in both categories (2005)
- Kicker Taylor Begley became the No. 3 scorer in school history and set a UK-record streak of 93 consecutive extra points (2005)
- Rafael Little led the SEC in punt return average (2005)
- Blocked nine opponent kicks, a school record (2004)
- Derek Abney tied the NCAA record for most kick return touchdowns in a career and earned All-America honors (2003)

Matt Roark (3) has blocked five kicks in his career, four extra points and a field goal.

UK special teams have set numerous NCAA, SEC and school records, but most of all, have helped win games.

DERRICK LOCKE

Derrick Locke has a 100-yard kickoff return in each of the last two seasons. He was the first-team All-SEC kickoff returner by CollegeFootballNews.com.

Lones Seiber set the UK career scoring record and the single-season school record for most points by a kicker.

Ohio Casualty Center for Academic & Tutorial Services (CATS)

THE FACTS ABOUT CATS

- Kentucky was the first school in the nation to open an academic center dedicated exclusively to student-athletes
- The current CATS was built at a cost of $2.4 million and includes:
  - Spacious study areas and tutoring rooms
  - 20,000 square feet of space
  - A career development and life skills resource center
  - Community outreach office
  - CATS has a full-time staff of 11, plus numerous graduate assistants and tutors
- UK spends approximately $1,500,000 each year for the operation of CATS
- UK has been chosen as an NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills "Program of Excellence" based on commitment to academics, athletics, community service, career development and personal development
- The nationally acclaimed CATS staff includes Bob Bradley and Barb Deniston, both winners of the National Academic Advisor of the Year Award

CAROL MARTIN GATTON
COMPUTER CENTER

Winning in the CLASSROOM

"When I came on my recruiting visit, the CATS center and academic support staff definitely jumped out so strong to me and my parents. We left very impressed because of the support and professionalism they showed. The staff pushed me to take summer courses and I graduated in four years. Without CATS, that definitely wouldn't have happened."

— Jeremy Jarmon, Washington Redskins,
UK graduate with a degree in Political Science

Academic accomplishments by the Kentucky football program include:

- 100 percent graduation for UK's 2006 senior class that also won the Music City Bowl
- UK had a first-team Academic All-American four-straight seasons, from 2005-08
- Kentucky led the nation in Academic All-Americans in 2005 and 2007
- Since 1984, Kentucky has placed more players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll than any other school
- Hayden Lane and Jacob Tamme won the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award, the first league school to have back-to-back winners
- Kentucky football has won the Academic Achievement Award for having the nation's highest graduation rate

JEREMY JARMON

"One thing that really stands out about my time at Kentucky is CATS. Mr. Bradley, Barb Deniston, and the staff did a great job. We had access to computers, tutors, study halls — it was very nice to have those resources available. Academically, it was great."

— Dermontti Dawson, former Wildcat and
All-Pro center with the Pittsburgh Steelers

DERMONTTI DAWSON

Are You Tough Enough FOR THE ROCK?

In his first year as UK's director of strength and conditioning, Rock Oliver is renowned for his work in developing the body, mind and spirit of elite athletes at the professional and collegiate levels.

The Kentucky football strength and conditioning program is under the direction of Ray “Rock” Oliver, giving the Wildcats the only head strength coach in the SEC with NFL Experience.

"With Coach Rock, a workout is not just a workout. He makes our minds strong, too. He takes it to the max."

— UK tailback Derrick Locke

"Coach Rock pushes us harder than we've ever been pushed. I'm in the best shape of my life. He is so intense, we want to keep working harder. He gives us the mentality to always compete."

— UK defensive end DeQuin Evans

"I had four or five great years with Rock. He is an excellent coach - dedicated, knowledgeable, and just a very hard working man. I learned a lot from him. I bettered myself tremendously from the time I got to spend with him."

— Carson Palmer, Pro Bowl quarterback

"A lot of good things started happening to me late in my career and it was no coincidence that Ray was involved. He helped prolong my career with his workouts and his motivation. Ray always found an innovative way to get a great workout in without killing us. He did a great job helping me play at an All-Pro level into my 30s. He keeps things light-hearted while still motivating you."

— Willie Anderson, All-Pro offensive tackle

"You get a sense of confidence from Ray. When you work with him you have that trust and feeling 'He knows what he's doing.' He can relate to players. You can talk to him about anything, anytime ... When I had problems with my hamstrings early in my career, he sat down with me and designed a program of core work, stretching and cold tubs. Every day he (worked with) me after practice. That routine came from Ray and we had great results. I told him, 'When I go to the Pro Bowl, I'm taking you with me.' And I did."

— T.J. Houshmandzadeh, Pro Bowl wide receiver

"Ray is one of the most passionate coaches I've ever had the pleasure to work with. He's thorough, tremendously knowledgeable and just a very hard working man. He's going to be an asset to any program fortunate enough to have him."

— Marvin Lewis, Cincinnati Bengals head coach

CHAD OCHOCINCO

"Ray helped my game not only on the field but off the field. He made me a better man. He was not only a coach but a friend, someone you could trust. He's the kind of guy you want to produce for."

— Chad Ochocinco, All-Pro wide receiver

The SEC SECond to None

Did You Know?

- SEC teams have won four-straight national championships.
- SEC teams have played and won more bowl games than any other conference.
- In 2009, the SEC led all conferences with the most players on NFL rosters.
- The SEC has led all conferences with the most selections in the NFL Draft the last four years.
- The SEC has led the nation in attendance for the last 29 years.

"There is nothing like SEC football. The atmosphere was unbelievable in every stadium we played. If you are trying to get to the NFL, the SEC should be your first stop."

— Glenn Holt, Minnesota Vikings

"Playing in the SEC helped me prepare for the NFL because of the speed of the game. We went against the best players every week and I see a lot of those guys in the NFL now."

— Garry Williams, Carolina Panthers

"Playing in the SEC is a dream come true. The competition in the SEC is 'level 10' every Saturday."

— Steve Johnson, Buffalo Bills

Kentucky's recent big SEC wins include comeback victories over Georgia in 2006 (at top, background), at Georgia and Auburn (below) last year as well as a three-overtime upset victory over eventual national champion LSU (above) in 2007.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT THE SEC ...

"The reality is this: it's the SEC's world and we're all just living in it."

— The Sporting News

"That the SEC deserves to be number one is something you know instinctively."

— Lindy's Magazine

"The depth of the SEC is obvious every year we talk about it."

— Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN

"The SEC is the gold standard for college athletics."

— Mike Aresco, CBS

"There are so many cameras in here (SEC Football Media Days) because the nation can't get enough of imagery and pageantry of the SEC ... This is without question the No. 1 league in college football."

— Mike Bianchi, Orlando Sentinel

2007 Music City Bowl Champions

Kentucky is in high demand by postseason bowl games and it's easy to understand why. At least 40,000 Wildcat fans have attended five of the last six UK bowl games, setting the bowl attendance record four times.

"It was an amazing experience to walk out on the field and see the stands. It was one big bowl of blue and white Cat fans. It was just such a nice thing to go to a bowl game with so much fan support."

— UK Wide Receiver Keenan Burton reacting to UK's fan attendance at the Music City Bowl

"Bowl week is a reward for all of your dedication and a testament to the great things you accomplished that year as a team. It was a great experience!"

College Coaches with NFL EXPERIENCE

"One of the main reasons I was able to be successful right away in the NFL was because of what I learned from the coaches at UK. Their NFL experience was a big help."

—Jeremy Jarmon, Washington Redskins

JOKER PHILLIPS

After playing for Kentucky, Joker Phillips was a pro wide receiver with the Washington Redskins and Toronto Argonauts.

Larry Brinson (above) won a Super Bowl championship ring as a member of the Dallas Cowboys.

Tee Martin played six years of professional football, including time with the Pittsburgh Steelers (pictured here), Philadelphia Eagles and Oakland Raiders.

TEE MARTIN

The UK coaching staff has 25 years of pro football experience, including 18 playing seasons and seven years in coaching or administration. Five Kentucky coaches, including the Head Coach and Defensive Coordinator, have spent time in the NFL.

Steve Brown (above) coached six years with the St. Louis Rams and played eight years for the Houston Oilers. In addition to the on-field coaches, UK strength and conditioning coach Ray "Rock" Oliver (below) is the only head strength coach in the SEC with NFL experience.

Mike Summers coached the offensive line with the Atlanta Falcons.

Proud to be WILDCATS

TIM COUCH

Cleveland Browns

"I loved playing at Kentucky. The fans are great and it meant a lot to play in front of them ... Playing in Kentucky's passing offense and playing in the SEC helped me get ready for the pros. The quarterback has a lot of responsibility in the system and the speed in the SEC is better than any conference in the country. It gets you ready for the NFL."

Couch was the NFL's No. 1 draft pick in 1999.

DERMONTTI DAWSON

Pittsburgh Steelers

"I enjoyed my time at Kentucky immensely. The basics I learned at UK helped me get started in the NFL. UK helped showcase what I could do as a player ... Academically, it was great."

Dawson was an All-Pro center and played in seven Pro Bowls. He played 13 years for the Steelers.

BRAXTON KELLEY

Denver Broncos

"He's (Joker Phillips) a really cool guy who relates well to his players and sees what they see. I think he'll do a really good job as head coach because he is a great teacher ... Our defensive scheme (at Kentucky) allowed us to be players. The defensive coaches at UK helped me understand the game of football and how it could translate to the NFL."

Kelley is in his second season with the Broncos.

GARRY WILLIAMS

Carolina Panthers

"Joker is a really good guy to know and have as a coach. He helped me a lot. He has so much passion for the game. His mentality is to win and I think he's going to do big things."

Williams is in his second season with the Panthers.

New York Jets

"Kentucky definitely prepared me for everything I'm experiencing. I learned the same things at UK that I'm being taught in the NFL. The facilities at Kentucky are great. Everything I have in the NFL, I had access to at Kentucky. If I had to do it over again, I wouldn't change a thing. I would choose Kentucky every time."

Robertson was the No. 4 pick in the first round of the NFL Draft.

JEREMY JARMON

Washington Redskins

"I always knew that Coach Phillips would be a great head coach. His passion for the game and love for his players was clear and you could tell how much he loved them ... I really enjoyed going to school at Kentucky. The public, media and fans treated us great. It's an experience I'll never forget."

Jarmon is in his second season with the Redskins.

STEVE JOHNSON

Buffalo Bills

"Joker knows what he wants and he expects his players to play not just at their potential but over their potential. Joker kept us motivated to be better because he wasn't easily impressed. I believe that made us better because in life you're not going to get praise every time you do something. He kept me on my toes to go all-out every single day. He had us mentally ready."

Johnson is entering his third season at Buffalo.

KEENAN BURTON

St. Louis Rams

"Coach Phillips and his offense definitely helped me become a professional. UK's offense helped me move up the depth chart in the NFL because of the attention to detail and proficiency in running routes."

Burton is in his third year in St. Louis.

DEREK ABNEY

Baltimore Ravens

"Competing in the SEC at a high-caliber program like Kentucky really helped me. To be able to play football and finish my degree was great ... the emphasis on academics was always there. The facilities are second to none — awesome — with the most recent technology. And the fans are incredible, the best fans a player could have."

Abney was a first-team All-American and set numerous NCAA and SEC records for kickoff and punt returns at Kentucky.

National Award WINNERS

The all-around talents of Kentucky football players have been recognized by winning national awards for performance on the field, in the classroom and in service.

Quarterback Mike Hartline received an ESPN "helmet sticker," signifying one of the nation's best performances of the week, for leading the Wildcats to a come-from-behind victory over Arkansas.

Linebacker Terry Clayton, who overcame a severe hearing impairment to play college football, received the Rudy Award as the nation's most inspirational player. Attending the presentation were then-Coach Rich Brooks (left) and award name-sake Daniel "Rudy" Ruettiger (right), former Notre Dame player and subject of the movie Rudy.

Punter Tim Masthay (not pictured) was a two-year Academic All-American as named by ESPN The Magazine. Kentucky led the nation in Academic All-Americans in 2005 and 2007 and had a first-team Academic All-American four straight years.

Quarterback André Woodson earned two AT&T National Player of the Week awards. Presenting the trophies was Dave Weller of AT&T. Woodson also was named National Player of the Week by Rivals.com for the win over LSU.

Honors for former UK tight end Jacob Tamme (now with the Indianapolis Colts) included:

- Fourth-team All-America
- Academic All-America
- Bobby Bowden Award from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (shown above) for being a faith model on the field, in the classroom and in the community
- National Scholar-Athlete Award, including an $18,000 scholarship, from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame

Prime Time EXPOSURE

UK ON NATIONAL TELEVISION

- The Southeastern Conference's new contracts with CBS and ESPN make the SEC the nation's most-televised conference
- Every SEC game this season will be televised on CBS or an ESPN affiliate
- Kentucky has played in some of the most-watched games in college football in recent seasons, including the highest-rated program in the history of ESPN Classic

"You have all of the exposure you could ever want by playing in the SEC."

— Jacob Tamme, Indianapolis Colts

Kentucky's gridiron success has captured the excitement of college football fans throughout the nation.

Making a Difference in THE COMMUNITY

Many Kentucky players choose to take part in the UK Athletics community service program and have been honored for their dedication. UK ranks third in college football history for the number of players on the National Good Works Team.

Jacob Lewellen (left) and Marcus Davis took part in a mission trip to Nicaragua in March of 2010.

A Great Place to Live LEXINGTON

One of the nation's top five college sports towns

LEXINGTON AT A GLANCE

Location: Within a day's drive of 75% of the U.S. population.

Population: Lexington-Fayette County – 260,512

Time Zone: Eastern

Average Temperatures: (F°)

Spring – 74° high, 34° low

Summer – 86° high, 61° low

Fall – 79° high, 36° low

Winter – 54° high, 23° low

Annual Precipitation: 44.6 inches

In addition to being the home of Kentucky basketball, Rupp Arena (above) hosts numerous concerts and cultural events throughout the year. At right, Keeneland Race Track is open every April and October.

Walk-ons Succeed AT KENTUCKY

Walk-ons have a history of success at Kentucky, with many of them earning starting roles, national awards and full scholarships. UK has had a walk-on in the regular starting lineup for the last seven seasons.

JAMES WHALEN

Former Wildcat tight end James Whalen was a first-team All-American and went on to play for the Dallas Cowboys.

“You can go to Kentucky, work hard, and even as a walk-on you can get your shot to play. Not a lot of programs allow that to happen.”

— Glenn Pakulak, punter for the New Orleans Saints

Former walk-on Glenn Pakulak (above) was the National Special Teams Player of the Year at UK and punted for the New Orleans Saints, and Washington Redskins.

John Conner walked on at UK, became the team's starting fullback and was selected by the New York Jets in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

Center Matt McCutchan was one of five walk-ons in the starting lineup when the Wildcats defeated Clemson in the 2006 Music City Bowl.

The Finest in MEDICAL CARE

The Kentucky Football Medical Team is led by athletic trainer Jim Madaleno, formerly with the NFL's New York Giants. Madaleno works with six team doctors and a variety of consultants, covering every medical specialty, in order to give UK the finest medical care.

UK athletic trainer Jim Madaleno has earned the trust of the Kentucky players in the prevention and care of athletic injuries.

"Jim (Madaleno) does an excellent job of getting you ready to play. Jim's been with the world champion Giants in the NFL, so he knows what he's talking about."

— Dennis Johnson, former SEC Defensive Player of the Year and NFL veteran

Wildcats Wear NIKE

"Nobody can compete with Tom (Kalinowski, pictured above). He is one of the best guys there and he loves his job. And, being sponsored by Nike is something everyone wants. That was another big reason I chose Kentucky."

— Wesley Woodyard, Denver Broncos

UK Football has an exclusive contract with Nike to provide the most up-to-date uniforms and practice gear. Equipment managers Tom Kalinowski and Aaron Wasson are specialists in the fitting of equipment to maximize comfort and safety of the players.

Recruiting Message to WILDCAT FANS

FROM COACH JOKER PHILLIPS

"Obviously, it is of the utmost importance that our coaches, athletic staff, and fans stay compliant to the NCAA rules involving recruiting. The NCAA rules do not allow fans to call, write, send electronic messages or make in-person contact with prospective student-athletes, or their families, on behalf of the University of Kentucky.

"It is permissible for you to recommend a prospective student-athlete to us. If you would like to recommend a player, please write or call the UK football office (Nutter Training Center, 136 Sports Center Drive, Lexington, Ky., 40506-0277, phone 859-257-3611). Give us the player's name and the high school he attends. The coaching staff will take it from there. Please do not contact the player, his family or his coaches on our behalf. Thank you for your cooperation."

THE NCAA RULES AND YOU

Compliance with NCAA rules is of the highest priority for our athletics program and institution. As a member of the NCAA, the University of Kentucky is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans. Even the best-intentioned action on your part may be a violation of NCAA rules. Please contact the UK Compliance Office if you have any questions regarding what is permissible. We encourage our boosters and fans to "Ask Before You Act."

Inquiries should be directed to Sandra Bell, UK Senior Associate Athletics Director, at this address:

Sandra Bell, Compliance Office
University of Kentucky Athletics
Joe Craft Center
338 Lexington Avenue
Lexington, KY 40506-0604
Phone: (859) 257-6482
E-mail: sbell@uky.edu

If, for any reason, you are uncomfortable reporting a violation or a concern directly to the athletics department, you may use the "ComplyCat" hotline. The ComplyCat hotline can be reached by dialing 1-877-898-6072.

REPRESENTATIVES OF ATHLETIC INTERESTS — "BOOSTERS"

A representative of Kentucky's athletic interests, or "booster," is anyone who:

- Has ever participated in or is currently a member of the various athletic department support groups;
- Has purchased season tickets;
- Has made a donation to the athletics program;
- Has assisted or been requested (by the athletics department staff) to assist in the recruitment of prospects; examples -- writing, texting or e-mailing a prospect; participating in a chat room with a prospect; posting on a prospect's personal website, such as MySpace or Facebook; talking to a prospect on the phone or in person;

- Has helped arrange summer and/or vacation employment for student-athletes or provided benefits to student-athletes; or
- Has been involved, in any way, in the promotion of UK's athletic program.

RECRUITING

Only UK coaches and athletic department staff may be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter, text, e-mail, personal website posts, or in person. This prohibition remains in effect until the prospect attends class as a full-time student in a fall or spring term at UK.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE

In the sport of football, a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth grade.

EXTRA BENEFITS

Prospective and current student-athletes may not receive extra benefits. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. Extra benefits would include, but are not limited to:

- Cash or loans in any amount;
- Co-signing or arranging a loan;
- Gifts or free services (such as airline ticket, restaurant meal, etc.);
- Use of an automobile;
- Rent-free or reduced-cost housing;
- Money for, or a guarantee of, bail or bond;
- Employment of a student-athlete at a rate higher than the wages paid for similar work; and
- Payment to a student-athlete for work not performed.

Your commitment to helping the University of Kentucky comply with the letter and spirit of the rules of the NCAA and SEC is greatly appreciated.

2010 OUTLOOK

Usually when a new head coach takes over, it's heralded as a "new era" for that team. However, first-year Kentucky football coach Joker Phillips doesn't want to change eras. His goal is continued growth for a UK program he played a major role in building.

With Phillips serving as coordinator of record-setting offenses under previous head coach Rich Brooks, the Wildcats made school history with four-consecutive bowl games and three-straight bowl victories.

Phillips will stand firm on the bedrock principles he helped instill in the program – hard work, personal responsibility, honest communication and perseverance – while driving for more success on the field.

That's not to say that changes won't be made under the plan Phillips calls "Operation Win." Phillips showed his own initiatives with changes on the coaching staff; bringing in a renowned strength and conditioning coach from the NFL; pushing for faster tempo on the practice field.

After a productive spring practice, Phillips has established third-down defense and more balance on offense as the immediate priorities when the Wildcats resume preseason work in August.

"Our third-down defense has to improve," Phillips said. "Positioning is good but we're going to have to tackle better so we can get ourselves off the field on third down."

"In order to be balanced we have to throw the ball more efficiently. That was our goal in the spring and something we will continue to build on."

Kentucky is coming off a 7-6 season in which the Wildcats went to a school-record fourth-straight bowl game. Questions abound, however, as the UK staff must solidify replacements in the offensive line, tight end and full-back positions, which were decimated by graduation, and on defense new playmakers must emerge to replace four departed All-SEC defenders.

PREVIEWING THE OFFENSE

The most obvious question about the team is at quarterback, where the three-way competition with senior Mike Hartline, sophomore Morgan Newton and redshirt freshman Ryan Mossakowski will continue in August.

Hartline started the first five games last season before being sidelined by a knee injury. He has thrown for 2,502 yards and 15 touchdowns during his career, completing 56.7 percent of his passes.

After Hartline's injury, Newton derailed an intended redshirt year and started the last eight games, five of which were victories. He completed 55.6 percent for 706 yards and six touchdowns, with only three interceptions. He also showed an ability to move the ball with his legs, picking up 130 net yards and two touchdowns on the ground. Mossakowski showed good passing accuracy and offensive command during his redshirt season.

Although there is much public debate about the high-profile position, Phillips is confident that whoever gets first crack at the job will be productive.

Senior Brad Durham looks to take over a full-time role at right tackle after being a part-time starter the last two years.

"I think we have two guys (Hartline and Newton) we know can win in this league. Why? Because they have," Phillips said. "We also have a really talented young guy (Mossakowski) who is willing and able."

Lower profile, but just as important, will be finding out who will protect the quarterback and open holes for the running backs. UK had the SEC's second-most experienced offensive line last season but 2010 will be much different in terms of experience.

Junior offensive guard Stuart Hines, a third-team All-SEC pick last season, is the only returning starter but the picture is brighter than it might seem. Nine lettermen are on hand, including five players who have started at least one game during their careers.

Senior Brad Durham has been a part-time starter the last two seasons at right tackle. The spring move of Chandler Burden from defensive end to offensive left tackle went well. Burden will continue his competition with Billy Joe Murphy in August. Murphy, who started three games in '08, has the playing savvy to contribute at any tackle or guard position.

Larry Warford, who opens preseason drills as the starter at right guard, showed great promise last season while earning SEC All-Freshman honors. There is a four-way battle at center with Marcus Davis, Matt Smith, Sam Simpson and Jake Lanefski, who started the last four games at guard in '08 but missed the spring while recovering from injury.

"I feel like we were able to gain some depth in the spring," Phillips said. "We have about seven or eight offensive linemen we can win with and there are others, if they just continue to improve, who will be in the mix also."

It's wide open at tight end and fullback, where the top three players at each position from last year have departed. The only returnee at tight end with game experience is junior Nick Melillo, who caught five passes last season. Several additional contenders make the position quite competitive.

The coaching staff will fill fullback with converted tailback Moncell Allen and former defensive end Greg Meisner.

The ball carrying positions feature a set of veteran tailbacks and receivers with exciting ability. Junior wide receiver Randall Cobb was a first-team All-SEC honoree last year as an all-purpose player. He led the team in receiving with 39 catches for 447 yards and four touchdowns. Spending extensive time as the quarterback in the "WildCobb" formation, he was the team's second-leading rusher with 573 yards, 10 rushing TDs and a sparkling 6.1 yards per carry.

Junior-college transfer Chris Matthews made a good adjustment to the next level, catching 32 passes for 354 yards and three touchdowns. He should make another jump this season, now that he has a year of experience. He also proved to be a capable blocker in the running game.

Junior Gene McCaskill (17 catches for 163 yards) gives the team experienced depth. Sophomore LaRod King showed outstanding potential last season, catching 10 balls for 142 yards and a touchdown, and has good height and speed. Junior Matt Roark (five catches) continues to develop. Additional talented young receivers provide additional depth and competition.

Senior tailback Derrick Locke returns to lead the backfield. Already among the top-10 rushers in school history, the speedy Locke ran for 907 yards and six touchdowns last season and is a threat to go the distance any time his hands are on the ball. He's also a good pass receiver with 31 catches last year.

Sophomores Donald Russell and CoShik Williams, along with redshirt freshman Jonathan George, showed plenty of potential last season at tailback. Russell electrified the crowd by jetting 79 yards for a touchdown against Eastern Kentucky.

SCOUTING THE DEFENSE

In addition to improving on third down, a big task on defense will be to replace the contributions of six departed starters, four of whom earned All-SEC honors last season.

"We had great effort in the spring on defense," Phillips said. "We also started to figure out who our leaders are. That's the thing that was kind of unknown."

Speedy linebacker Danny Trevathan (right) is the team's leading returning tackler, making 82 stops last season.

Senior defensive end DeQuin Evans is a player who can fill a leadership role. He had 12.5 tackles for loss and six quarterback sacks last season, leading the team in both categories. He was a fourth-team All-SEC pick. At the other end, Taylor Wyndham earned second-team Freshman All-America honors last season by numbering 28 tackles, 6.5 for loss and two sacks. He will have to win back a starting job after missing the spring while rehabilitating an injury.

Sophomore end Collins Ukwu made 14 stops last season and continues to add weight and experience. Promising freshmen Tristian Johnson, Patrick Ligon and Justin Henderson hope to earn playing time at end.

Senior Ricky Lumpkin returns to lead the defensive tackles. He made 26 tackles last season and hopes to display more of the big-play ability he showed earlier in his career. Senior Shane McCord (13 tackles last season) will get first crack at the other starting tackle. Juniors Mark Crawford (16 tackles last season) and Antwane Glenn and redshirt freshman Mister Cobble will challenge for action.

Junior weakside linebacker Danny Trevathan is the team's leading returning tackler, making 82 stops last season. Trevathan brings great speed to the position and can be an answer to the quest for big plays and leadership.

After Trevathan, however, there is not much game experience at linebacker. Senior Jacob Dufrene, juniors Ronnie Sneed and Antonio Thomas, sophomore Ridge Wilson and redshirt freshmen Qua Huzzie and Ryan Mosby provide plenty of competition.

There is a good amount of experience in the defensive backfield. UK started five defensive backs in most games last season and there are two returning starters in cornerback Randall Burden and free safety Winston Guy.

Burden showed much improvement last season, with eight pass breakups and two interceptions, returning one of the picks for a touchdown. Guy has immense physical talents, making 60 tackles and five pass breakups last season.

Finding a new strong safety, another cornerback and developing depth is the task in the Wildcat secondary.

Junior Taiedo Smith has good experience as a backup and hopes to claim the strong safety spot. Junior Greg Wilson, juco transfer Josh Gibbs, and redshirt freshmen Jarvis Walker and Dakotah Tyler also will vie at the safeties. At cornerback, junior Cartier Rice and sophomore Martavius Neloms have some game experience.

SCOUTING THE SPECIAL TEAMS

Exciting possibilities are available in kick returns with Randall Cobb and Derrick Locke. Cobb averaged 12.8 yards per punt return last season, including a 73-yard jaunt for a touchdown, and also averaged 26.5 yards on kickoff returns. Locke averaged 27.8 yards on kickoff returns and has 100-yard runbacks for touchdowns in each of the last two seasons.

Junior Ryan Tydlacka is a solid punter, averaging 40 yards per boot last season, and is adept at landing the ball near the goal line. Tydlacka also could become the field goal and extra point kicker following the graduation of Lones Seiber, the team's all-time leading scorer. Tydlacka made 3-of-6 field goals during the 2008 season.

Craig McIntosh, who did an outstanding job last season as the team's kick-off man, and sophomore Patrick Simmons also will compete on field goals and extra points. Freshman signee Joe Mansour will be available in August.

Senior J.J. Helton is a veteran long snapper but is pressed by capable backup Jon Thomas. One goal of the coming season will be to replace some graduated stalwarts on kick coverage.

CAT SCRATCHES

“OPERATION WIN” BEGINS

New head coach Joker Phillips calls his plan for Kentucky football “Operation Win.”

“Operation Win is definitely a process, a growing process,” Phillips said. “We have to get our kids thinking about the three things we want them to do – win in the classroom, win in the community and win on the field.”

“We have to eat, sleep and breathe Operation Win. We have to ingrain it in our kids’ minds.”

While keeping the bedrock principles of hard work, personal responsibility and honest communication in place, Phillips has numerous changes and accomplishments during the first few months of Operation Win:

- A strong finish to recruiting as several well-regarded prospects committed to the Wildcats in the 48 hours leading up to the signing day in February;
- The addition of Ray “Rock” Oliver, a highly respected coach from the Cincinnati Bengals, to lead the strength and conditioning workouts. The players have responded favorably to the challenges brought by Oliver and his staff.
- Pushing the tempo of spring practice with the goal of improving the team’s practice speed and intensity.
- The team compiled a composite 2.66 grade-point average in the spring, up from 2.35 last fall.
- A strong start to the 2011 recruiting campaign.

CONTINUED SUCCESS IN 2009

Kentucky won seven games during the 2009 season and advanced to the Music City Bowl, continuing UK’s success in recent seasons.

- UK has won at least seven games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that has been accomplished in almost a century – since 1909-12.
- UK has gone to four-straight bowl games for the first time in school history.
- UK extended its school-record non-conference win streak to 18 games before a loss in the Music City Bowl.
- UK notched three SEC road wins – at Auburn, Vanderbilt and Georgia – for the first time in 32 years, since 1977.
- UK defeated Auburn for the first time in 43 years, since 1966. It was also UK’s first win at Auburn in nearly half a century, since 1961.
- UK won at Georgia for the first time in 32 years, since 1977.
- UK’s 42-0 win over Miami (Ohio) was its first shutout in 13 years.
- UK had three come-from-behind wins in the fourth quarter (vs. Louisville, Auburn, Georgia), giving the Wildcats 12 such wins over the last four seasons.
- For the third-straight year, Kentucky fans broke the school record for average attendance at 69,594 per game, with three crowds over the 70,000 mark.

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

After Joker Phillips was named head coach, there were four changes on the Kentucky coaching staff.

Tee Martin inherited Phillips’ former slot as wide receivers coach. Martin, a former quarterback in the NFL and CFL, came to UK from New Mexico. He has extensive recruiting ties in Georgia, particularly in the Atlanta area, along with his native Alabama and throughout the South.

Lexington native Mike Summers was brought in to coach the offensive line. A veteran collegiate coach who also has experience in the NFL, Summers’ lines have been the power plants for dynamic offenses at several schools, most recently at Arkansas.

David Turner, who was at Kentucky in 1993-94, returned to coach the Wildcat defensive line. He has been at four Southeastern Conference schools, Alabama, Vanderbilt, Mississippi State and UK.

There was also one change among the graduate assistant coaches, as former Wildcat wide receiver Tommy Cook returned to his alma mater and will be the GA for the defensive staff.

DEFENSIVE NUMBERS IMPROVED

Kentucky’s defensive yardage and points allowed have shown significant reductions during the past three seasons when Steve Brown was appointed defensive coordinator in 2007.

UK was 118th in the nation in total defense the year before Brown took over. The Wildcats had improved to 53rd in the nation by last season. UK’s scoring defense improved from 99th to 43rd in the country in the same time span.

QUARTERBACK COMPETITION

Much of the attention in preseason practice will be focused on the quarterback position, which looms as a three-way competition between senior Mike Hartline, sophomore Morgan Newton and redshirt freshman Ryan Mossakowski.

Hartline started the first five games of 2009 and was enjoying arguably the best game of his career at South Carolina when he was sidelined by a knee injury. He completed 59.4 percent of his passes for 802 yards and six touchdowns.

Newton was headed for a redshirt season until Hartline’s injury. He started the final eight games of the season, five of which were victories. He completed 55.6 percent for 706 yards and six TDs.

Mossakowski took a redshirt season as he continued to build strength from a shoulder injury and surgery incurred during his senior year in high school. He showed good passing accuracy and command of the offense during his redshirt season.

BIG PLAY DEFENDERS MUST BE REPLACED

Defensive coordinator Steve Brown has a challenge to replace six starters who made the majority of big plays for that unit last season.

Tackle Corey Peters, linebackers Micah Johnson and Sam Maxwell and cornerback Trevard Lindley each earned All-Southeastern Conference honors last year and departed dependable safety Calvin Harrison had the best season of his career.

New leaders must emerge to take their place. Some of the returning playmakers include defensive end DeQuin Evans, who led the team in tackles for loss and sacks last season; linebacker Danny Trevathan, the team's second-leading tackler; and cornerback Randall Burden, who had two interceptions and eight pass breakups.

VERSATILE PLAYMAKERS BACK ON OFFENSE

Kentucky's attack will feature two of the most versatile playmakers in college football with Randall Cobb and Derrick Locke.

Cobb starts at wide receiver but doesn't stop there. He returns punts and kickoffs and perhaps his most vital role is at quarterback in the "WildCobb" formation. He led the team in receiving last season and was second in rushing as he accounted for 1,673 all-purpose yards and scored 15 touchdowns.

"You won't find a more versatile football player anywhere in the country," ESPN reporter Chris Low wrote of Cobb.

Locke led the Wildcats in rushing last season, is a capable pass catcher and his sub-4.3 speed makes him extremely dangerous on kickoff returns. He accounted for 1,830 all-purpose yards last season.

Perhaps the best indication of the duo's versatility is the fact Cobb and Locke, respectively, were named the first-team and second-team All-SEC all-purpose players last season by The Associated Press.

INJURY UPDATE

Three key Wildcats are expected to be fully ready to go in August after having limited participation in spring practice as they recovered from injuries.

Senior running back Moncell Allen (knee) moved from tailback to fullback in the spring. Allen has rushed for 469 yards and three touchdowns during his career as a reserve tailback.

Defensive end Taylor Wyndham (shoulder) was held out of contact. Wyndham was a second-team Freshman All-American after making a number of big plays, including 6.5 tackles for loss and a pair of quarterback sacks.

Offensive lineman Jake Lanefski is recovering from his knee injury in the 2009 season. A starter the last four games of the '08 season, he will contend for a regular role at center or right guard when he returns in August.

SCHEDULE NOTES

Kentucky opens the season at in-state rival Louisville in a game that will feature first-time coaches with UK's Joker Phillips and Charlie Strong of UofL. An interesting twist to the game is that the coaches are long-time friends, but will temporarily set aside their relationship for the rivalry contest.

UK begins the home schedule on Sept. 11 against Western Kentucky, the start of a four-game series in which two games will be in Lexington and two will be played at Nashville's LP Field, home of the NFL's Tennessee Titans ... UK will play a first-time opponent when the Akron Zips come to town on Sept. 18 ... Another first-time opponent, Charleston Southern, visits Lexington in November.

Six of Kentucky's eight Southeastern Conference games will be against teams that played in bowl games last season. UK opens the league slate Sept. 25 at Florida ... Ole Miss replaces Alabama as the rotating SEC opponent. The Wildcats' last game at Ole Miss was in 2005 ... UK's first SEC home game is against Auburn on Oct. 9, the first of a three-game homestand that follows with South Carolina and the Homecoming game vs. Georgia ... After an open date on Nov. 20, UK concludes the regular season at Tennessee.

CATSCCELLANEOUS

- Position changes in the spring included senior Moncell Allen from tailback to fullback; junior Greg Meisner moving from defensive end to fullback; junior Chandler Burden moving from defensive end to offensive tackle; redshirt freshman Jordan Aumiller shifting from linebacker to tight end; and redshirt freshman Dakotah Tyler from tailback to free safety. The moves went well as all five could start or be in the playing rotation at their new positions.
- Over the last four seasons, Kentucky has come from behind in the fourth quarter to win 12 games.
- Joker Phillips is the first African-American head football coach at UK and only the second in the history of the Southeastern Conference.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 18 national cheerleading championships, including 14 of the last 16, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association competition.

A key position change of the spring involved the move of senior Moncell Allen from tailback to fullback. Allen has rushed for 469 yards and three touchdowns during his career at tailback.

HEAD COACH JOKER PHILLIPS

For Joker Phillips and University of Kentucky football, the future is now. Designated as UK's head coach of the future in January of 2008, the plan became reality in January 2010 when Phillips was appointed to head the program after Rich Brooks' retirement.

Phillips is only the fifth Kentucky alumnus to become head coach of the Wildcats and the first since Jerry Claiborne, who led the Cats from 1982-89. Phillips' appointment also has significance in that he is the Wildcats' first African-American head football coach and only the second in the history of the Southeastern Conference.

LED UK TO HIGHEST POINT TOTAL IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Phillips recently completed his fifth season as offensive coordinator and seventh as wide receivers coach in his current tour of duty at his alma mater. Kentucky improved its scoring average and total offense in each of the first three years under Phillips' direction.

The yearly progression reached its zenith when Kentucky scored a school-record 475 points during its 13-game schedule in 2007, helping spark the Wildcats to a second-consecutive Music City Bowl championship. UK's average of 36.5 points per game ranked 15th nationally.

Total offense also was a highlight of the '07 season. UK's total offense of 5,764 yards was the second highest in school history. The average of 443.4 yards per game is fourth in UK annals.

Phillips was nationally acclaimed following Kentucky's 43-37 upset of No. 1 LSU. He was named National Coordinator of the Week by Rivals.com and the National Offensive Coordinator of the Week by the Master Coaches Survey.

Phillips' offensive style has shown flexibility and balance between the run and the pass. During his time as offensive coordinator, UK has had a 3,000-yard passer (André Woodson, who accomplished the feat twice), two 1,000-yard receivers (Keenan Burton and Steve Johnson) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rafael Little, who reached the mark twice).

Balance is shown by the fact that Kentucky led the SEC in passing yardage in 2007 while also rushing for 2,021 yards, 155.5 yards per game and 4.2 yards per attempt. All three rushing marks were UK's best in a dozen seasons, since 1995. The '07 season was the first time in school history that UK averaged at least 250 passing yards per game while rushing for at least 150 yards per game.

As wide receivers coach, Phillips has mentored some of the best in school history – Burton, Johnson, Dicky Lyons Jr. and Derek Abney. With Burton, Johnson and Lyons leading the way, along with tight end Jacob Tamme and tailback Rafael Little, Kentucky was the only team in the nation in 2007 that had five players with at least 1,000 receiving yards during their careers.

Phillips' players have their names etched into the NCAA, SEC and UK record books.

SHOWED THE ABILITY TO ADAPT AND ADJUST

After massive graduation losses from the '07 squad – losing Woodson, Burton, Johnson, Tamme and Little to the NFL – Phillips showed his ability to adapt and adjust during the last two seasons, turning in some of his most astute coaching performances.

Injuries, inexperience and a disciplinary dismissal forced Phillips and quarterbacks coach Randy Sanders to juggle four QBs -- Mike Hartline, Randall

Upon the recommendation of Coach Rich Brooks (right), UK Director of Athletics Mitch Barnhart (left) named Phillips as the head coach of the future in Jan. 2008. With Brooks as head coach and Phillips the offensive coordinator, Kentucky is one of only five SEC schools that have gone to bowl games each of the last four seasons.

Cobb, Morgan Newton and Will Fidler – in 2008 and 2009. Even though there was a rotation of players in the offense's most important position, Phillips figured out a way to generate enough points to win seven games both seasons.

Despite fielding a virtually new offensive lineup in 2008, and losing his potential starting quarterback on the first day of fall practice, Phillips still managed to finish in the top half of the SEC in scoring offense while helping the Wildcats win a third-consecutive bowl game.

The 2009 season showed more of Phillips' ability to adapt to a changing landscape. After five games, with Hartline as the starting quarterback, Phillips had the perfect balance he was looking for with 167.4 rushing yards and 167.4 passing yards per game. But when Hartline was injured, and a true freshman stepped into the starting role, the Wildcats became tilted heavily toward the run.

And, even though everyone in the stadium knew UK had become a run-first offense, Phillips managed to keep the opponent off-balance and score sufficient points to win five of the last eight games, including ground-breaking victories on the road at Auburn and Georgia. For the season, Kentucky rushed for 191.2 yards per game and a 4.5 average per carry, the team's best marks in 14 years.

ONE OF THE NATION'S TOP RECRUITERS, ACCORDING TO SPORTS ILLUSTRATED, RIVALS

In addition to his coaching, Phillips also is a highly effective recruiter, as his straightforward, likeable personality earns the trust of young players and their families. He served as UK's recruiting coordinator in 2003-04, giving up that post because of his additional offensive responsibilities, but continued to be deeply involved in recruiting.

Phillips' abilities in that area have become known across the country, as he has been identified as one of the nation's top recruiters by Sports Illustrated.com and Rivals.com.

Phillips has gained additional coaching experience by working postseason all-star games. He was the winning head coach in the 2005 Magnolia Classic. Following the 2006 season, he was an assistant on the winning squad in the Intajuce North-South All-Star Game.

A LONGTIME KENTUCKIAN AND WILDCAT

Phillips is a familiar face around Kentucky football. He played at UK from 1981-84 and was on the football staff from 1988-96. As a player, Phillips helped lead the Wildcats to appearances in the Hall of Fame Bowl in his junior and senior seasons. He finished his playing days tied for fifth on the UK career receiving list with 75 catches for 935 yards and nine touchdowns. He went on to play a total of three professional seasons with

WHAT THEY'VE SAID AND WRITTEN ABOUT JOKER PHILLIPS

Quotes from January, 2008, when Phillips was named head coach of the future. Quotes are from articles in the Lexington Herald-Leader, Louisville Courier-Journal, Danville Advocate-Messenger, The Cats' Pause, KentuckySportsReport.com, Nashville Tennessean:

- "Phillips' credentials certainly scream head coach. He's been an outstanding position coach, ace recruiter, master motivator and his (2006-07) offenses at UK have been a pair of the best in school history. (His) ability to connect with players, their families and coaches may be his greatest strength." – Matt May, The Cats' Pause
- "I just think it was a great move by the university and a great move for the program. Coach Joker was instrumental in my career. He knows how to go out and get players, and he recognizes how to get the best out of the players he brings in. You know the program will be in good hands because he care so much about Kentucky football." – All-SEC tight end Jacob Tamme, now with the Indianapolis Colts
- "He has all the charisma a head coach would have. I'm glad Kentucky did what they had to do to keep him, because other people were going to keep coming after him. With Joker Phillips, they're not just making a good minority hire. They're making a great hire, period." – Lou Holtz, longtime head coach and current ESPN analyst
- "And when Phillips choked up Friday talking about his home state, and his hometown of Franklin, it reminded you of the Kentucky kids – Andre' Woodson, Jacob Tamme, Keenan Burton, to name three – who helped turn the program around. They were Kentucky kids who wanted to be here, succeed here and build a foundation for success. Joker Phillips is one of those Kentucky kids. He's a reason why right now, in football, Kentucky has a good thing going. It's smart to take advantage of it." – John Clay, Lexington Herald-Leader
- "I felt like he was a guy I could really relate to. When he was recruiting me, he was really open and honest the whole time about me making the best decision for myself and not downplaying anybody else. He just played up Kentucky. I like that." – 2009 All-SEC defensive tackle Corey Peters
- "Cats are smart to name Phillips future coach" – Louisville Courier-Journal headline of a column by Rick Bozich
- "There's not a finer man than Joker Phillips. When he was a kid, he was never in trouble. He hung around the little league park to help kids when he was in high school. He was just a nice kid to be around. You knew he was going to be a good guy. I'm not surprised in the least that he has been this successful." – Gary Moyers of the Danville Advocate-Messenger, who covered Phillips for the Bowling Green Daily News during the coach's high school playing days
- "Joker Phillips is one of the finest college football coaches I know. He's a fine person, too. That's why I believe the football program will be in fine hands once current coach Rich Brooks decides to leave the program on his own terms." – Keith Taylor, KentuckySportsReport.com

Phillips (third from left) was a player and assistant coach under Hall of Fame Coach Jerry Claiborne (left). “Do right, do your best and win,” said Phillips, when asked what he learned from the coaching mentor. Claiborne was known for his sound fundamental football and his high integrity.

As offensive coordinator, Phillips guided UK to a school-record 475 points in the 2007 season. Phillips coached NCAA, SEC and UK record-setters such as quarterbacks Andre’ Woodson and Jared Lorenzen, running back Rafael Little and wide receivers Derek Abney, Keenan Burton, Steve Johnson and Dicky Lyons.

the Washington Redskins of the National Football League (1985, ’87) and Toronto in the Canadian Football League (1986).

Phillips began his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant in 1988-89. In 1990, he served as an assistant recruiting coordinator. He was a full-time assistant coach, in charge of the wide receivers, from 1991-96. In 1991, under Phillips’ guidance, wide receiver Neal Clark broke the single-season record for pass receptions with 47 catches. Clark’s mark stood for six years. Another protégé, Kio Sanford, set three SEC records for kickoff returns in 1994. Craig Yeast, who became the SEC’s all-time leading receiver, played his first two seasons under Phillips in 1995-96.

Phillips returned to UK from South Carolina, where he coached the wide receivers during the 2002 season. Gamecock newcomer Troy Williamson had an outstanding rookie campaign, earned consensus SEC All-Freshman honors. He went on to be the No. 7 pick in the first round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

Phillips also has coached at Cincinnati (1997-98), Minnesota (1999-2000) and Notre Dame (2001). At Minnesota, Phillips guided first-team All-Big Ten wide receiver Ron Johnson, who went on to play for the NFL’s Baltimore Ravens. Although he spent only one season with the Fighting Irish, Phillips placed two wide-outs in the NFL, Javin Hunter with Baltimore and David Givens with New England.

As a coach, eight of his teams have gone to bowl games, including Kentucky to the 1993 Peach Bowl, 2006, ’07 and ’09 Music City Bowls and the AutoZone Liberty Bowl following the 2008 season; Cincinnati to the 1997 Humanitarian Bowl; and Minnesota to the 1999 Sun Bowl and 2000 Micronpc.com Bowl.

Phillips is a native of Franklin, Ky., and was a three-sport standout – football, basketball and track – at Franklin-Simpson High School. He is married to Dr. Leslie Phillips, a professor at Georgetown College.

Joker Phillips completed his Kentucky career as one of the top five pass catchers in school history. He went on to play with the Washington Redskins in the National Football League.

“Operation Win” ON THE ROAD

Since being named head coach in January, Joker Phillips has made dozens of personal appearances to spread his vision of “Operation Win.”

Phillips accepted an invitation to the state capital for a speaking engagement at the Kentucky Court of Justice. (photo courtesy Jennifer Collins, Administrative Office of the Courts)

A native Kentuckian, one of Phillips' priorities is to encourage academic success in the Commonwealth. The coach was the featured speaker at the Breathitt County Academic Boosters awards program and was made an honorary "Jackson General" for his participation. Making the presentation were Stephen Bowling and Susan Herald. (photo courtesy Jeff Noble of the Jackson-Breathitt County Times-Voice)

Phillips led a "Gameday Ready" tour at various locations in Kentucky, promoting academics, healthy eating habits and teaching athletic skills to youth.

RUNNING BACKS COACH

LARRY BRINSON

Larry Brinson, a former National Football League running back with a track record of noteworthy coaching accomplishments, is in his fourth season with the Kentucky Wildcats.

Brinson had a 1,000-yard rusher in 2007, his inaugural year on the UK staff, as Rafael Little surpassed the millenium mark. Little finished his career as the No. 3 rusher and No. 7 pass receiver in Kentucky history.

Little's successor, Derrick Locke, earned second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors last season. Now entering his senior year, Locke already ranks among the top-10 rushers in school history.

Brinson also developed fullback John Conner, a fifth-round pick of the New York Jets in the 2010 National Football League draft, and versatile tailback Alfonso Smith, a 2010 free-agent signee with the Arizona Cardinals.

As a team, Kentucky rushed for more than 2,000 yards in both the '07 and '09 seasons, the most for the Wildcats since the early 1990s.

Brinson came to Kentucky after having coached running backs for 23 years on the staff of Ken Hatfield at Air Force, Arkansas, Clemson, and Rice. Hatfield's teams were usually running-oriented on offense, putting Brinson's players on center stage.

After helping Air Force win the 1983 Independence Bowl in his first season as an assistant coach, Brinson went to Arkansas. The Razorbacks played in a bowl game all six seasons with Brinson on staff, including two appearances in the Cotton Bowl after winning the 1988 and '89 Southwest Conference championships. Arkansas also played in one Orange Bowl, two Liberty Bowls, and the Holiday Bowl during his time in Fayetteville.

Arkansas was ranked in the nation's top 20 in rushing all six years that Brinson was there. One of his top Razorback rushers was Barry Foster, who went on to lead the National Football League in rushing in 1992.

Brinson moved to Clemson in 1990, going to the Hall of Fame, Citrus and Peach Bowls during his four seasons there. Clemson ranked ninth, eighth, and sixth nationally in rushing in the 1991-93 seasons.

Brinson went with Hatfield to Rice in 1994 and coached 12 years with the Owls. Rice had some dominating ground attacks during those years, often finishing in the nation's top-10 rushing teams.

Rice won a share of the 1994 Southwest Conference championship as the Owls ranked ninth in the nation in rushing. The Owls led the nation in rushing in 2004, ranked second in 1997, 2001 and 2003, and were third in the country in 1996. The school record was set in 1997 when the Owls ran for 332.7 yards per game and also rushed for 306.5 yards per game while leading the nation in 2004. His backs earned all-conference honors four times during his term there.

A native of Miami, Fla., Brinson was a four-year letterman at the University of Florida, playing in a bowl game each season. His career totals featured 1,105 rushing yards and nine touchdowns.

Brinson went on to play five years in the National Football League, including three seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1977-79) and two years with the Seattle Seahawks (1980-81). He scored four touchdowns as a pro player and had a career average of 21 yards on kickoff returns.

Brinson was a member of the Dallas teams that played in the 1978 and '79 Super Bowls, including a championship when the Cowboys defeated Denver in the '78 title game.

All totaled, Brinson has extensive post-season and championship experience. As a player, he participated in four bowl games, three NFL play-offs, and two Super Bowls (including one championship). As a coach, he has been involved in 13 bowl games and three conference championships.

Brinson has a son, Kody, and daughters Ashly and Olivia.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

STEVE BROWN

The Kentucky defense has made noticeable improvements in the three seasons that Steve Brown has been the Kentucky defensive coordinator.

By following Brown's plan — put players in position to attack and play as aggressively as possible — the Wildcats have significantly decreased points and yardage allowed.

UK's scoring defense has improved from 99th in the nation in 2006 (the year before Brown became coordinator) to 43rd last year. The Wildcats' total yardage allowed has moved from 118th to 53rd in the same time span.

Wildcat players have flourished under Brown's system. UK has had at least one first-team All-SEC defender each season under Brown's guidance. Cornerback Trevard Lindley was named second-team All-America and ranks among the all-time Southeastern Conference leaders in pass breakups.

In Brown's three years as coordinator, 12 Wildcat defensive players have gone on to the National Football League.

Brown is in his eighth season on the Wildcat staff. He guided the UK secondary for four years until Coach Rich Brooks tabbed him as the defensive coordinator.

As a 14-year playing and coaching veteran of the National Football League, and as a former player and coach under Brooks, Brown had been an obvious choice to join the Kentucky coaching staff in 2003.

Brown's acumen has been apparent during his term with the Wildcats.

Individually, safety Muhammad Abdullah was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference for three consecutive years (2003-05).

Under Brown's tutelage, cornerback Antoine Huffman set the Kentucky career record for pass breakups (now broken by Lindley) and three UK defensive backs were selected for a Freshman All-SEC team.

In 2006, safety Marcus McClinton was one of the nation's leaders in generating turnovers with four interceptions and five fumbles caused. And, Lindley emerged as a top-flight cover corner, earning first-team Freshman All-America accolades.

Brooks and Brown first became acquainted during the collegiate recruiting process, when Brown went to Oregon to play for the Ducks. He was a four-year letterman from 1979-82 as a defensive back and kick returner. He was a four-year choice as All-Pacific 10, first team as a senior, second team as a junior, and honorable mention as a freshman and sophomore. He played in the Hula Bowl following his senior year.

Brown was a third-round draft pick by the Houston Oilers in 1983. He played eight years for the Oilers (1983-90) as a cornerback and kick returner. He was named to the NFL All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly in 1983 and was chosen the AFC Defensive Player of the Week in the '85 season. Houston advanced to the playoffs in each of his final four seasons. He joined the San Francisco 49ers in 1991 but retired because of injury.

After three years in private business, Brown returned to football when Brooks hired him for the coaching staff of the St. Louis Rams. Brown was a defensive assistant in 1995. He was promoted to cornerbacks coach in 1996-97, then was given responsibility for the entire secondary from 1998-2000.

In the 1999 season, the Rams intercepted 29 passes, the fourth-highest total in franchise history, and Todd Lyght became the first Rams defensive back to earn a Pro Bowl berth in 10 years. The season was capped with a 23-16 win over Tennessee in the 2000 Super Bowl. St. Louis also qualified for the playoffs following the 2000 season.

When Brooks called Brown again, this time to join the coaching staff at Kentucky, Brown was eager to rejoin his former coach.

Brown and his wife, Michele, have two sons, Cole and Jared. Brown graduated from Oregon with a degree in English literature.

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH TEE MARTIN

Tee Martin, former National Football League quarterback and national championship QB at Tennessee, is the new wide receivers coach at Kentucky.

"Tee has a great ability to relate and communicate with young people," Coach Joker Phillips said. "I had a chance to watch him coach (current Wildcat) Matt Roark in high school and I was impressed with how he handled himself. I think he'll be a tremendous asset in recruiting. He is very well-known in Atlanta and other areas in the South."

Martin's first task will be to guide a group of wide receivers with a nice mix of veterans and youth. Senior Chris Matthews and juniors Randall Cobb and Gene McCaskill lead the corps. In addition, there are several talented youngsters looking to push their way into playing time.

Martin comes to UK from the University of New Mexico, where he was quarterbacks coach during the 2009 season. Under Martin's guidance, Lobo QB Donovan Porterie threw for 2,411 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Prior to UNM, Martin was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Atlanta High School in the 2008 season. He was the QB coach and passing game coordinator at North Cobb High School (Kennesaw, Ga.) in 2007, helping the Warriors to a 10-1 record in the Class AAAA ranks. Roark was the team's senior quarterback that year and he completed 72.1 percent of his passes for 1,552 yards and 15 touchdowns. Roark was the Cobb County Player of the Year and honorable-mention all-state by the Georgia Sportswriters Association and the Atlanta Journal-Constitution.

Martin also has been a coach for the Elite 11 Quarterback Camps (2007-08), Nike football training camps (2007-08) and the Nike Combine Tour (2008). He has mentored and evaluated more than 1,000 quarterbacks, including more than 30 Division I signees. He also created the "Dual Threat" Quarterback Camp and Academy in Atlanta in 2008.

Martin began his coaching career as the passing game coordinator at Morehouse College in Atlanta during the 2006 season, when the Maroon Tigers had the top-ranked rushing, passing and total offense in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

In addition, Martin has some interesting experience as a member of the media. In 2007 and '08, he was a college football analyst for the Comcast Sports Southeast's twice-weekly show "Talking Football." He also did a weekly radio show about college football, "Hot Tee and Touchdowns," on the ESPN affiliate in Atlanta, 680 AM The Fan.

A native of Mobile, Ala., Martin was a four-year letterman at Tennessee from 1996-99. After serving as a backup to Peyton Manning in 1996 and '97, Martin led the Volunteers to the 1998 national championship. The Vols' 13-0 record was capped by a 23-16 win over Florida State in the Fiesta Bowl. Martin led Tennessee to another trip to the Fiesta Bowl following the '99 season. With current UK offensive coordinator Randy Sanders serving as his offensive coordinator and quarterback coach, Martin was named first-team All-Southeastern Conference as a senior.

Martin is still tied for the NCAA record for consecutive completions in one game with 23 straight completions vs. South Carolina on Oct. 31, 1998.

Martin was selected by Pittsburgh in the fifth round of the 2000 NFL Draft, beginning a six-year pro football career. After two seasons with the Steelers, he went to NFL Europe in 2002, when he led the Rhein Fire to a league-best 7-3 record and a berth in the World Bowl. He returned to the NFL with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, then moved to the Canadian Football League and spent the 2004-05 seasons with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

"I'm excited about the future of Kentucky football under the leadership of Joker Phillips," Martin said. "The respect Coach Phillips has in college football as an offensive mind, as well as being one of the best wide receivers' coaches, made me want to be here and learn from him."

"My chemistry with Coach Sanders dates back to our time together at Tennessee. He's been a mentor for me since I got into the coaching profession and I have a tremendous amount of respect for him. I'm looking forward to helping develop a very exciting young group of wide receivers."

Martin and his wife, Toya, have a son, Kaden, and a set of twins, daughter A'Yadra and son Amari. The former Toya Rodriguez is a recording artist with hit singles "I Do!" (2001) and "No Matta What (Party All Night)" (2002).

RANDY SANDERS

Randy Sanders certainly has had an eventful four years with the Kentucky football team.

As quarterbacks coach, Sanders' guidance helped Andre' Woodson develop from an inconsistent performer into one of the top quarterbacks in the nation. Seemingly overnight, Woodson blossomed as a player and a field general, leading the Wildcats to some of the most memorable victories in school history, including a pair of Music City Bowl championships.

Along the way, Woodson led the Southeastern Conference in passing yardage, total offense, and touchdown passes, including an SEC record of 40 TD tosses in 2007. He earned All-SEC honors both seasons and was drafted by the NFL's New York Giants.

Sanders went back to square one in 2008. He did a masterful job of melding the inexperienced talents of then-sophomore Mike Hartline and freshman Randall Cobb into a capable tandem. The QB duo led the Wildcats to a third-consecutive postseason victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

During the season, Hartline earned SEC Player of the Week honors and was Kentucky's Offensive Most Valuable Player of the Liberty Bowl while Cobb was named to the SEC All-Freshman team.

Sanders turned in another deft coaching performance in 2009. Hartline was the starting quarterback until going down with an injury in the fifth game. For the remainder of the season, Sanders juggled Cobb, seldom-used junior Will Fidler and true freshman Morgan Newton at QB. And, once again, the offense produced enough points to advance to a bowl game, along with ground-breaking victories at Auburn and Georgia.

Sanders was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2008. With the elevation of Joker Phillips to head coach, Sanders will have primary responsibility for developing the offense in the coming campaign. And, Sanders once again will be working with multiple candidates under center with Hartline, Newton, redshirt freshman Ryan Mossakowski.

Prior to Kentucky, Sanders spent 22 seasons (1984-2005) as a player and coach at the University of Tennessee, including the last seven as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He was named offensive coordinator after the 1998 regular season when David Cutcliffe became head coach at Ole Miss. Sanders' first game as offensive coordinator was the 1999 Fiesta Bowl when the Volunteers defeated Florida State for the national championship.

A native of Morristown, Tenn., Sanders was a quarterback on the Tennessee football team from 1984-88. He earned four varsity letters and was a four-year member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He remained with the team as a volunteer assistant coach, helping coach the quarterbacks, in 1989-90 under Coach Johnny Majors.

Sanders was promoted to full-time assistant coach in 1991, working with the wide receivers in 1991-92. New head coach Phillip Fulmer named him running backs coach and recruiting coordinator in 1993. Sanders stayed in those roles through '98, recruiting the players that took Tennessee to the national title, before moving to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach following Cutcliffe's departure.

While Sanders was on the Tennessee coaching staff, the Vols had a record of 162-46-2 (.776) and won four SEC championships and six Eastern Division crowns in addition to their national title. The Vols played in 16 bowl games, including four Citrus Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, three Cotton Bowls, two Peach Bowls, and once each in the Sugar, Orange, Hall of Fame and Gator bowls.

Sanders and his wife, Cathy, have two daughters, Kelly and Kari.

LINEBACKERS COACH / RECRUITING COORDINATOR

CHUCK SMITH

Chuck Smith enters his sixth season as the linebackers coach at his alma mater.

Upon his arrival, Smith inherited a very young set of linebackers, a group whose development mirrored the progress of the team.

In 2005, Wesley Woodyard ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference in tackles and was named honorable-mention All-SEC. Braxton Kelley was an immediate hit at middle linebacker and earned Freshman All-America accolades.

In '06, Woodyard was second in the league in tackles and earned Coaches' All-SEC honors. Micah Johnson was chosen for the SEC All-Freshman squad.

The 2007 season saw Woodyard lead the league in tackles, earn consensus first-team All-SEC honors and finish his career as one of the top-10 tacklers in school history.

Kelley, Johnson and Johnny Williams continued the productivity in '08. Johnson was chosen first-team Coaches' All-SEC and Kelley garnered second-team all-league laurels.

Johnson and Sam Maxwell were second-team all-league picks a year ago. Maxwell intercepted six passes, most ever in one season by a UK linebacker.

Smith's unit helped Kentucky advance to four-straight bowl games, including three wins. Woodyard, Kelley, Williams, Johnson and Maxwell all have gone on to sign contracts in the National Football League.

Smith will be challenged with developing a young set of players in the upcoming season, with junior Danny Trevathan the lone returnee with extensive game experience.

Smith added the duties of recruiting coordinator in February, 2009. Smith's organizational abilities, football smarts and likeable personality make him a natural for the responsibility. He also serves as director of the UK summer camps.

Success is familiar territory for Smith, who is one of the most accomplished coaches in the history of Kentucky high school football. He came to UK from Boyle County High School in Danville, where he compiled a 142-33 record in 13 seasons. He built Boyle County into a juggernaut in the Class AA and Class AAA ranks, winning five consecutive state championships—a state record—from 1999-2003.

Smith's teams won the Class AA titles in 1999 and 2000 with perfect 15-0 records. Reclassification changed Boyle County to Class AAA in 2001, but that was no obstacle for the Rebels, as they won the crown with another 15-0 mark. The winning streak ended at 47 games (second-longest in Kentucky history) during the 2002 regular season, but Boyle County went on to win the state championship again. The 2003 team returned to perfection with a 15-0 slate and state title. Smith's 2004 squad went 12-3, with a loss in the state finals ending the state-record streaks of five consecutive championships and 29 straight playoff victories.

Smith, whose teams were known for their work ethic and solid fundamental play, has been recognized frequently for his accomplishments. He was named the Kentucky Coach of the Year by the National Federation of State High School Associations in 2003. He was chosen as the Kentucky Coach of the Year, covering all classifications, four times by the Louisville Courier-Journal (1999, 2000, 2001 and 2004) and by The Associated Press in 1999. He has won numerous other Coach of the Year honors for Class AA, Class AAA, and on the district and area levels.

Two of Smith's Boyle County players, tight end Jacob Tamme and kicker Taylor Begley, went on to great careers at UK. Tamme earned first-team All-SEC honors while Begley became one of the leading scorers in school history. Both players earned Academic All-America honors.

Born in Louisville, Ky., Smith was an all-state linebacker at Jeffersontown High School. He was a UK letterman from 1978-80 as a linebacker under Coach Fran Curci. Smith was second on the team in tackles as a senior with 133 stops and was third on the team in tackles his junior year with 95.

Smith's coaching career began as an assistant coach at Mercer County from 1983-86. His first head coaching position was in 1987 at Allen County, where he took over a losing program and posted a winning season in his only year at the school. He took over another struggling team at Campbellsville (1988-91) and orchestrated a turnaround, eventually guiding the team to a state playoff berth in his final season at the school. He left Campbellsville in 1992 to begin his record-setting stint at Boyle County.

Smith and his wife, Jackie, have two children, daughter Nikki and son Brandon, who played quarterback at Western Kentucky University.

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

MIKE SUMMERS

As a graduate assistant coach at the University of Kentucky in 1980-81, Mike Summers helped recruit Joker Phillips to play at UK. Three decades later, Phillips returned the favor by recruiting Summers to the UK staff as offensive line coach.

It was an easy sell, as Summers -- a Lexington native -- is happy to return to his hometown.

Summers faces an immediate challenge in his first season back at UK, as four starters have departed from last year's O-Line. History suggests that he will be up to the task.

Summers has been involved with dynamic offenses throughout his career. He returns to Lexington from the University of Arkansas, where he was the assistant head coach and O-Line coach in 2008-09. Summers helped rebuild the Razorback attack the past two years, as Arkansas led the SEC in scoring offense in '09 and was champion of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. One of his protégés, center Jonathan Luigs, was an All-SEC selection, a finalist for the 2008 Rimington Trophy and now plays for the Cincinnati Bengals. Guard Mitch Petrus was a first-team Coaches' All-SEC honoree in '09 and was selected in the 2010 NFL Draft.

Summers got NFL experience with the Atlanta Falcons in 2007 and was the offensive line coach at the University of Louisville from 2003-06. In his last year at Louisville, three of his linemen (Renardo Foster, Kurt Quarterman and George Bussey) earned first-team All-Big East Conference honors and center Eric Wood was a second-team pick. Summers' line was the power plant for a unit that ranked second in the nation in total offense (475.3 yards per game), seventh in passing (290 per game) and 12th in rushing (185.3).

Two more of Summers' linemen, Jason Spitz and Travis Leffew, earned identical honors with first-team All-Big East in 2005, first-team All-Conference USA in 2004 and second-team All-Conference USA in 2003.

Foster, Spitz and Wood have played in the NFL while Quarterman, Bussey and Leffew either made active rosters or in-season developmental squads.

Summers' 2004 line helped Louisville set a school record with 3,005 rushing yards and 47 touchdowns while allowing only 20 sacks and leading the nation in total offense and scoring offense. Louisville also set school records with 6,468 total offensive yards and 597 points scored. In Summers' first season, the Cardinals reduced sacks allowed from 46 to 13 and set a then-school rushing record while ranking seventh in the nation in total offense and 10th in rushing.

During Summers' time at Louisville, the Cardinals won a Conference USA championship and a Big East title while playing in the Orange Bowl, Gator Bowl, Liberty Bowl and GMAC Bowl.

Before Louisville, Summers spent two seasons at Ohio (2001-02), where his offense ranked No. 8 in the nation in rushing offense in 2002 (239.8) and No. 6 in 2001 (240.1).

In 2000, Summers was the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State. From 1996-99, he was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of the South (Sewanee), where his offense ranked as high as fifth in the nation in rushing and second in the conference in total offense during his four seasons.

Summers was at Oregon State from 1991-95, where he was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He also was OSU's recruiting coordinator in his first season. The Beavers led the Pacific-10 Conference in rushing four straight years and he was named the league's top "Offensive Backfield Coach" in 1993. While at Northern Illinois from 1985-90, he coordinated an offense that established 51 school records and seven NCAA records.

Summers began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kentucky (1980-81) and Texas A&M (1982-84). The Lexington native is a graduate of Tates Creek High School and Georgetown College, where he played as a defensive back.

Summers is married to the former Kathy Hall, daughter of legendary Kentucky basketball coach Joe B. Hall. They have a daughter, Amy Lawyer and son-in-law, Ben Lawyer.

SECONDARY COACH

CHRIS THURMOND

Chris Thurmond, a coaching veteran with experience in the Southeastern Conference and Big 12 Conference, made an immediate impact in his first two seasons as the secondary coach at Kentucky.

Under Thurmond's guidance, cornerback Trevard Lindley earned second-team All-America honors in 2008 and set the UK career record for pass breakups. Both senior starters in the secondary, cornerback David Jones and safety Marcus McClinton, went on to sign National Football League contracts.

Despite being sidelined for much of the season by injury, Lindley repeated All-SEC honors in 2009 and was drafted by the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. He is now among the all-time SEC leaders in pass breakups.

In the 2010 season, Thurmond will be challenged to develop replacements for Lindley and underrated safety Calvin Harrison. Safety Winston Guy and cornerback Randall Burden are returning starters.

Thurmond came to Kentucky from the University of Houston, where he coached the cornerbacks and was recruiting coordinator for two seasons. He helped the Cougars advance to the 2006 Liberty Bowl and 2007 Texas Bowl, serving as interim head coach for the Texas Bowl after Art Briles left for another coaching position. In 2006, Cougar cornerback Willie Gaston was a second-team All-Conference USA selection and went on to play for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens.

Prior to Houston, Thurmond spent three years as the cornerbacks coach at Texas A&M, highlighted by a trip to the Cotton Bowl following the 2004 campaign.

Thurmond's experience in the Southeastern Conference came as cornerbacks coach at Alabama in 2001-02. The Crimson Tide won the 2001 Independence Bowl. In 2002, Alabama led the SEC and ranked third nationally in total defense, posting the best record in the SEC Western Division. While at Alabama, eight players he coached or recruited signed National Football League contracts.

Thurmond also has worked at Tulsa (1983-91, 1994), East Carolina (1992-93), Texas Christian (1995, 1998-2000), and Oklahoma (1996-97), coaching the cornerbacks or the entire secondary during those stints.

During his second term at TCU, Thurmond helped guide the Horned Frogs to the 2000 Western Athletic Conference co-championship. TCU led the nation in scoring defense and total defense while ranking third in pass efficiency defense.

While at Tulsa in 1991, the Golden Hurricane ranked among the nation's leaders in pass defense efficiency. Tulsa capped the season with a win in the Freedom Bowl. Thurmond has coached in nine bowl games during his career. Ironically, his first post-season appearance came in the 1989 Independence Bowl against Rich Brooks' Oregon squad.

During his collegiate career, Thurmond has coached or recruited numerous athletes who have gone on to the NFL, including current pros Roman Harper (New Orleans), Mark Anderson (Chicago), Charlie Peprah (Green Bay) and Anthony Madison (Pittsburgh).

A native of Sand Springs, Okla., Thurmond graduated from the University of Tulsa in 1975. He spent seven years as a high school coach in Oklahoma, including head coach at his alma mater, Charles Page HS, before entering the collegiate ranks.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

DAVID TURNER

David Turner, whose 24 years of coaching experience features nine seasons at four Southeastern Conference schools, returns to Kentucky for a second stint with the Wildcats. Turner serves as assistant head coach and defensive line coach.

"The biggest factor in the decision to come back was the opportunity to work for my friend and help him continue to grow this program," Turner said. "When we were here before, people were very good to me and my family and Lexington is a great place to live."

Turner will have some veteran presence in this year's defensive line with three seniors -- end DeQuin Evans and tackles Ricky Lumpkin and Shane McCord.

Turner guided the Mississippi State defensive line from 2007-09. In his first season at MSU, he helped the Bulldogs to their first postseason appearance in seven years, a championship of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Three of his linemen, second-team All-SEC performer Titus Brown, Jesse Bowman and Cortez McCraney, went on to sign NFL contracts. Turner had another All-SEC honoree in 2009, Pernell McPhee, and a Freshman All-SEC player in Fletcher Cox.

Turner joined the MSU staff after one season at the University of Alabama. He coached the Crimson Tide defensive ends during his lone campaign in Tuscaloosa. UA finished 23rd nationally in total defense in 2006 and advanced to the Independence Bowl.

Prior to Alabama, Turner was the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Vanderbilt from 2002-05. One of his linemen, tackle Jovan Haye, went on to the NFL and currently plays with the Tennessee Titans. Vanderbilt had a significant upgrade in talent level during Turner's term as recruiting coordinator as he helped bring in the players for the Commodores' eventual Music City Bowl championship in 2008.

A native of Goldston, N.C., Turner also has worked in the Big Ten Conference at Minnesota (2001), where he worked with the defensive ends, and in the Atlantic Coast Conference at Virginia (1997-2000), where he coached defensive tackles and linebackers. He also was co-special teams coordinator in his final season. The Cavaliers played in the Peach Bowl, Micronpc.com Bowl and the Oahu Classic during his term there.

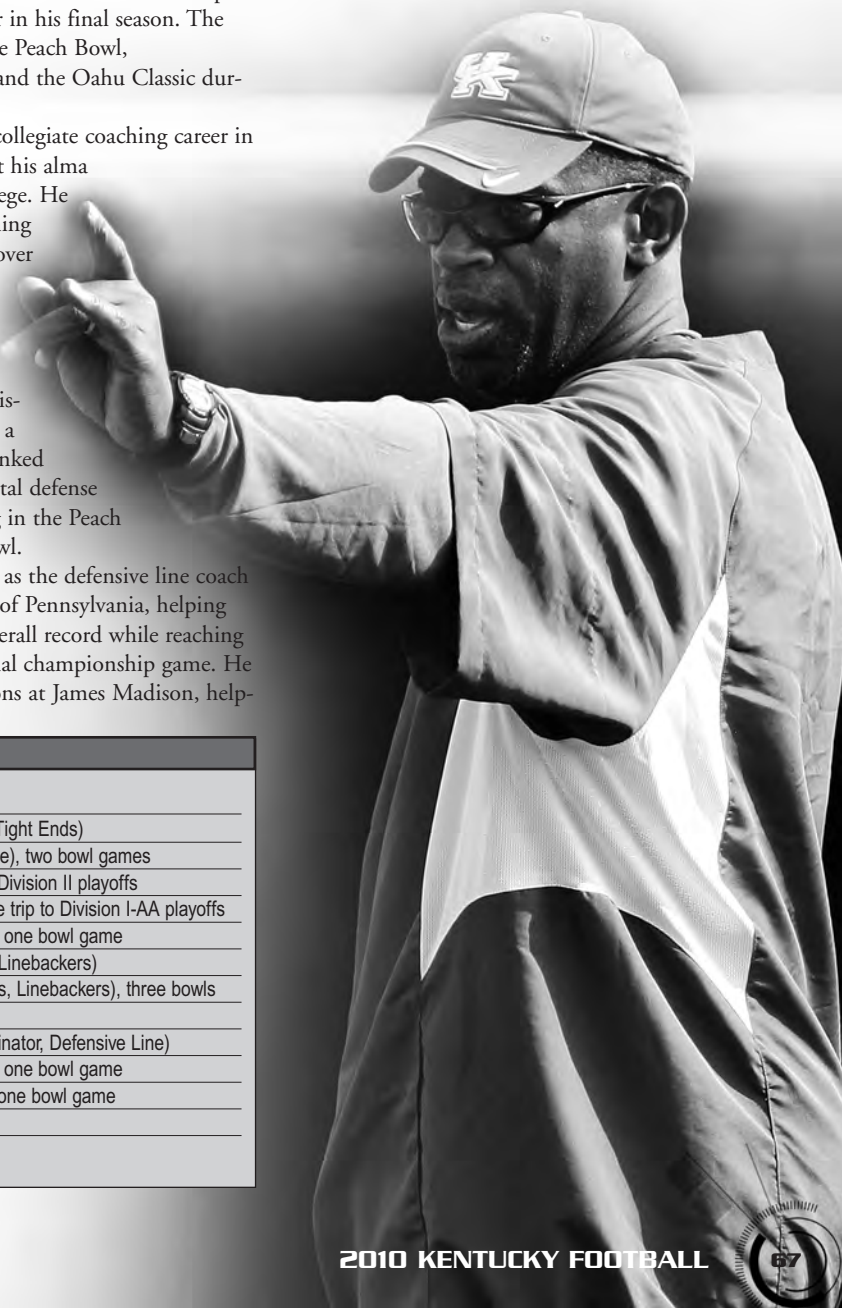

Turner began his collegiate coaching career in 1986 as an assistant at his alma mater, Davidson College. He worked with the running backs and tight ends over a two-year stretch. In 1988, he moved to North Carolina State, serving two years as a defensive graduate assistant. He worked with a Wolfpack unit that ranked first in the ACC in total defense in 1988 while playing in the Peach Bowl and Copper Bowl.

He spent one year as the defensive line coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, helping the team to a 12-2 overall record while reaching the Division II national championship game. He also worked two seasons at James Madison, helping the Dukes to a 9-4 record and a berth in the 1991 Division I-AA playoffs.

Turner returned to the Division I-A ranks in 1993. He spent two seasons as defensive ends coach at Kentucky, where he worked on the staff with Joker Phillips and helped the Wildcats advance to the '93 Peach Bowl. In 1995, he went back to N.C. State, coaching defensive ends and linebackers before going to Virginia in '97.

Turner is married to the former Yvette Modica and the couple has two daughters, Bianca and Alexyia.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACHES

TOMMY COOK

Graduate Assistant/Defense

Former Kentucky wide receiver Tommy Cook is in his first season as a graduate assistant at his alma mater. Cook will serve as a graduate assistant for the defensive coaches.

Cook's duties include analysis of opponent film, preparing scouting reports, conducting "self scout" of UK tendencies, overseeing the scout team and assisting with on-campus recruiting.

Cook was a wide receiver with the Wildcats from 2000-05, including a sixth year to complete his eligibility because of medical hardship. Despite having to overcome several injuries during his playing days, Cook's career totals included 74 catches for 951 yards and six touchdowns. In addition, he was a tenacious blocker and notable contributor on special teams. He also assisted Coach Joker Phillips in coaching the wide receivers in the 2004 season while recovering from an injury.

During his playing career, Cook earned a place on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, was named to the UK Athletics Society of Character and was chosen for the ESPN "All-Mayday Team" in honor of players who show extraordinary toughness and determination.

Having earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2004 from UK, Cook will work on a master's degree in sport leadership. Prior to following his dream of becoming a Division I football coach, Cook spent four and a half years in the business sector in surgical sales.

Cook is native of Victoria, Texas where he was a standout football and baseball player at Victoria High School. On the gridiron, Cook started at wide receiver/defensive back and played some quarterback, helping VHS advance to the playoffs all four years in Class AAAAA ranks, the highest classification in Texas. As a senior, he was named his team's Most Valuable Player and was named all-district and All-Bay Area. He also was a star middle infielder in baseball, winning all-district and All-Bay Area laurels as a sophomore and junior.

MATT MCCUTCHAN

Graduate Assistant/Offensive Line

Former Kentucky center Matt McCutchan is in his third season as a graduate assistant after rejoining his alma mater in June of 2008. McCutchan works with the offense, and his duties include analysis of opponent film, preparing scouting reports, conducting "self scout" of UK tendencies, overseeing the scout team and assisting with on-campus recruiting. He also will help coach the Wildcat offensive line.

In the last two seasons, McCutchan has helped the offensive line rank in the top 25 nationally in the sacks against category. The line ranked fourth in the nation in 2008 and 25th in 2009. The Wildcats also ranked in the nation's top 25 in rushing yardage and fewest tackles for loss allowed in 2009.

Prior to coaching at UK, he attended a mini-camp with the Kansas City Chiefs and a training camp with the Los Angeles Avengers. He also was an assistant offensive line coach at his alma mater, Lebanon (Ohio) High School, during the 2007 season.

McCutchan was a three-year starter (2004-06) for Kentucky after transferring from the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md. He began as a walk-on but eventually earned a scholarship, starting in all but one of his 31 career games.

Under McCutchan's leadership in the offensive line, the Wildcats defeated Clemson in the 2006 Music City Bowl. He was twice named the Southeastern Conference Lineman of the Week during his career and he earned UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman award in 2005.

McCutchan attended the Naval Academy Preparatory School in 2000 and played right guard. He spent the 2001 and 2002 seasons at the Naval Academy but did not see varsity action due to injuries. He received a rare sixth season to complete his eligibility because of the injuries sustained at the Academy.

McCutchan, a member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2005, graduated in 2006 with a degree in economics. He is currently working on a master's degree in sport leadership.

A native of Lebanon, Ohio, McCutchan attended Lebanon High School where he was first-team all-state as a junior and second-team all-state as a senior, playing tackle on offense and tackle and end on defense.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACHES

ROCK OLIVER

Director of Strength and Conditioning

Ray "Rock" Oliver, a former strength coach with the University of Kentucky and Cincinnati Bengals, is in his first season as the director of strength and conditioning for the UK football team.

Oliver's history includes terms in football and basketball on the collegiate and professional levels. He spent the last six seasons as the associate strength and conditioning coach with the Cincinnati Bengals and has been the head strength coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the New Jersey Nets of the National Basketball Association.

On the collegiate level, Oliver has been the strength and conditioning coach with football and/or basketball teams at Kansas, Pittsburgh, UK, South Carolina and Memphis. He was previously at UK from 1989-92, working with the Wildcat basketball team.

A native of Cincinnati, Oliver was a defensive back at Ohio State in 1980-81 before transferring to the University of Cincinnati. While sitting out the '82 season as a transfer, he became interested in strength training under then-UC Coach Mike Gottfried.

When Gottfried moved to the University of Kansas in 1983, Oliver transferred to Kansas and began working as a strength and conditioning coach while completing his degree. He graduated in 1986.

Oliver is married and has two grown children.

BRENT ROGERS

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

With experience in the National Football League and college athletics, Brent Rogers has joined the University of Kentucky as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. Rogers will work mainly with Kentucky's football and rifle programs.

Rogers, a native of Superior, Wis., spent the last two seasons as a strength and conditioning assistant coach for the Cincinnati Bengals. Rogers also spent time with the Baltimore Ravens as a part-time assistant strength and conditioning coach while the team ranked first in the NFL in defense and won the divisional championship.

Rogers also had a successful stint overseas, serving as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Hamburg Sea Devils in Hamburg, Germany in 2007. A member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Rogers served in college athletics with two successful stints at University of Minnesota-Duluth and as the director of strength and conditioning for The College of St. Scholastica.

Rogers graduated from the University of California-Santa Barbara in 2001 with a major in anthropology and a minor in exercise and health science. After graduation, Rogers joined the Peace Corps before earning a master's degree in exercise physiology from The College of St. Scholastica in 2005.

Rogers is a member of the American Society of Exercise Physiologists and a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the NCSA.

TED LAMBRINIDES

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Ted Lambrinides, a long-time fitness professional with a broad range of experience in the field, is in his first season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Kentucky. He will work mainly with the football team.

Lambrinides (pronounced lam-brin-EE-des), a native of Cincinnati, Ohio, did his undergraduate studies in business marketing and graduate studies in coaching and exercise science at The Ohio State University, where he began his career as a student assistant and graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach. After OSU, Lambrinides worked as director of education for two fitness companies, Nautilus Midwest and Hammer Strength Corporation. In 2001, Lambrinides began his own enterprise as owner and president of High Performance Training, Inc. His business has expanded to three training centers in the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky area. He has been involved extensively in helping potential NFL players train for the league combine and other evaluation events.

Lambrinides, a member of the NCAA Speakers Bureau, has been a consultant and guest speaker for a variety of topics, including strength training, conditioning and sports nutrition. His clients have featured NFL teams such as Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Tampa Bay, Jacksonville, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Carolina; the Boston Celtics and Toronto Raptors of the NBA; and several universities, including Boston College, Florida, Michigan, Michigan State, Indiana, Stanford, Marquette, Penn State, Navy and Army.

Since 1991, Lambrinides also has been a lecturer and coordinator of the exercise science program at Thomas More College in Crestview Hills, Ky.

Lambrinides and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Kristin and Rebecca.

BRADY COLLINS

Graduate Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Brady Collins serves as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach for the University of Kentucky football and men's basketball teams, helping in the daily workout regimens for each sport.

Collins graduated with a bachelor's degree from Otterbein College in 2009, majoring in health promotion and sports sciences with an emphasis in coaching. Currently, Collins is working towards his masters in sport leadership at UK.

The native of Lewis Center, Ohio, served as an intern at Ohio State University and a certified public trainer at The High Intensity Training Center. While at OSU, Collins worked with 15 men's and women's sports programs, including the nationally ranked football and baseball teams. Collins, who is working toward becoming a certified member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, spent three years as a certified public trainer, helping implement specific individualized training programs for men and women of all ages. He is a certified USAW Sports Performance Coach.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

GABE AMPONSAH

Senior Athletic Trainer

Gabe Amponsah, a former graduate assistant at Kentucky during the 2006 and 2007 football seasons, enters his second season as senior athletic trainer. He works primarily with the Wildcat football team, including the evaluation and treatment of injuries along with the development and implementation of rehabilitation protocols.

Amponsah, who was sought out by head athletic trainer Jim Madaleno when the position became available, returned to Kentucky after having spent a year at Florida State, working with the Seminoles football team.

Before graduating from UK with a master's degree in athletic training in May 2008, Amponsah completed his undergraduate studies in the same discipline at Duquesne University. He also served as an athletic training intern for the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers.

Amponsah is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and in the state of Kentucky.

REED CASE

Director of Football Administration

Reed Case enters his first season as Director of Football Administration at the University of Kentucky. In his role, Case will assist the recruiting coordinator with all daily aspects of operations, organization and management.

Prior to accepting the position at Kentucky, Case served as director of operations at East Carolina University and coordinator of football operations at Oklahoma State University. He also had previous stops as a recruiting assistant at Northwestern and director of operations at Akron.

A native of Hopedale, Ohio, Case began his professional career in 1992 as an assistant coach at Sheridan (Ohio) High School. After five years of success at that level, Case broke into the collegiate ranks in 1997 as a special assistant to University of Texas head coaches John Mackovic and Mack Brown. He also spent four years assisting the Longhorns in scouting, film endeavors and recruiting. He then returned to coaching as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Virginia followed by a brief stint in the scouting department of the NFL's Houston Texans. Case returned to college football in 2003 at TCU before heading to Akron in 2004.

Case earned his bachelor's degree in education from Ohio University in 1995 and is married to Dr. Rhonda Evans Case, a professor of political science at East Carolina University.

SHANE FANNIN

Director of Kentucky Sports Video

Shane Fannin is in his third year at the University of Kentucky as the Director of Sports Video.

Prior to joining the UK team in 2007, Fannin owned and operated Digital Blue, a video production business. He also spent time as a member of WKYT-TV in Lexington.

Fannin graduated from Morehead State University with a major in communications and a minor in marketing/public relations. A native of Morehead, Ky., Fannin is married to Ganan Fannin. The couple has three children, Clay, Cali and Ciah.

GARY FOXWORTH

Football Coaching Video Coordinator

Gary Foxworth enters his 14th year as Coaching Video Coordinator for the UK football team.

Foxworth is responsible for staffing of the athletic video office as well as the daily video of the Wildcats' practices. He also is responsible for video of all home and away football games and is the contact for the opponent video exchange and opponent film breakdowns. He also helps handle the numerous media requests for video highlights.

In 2006, Foxworth received the SEC Video Coordinator of the Year Award by the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

Foxworth joined UK from Eastern Kentucky University, where he was the production manager for the school's media resources department for eight years. He earned a degree in broadcasting from ECU in 1989. Foxworth also was a student assistant for two years in the media resources department before joining the staff full-time upon his graduation.

TOM KALINOWSKI

Equipment Manager

Tom Kalinowski enters his 33rd year as Equipment Manager for the Kentucky football program.

Kalinowski, a native of Middletown, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graduation. Kalinowski was named Head Football Equipment Manager in 1978.

Kalinowski is a Certified Equipment Manager as designated by the American Equipment Managers Association. He has served on advisory boards for two equipment manufacturing companies, Shutt and Bike.

He graduated from Xavier High School in Middletown in 1974. At Xavier, Kalinowski was student manager for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, have two sons, Ian and Cody.

JIM MADALENO

Director of Sports Medicine/Head Athletic Trainer Football

Jim Madaleno enters his sixth year as Director of Sports Medicine at Kentucky, his 14th year as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Wildcats' football team.

Madaleno came to UK from Valdosta State University, where he was head athletic trainer from 1989-97 and also served as Assistant Athletics Director for Sports Medicine. Madaleno also worked as the undergraduate curriculum director for an athletic training education program that has been accredited nationally.

Madaleno began his athletic training career as a student athletic trainer at Michigan State University, where he graduated in 1980. He was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Florida State in 1980-81 and earned a master's in the department of movement science.

Madaleno first went to Valdosta State in 1982 with the inception of the school's football program as the school's first full-time athletics trainer.

In 1985, Madaleno took an assistant athletics trainer's position with the New York Giants. He was with the team when the Giants defeated Denver in the 1987 Super Bowl.

In 1988, Madaleno joined the renowned Hughston Sports Medicine Clinic in Columbus, Ga. He specialized in high school relations and promoted the need for certified athletic trainers on the high school level. However, Madaleno missed the day-to-day relationships with athletes and the excitement of competition, so he returned to Valdosta State in 1989.

In addition to his bachelor's and master's degrees, Madaleno is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and in the state of Kentucky.

He is a native of Dearborn, Mich. Jim and his wife, Paddy, have two children, Kiley Ann and Ryan James.

CLIFFORD SNOW

Director of Football Operations

Clifford Snow, a veteran football administrator and coach, enters his first season as Director of Football Operations at Kentucky. Snow will assist head coach Joker Phillips in all daily football operations and administrative duties. He handles all logistics associated with team travel, coordinates clinic and camp operations, and serves as the liaison to various university areas.

Snow comes to UK from East Carolina University, where he served in the same position for the last five seasons. Prior to ECU, he spent six years as the Director of Football Operations and Special Assistant to the Head Coach at the University of South Carolina.

Snow played defensive back at Central Connecticut State University, where he earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in biology. After graduation, he spent three and one-half years as a biological research technician, studying Lyme disease. At the same time, he began his coaching career as an assistant coach for four seasons at The Gilbert School in Winsted, Conn. He then moved to Windsor (Conn.) HS, spending four seasons as an assistant before being elevated to head coach for three years.

Snow entered the collegiate ranks on Skip Holtz' staff at the University of Connecticut, where he coached on the defensive line from 1995-98 and added the duties of recruiting coordinator in his last season.

He is married to the former Janet Wallace of Manchester, Conn.

AARON WASSON

Assistant Equipment Manager

Aaron "Pooh" Wasson enters his eighth year as assistant equipment manager for the football program.

A native of Winchester, Ky., Wasson began as a student assistant in the football equipment room in 1996. In 2001, he was hired to lead the equipment responsibilities for the Lexington Horsemen of the National Indoor Football League. While a member of the Horsemen staff, Wasson interned at Kentucky, assisting in the operations of the football equipment room. That internship eventually led to a full-time position in 2003 as equipment manager of UK's Olympic sports.

From 2003-06, Wasson oversaw the daily equipment responsibilities of the baseball, softball and men's and women's soccer programs while assisting in the football equipment room. He was a part of the historic 2006 baseball season that resulted in the Wildcats winning their first-ever SEC Championship and being selected as a NCAA Regional host, another first for the program.

Since 2006, Wasson has overseen the operations of the University's exclusive athletic apparel and equipment contract with Nike. His responsibilities include the purchasing, receiving, inventory and budgeting of Nike apparel and equipment for all 22 sports as well as the administrative departments at UK. In addition to his responsibilities on the equipment staff, Wasson also assists in hosting NCAA and SEC championship events, including the 2006 NCAA Baseball Lexington Regional and the 2007 NCAA Men's Basketball First and Second Rounds in Rupp Arena.

Wasson has a bachelor's degree in organizational management and recently completed a master's degree in sport leadership from UK. Wasson is married to the former Bonnie Menges and they reside in Lexington.

2009 GAME RECAPS

KENTUCKY 42, MIAMI (OH) 0 // 09/05/09

KENTUCKY 31, LOUISVILLE 27 // 09/19/09

Kentucky shined on both sides of the ball in the season opener against Miami (Ohio) as the defense secured its first shutout in 13 years at a neutral-site game in Cincinnati's Paul Brown Stadium with 41,037 in the stands.

The game marked UK's largest margin of victory in a lidlifter in 25 years and also improved its non-conference winning streak to 15 consecutive games.

After the teams battled through a scoreless first quarter, UK dominated the rest of the game. Early in the second quarter, safety Calvin Harrison intercepted Miami quarterback Daniel Raudabaugh and returned the ball 42 yards to the Miami 47.

That set up a four-play Wildcat scoring drive that culminated in a 27-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Mike Hartline to wide receiver Randall Cobb down the left sideline to give UK a 7-0 lead. After the Kentucky defense forced the RedHawks into a three-and-out possession, the Wildcats started another scoring drive from their 42. Tailback Derrick Locke started on the seven-play drive, gaining two first downs before capping it off with a 16-yard touchdown from the Wildcat formation to push the score to 14-0.

With less than five minutes to play in the half, Hartline directed another UK touchdown drive. This time wide receiver Chris Matthews took the spotlight, hauling in a 22-yard pass from Hartline for a first down just shy of Miami's red zone. On the next play, the pair teamed up again for a 21-yard score. Matthews' first touchdown of his career at Kentucky gave the Cats a 21-0 advantage going into the locker rooms.

UK's offensive explosion continued in the second half. On the first drive of the third quarter, Hartline connected with Cobb for 34 yards to the Miami 37. Cobb later scored on an 11-yard scramble on a direct snap in the Wildcat formation, giving UK a four-touchdown lead. Midway through the third, cornerback Trevard Lindley picked off Raudabaugh deep in Miami territory, taking the ball 25 yards to the house and increasing the score to 35-0. Tailback Moncell Allen rushed for the Cats' final score of the game to open the fourth stanza – a 9-yard plunge into the end zone.

UK had 488 yards total offense, going over 200 in both rushing and receiving for the first time in two years. Meanwhile, the UK defense limited the RedHawks to 10 first downs and 188 total yards. Lindley, who added three pass breakups to his interception TD, was named Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Week.

Kentucky forced two Louisville turnovers late in the game during its 31-27 fourth-quarter comeback victory in the Governor's Cup series. The win marked the Wildcats' third-straight win against the Cardinals in front of 70,988 fans at Commonwealth Stadium – the fourth-largest crowd in UK history.

With just under six minutes remaining in the game and Louisville leading 27-24, UK's A.J. Nance recovered a fumble on a muffed punt return at the UofL 24-yard line. Nance's recovery set up the game-winning score when wide receiver Randall Cobb made a leaping 12-yard touchdown catch from quarterback Mike Hartline to give the Cats their final margin of victory.

Kentucky linebacker Sam Maxwell made two huge defensive plays down the stretch to secure the win. Just inside two minutes remaining, defensive tackle Corey Peters tipped a pass that Maxwell intercepted and returned 17 yards. Later, Maxwell ended the game when he broke up a final pass attempt by Burke inside the UK 5-yard line.

UK opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 26-yard field goal from Lones Seiber. The Cardinals bounced back with a 6-yard touchdown run by Victor Anderson. On the ensuing kickoff, Derrick Locke returned the ball 100 yards for a Kentucky touchdown and a 10-7 lead. Locke became the first player in UK history to return two kickoffs for 100-yard touchdowns in a career and he set a single-game school record with 191 return yards.

Fullback John Conner's two-yard TD scamper gave UK a 17-7 lead at the half. After halftime, miscues plagued the Wildcats. UK only possessed the ball for four plays in the third quarter as three turnovers led to a pair of Louisville field goals and a touchdown pass from Justin Burke to Cameron Graham, giving the visitors a 20-17 lead.

Later in the fourth, Locke capped a 12-play, 73-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown plunge to give UK a 24-20 advantage. Louisville struck back quickly two plays later with a 66-yard touchdown pass from Burke to Trent Guy to put the Cardinals up 27-24, two minutes before Nance made his game-changing fumble recovery.

The win marked UK's 16th consecutive non-conference victory and was the 10th time in the last 34 games that the Wildcats came from behind in the fourth quarter to win the game.

#1 FLORIDA 41, KENTUCKY 7 // 09/26/09

Top-ranked Florida lived up to its billing by scoring on the team's first five possessions of the game to jump out to a commanding lead and top Kentucky 41-7 in the Wildcats' Southeastern Conference opener in front of 71,011 fans at Commonwealth Stadium – the fourth-largest crowd in UK history.

The Gators scored a 22-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis on its opening drive to go up early. UF quarterback Tim Tebow scored the first touchdown of the game on a 3-yard rush a few minutes later. On the ensuing possession, Florida's Chris Rainey blocked a UK punt attempt and recovered it in the end zone to give the Gators a 17-0 advantage. Late in the first quarter, Tebow rushed for his second touchdown of the game, dashing two yards for the score. The former Heisman Trophy winner ended the quarter with 44-yard touchdown pass to tight end Aaron Hernandez to increase the Gators' lead.

Kentucky got on the board late in the second quarter with a 58-yard, 14-play drive. On fourth-and-goal from the 2-yard line, quarterback Mike Hartline connected with tight end Ross Bogue for a 2-yard touchdown. It the first touchdown of Bogue's career as the Wildcats cut the lead to 31-7 going into the locker rooms.

The extra point by Lones Seiber gave him 246 points as a Wildcat, tying the UK career scoring record held by Joey Worley.

The Gators finished the scoring in the second half when Sturgis booted his second field goal of the game, connecting from 33 yards, and wide receiver Riley Cooper caught an 8-yard touchdown pass from John Brantley for the final margin.

On defense, Kentucky's Calvin Harrison led the teams in tackles with a career-high 11 stops, his second game all-time in double figures. UK linebacker Micah Johnson surpassed the 200-mark for career tackles with nine for the game to total 205 career stops.

#3 ALABAMA 38, KENTUCKY 20 // 10/03/09

Two touchdowns in the final minute of the first half gave third-ranked Alabama a 15-point lead and propelled the Crimson Tide to a 38-20 victory in front of 70,967 onlookers, the seventh-largest crowd in Commonwealth Stadium history.

Alabama's offense got out of the gate quickly on a three-play, 37-yard drive that ended with an 11-yard touchdown run by Mark Ingram. Kentucky responded midway through the first quarter when Lones Seiber booted a career-long 49-yard field goal that gave him the UK career scoring record. Seiber later cut the Alabama lead to one after connecting on another 49-yard field goal to end the quarter.

Late in the second quarter, the Crimson Tide offense drove 97 yards on 13 plays to score on a 3-yard Greg McElroy pass to Colin Peek with 40 seconds remaining. Seconds later the Alabama defense recovered a UK fumble and Courtney Upshaw returned it 45 yards for a touchdown to increase the UA lead to 21-6 at the half.

The Crimson Tide defenders continued to apply pressure in the third quarter, forcing two Wildcat turnovers. As a result, Ingram scored his second touchdown of the game on a 32-yard run and the Tide added a 36-yard field goal from Leigh Tiffin to extend their lead early in the half. UK responded when Randall Cobb hauled in a career-long reception of 45 yards from Mike Hartline for a touchdown.

McElroy closed the scoring in the third quarter with a seven-yard touchdown toss to Darius Hanks. In the final stanza, Kentucky scored on a 16-play, 65-yard touchdown drive that ended on a two-yard scamper into the endzone by Alfonso Smith, his first rushing score of the season.

In the game, UK tailback Derrick Locke became the 31st player in school history to reach 1,000 rushing yards in his career after gaining a season-high 75 yards on 20 carries against the Tide. Locke added a season-high 63 yards receiving and 66 yards on kickoff returns to gain 204 all-purpose yards and maintain his position atop the SEC. On defense, linebacker Danny Trevathan doubled his previous career high for tackles in a game, taking down 10 Alabama ballcarriers. Micah Johnson also posted 10 stops from his linebacker slot.

KENTUCKY 21, AUBURN 14 // 10/17/09

Kentucky scored a touchdown on its final possession but a Wildcat two-point conversion to tie the game failed and South Carolina ran out the final 4:34 to secure a 28-26 victory in a seesaw battle at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia, S.C.

UK opened the scoring with a 36-yard field goal from Lones Seiber with four minutes remaining in the first quarter. South Carolina returned the kickoff 61 yards, leading to a 10-yard touchdown reception for Alshon Jeffery from Stephen Garcia a few plays later to overtake the Cats at 7-3.

The Wildcats regained the lead at 10-7 when Derrick Locke scored on an 11-yard run on the second play of the second quarter. Jeffery scored a second touchdown on a 28-yard throw from Garcia during the Gamecocks' next possession to take a 14-10. UK's Randall Cobb hauled in a career-long 55-yard reception from Mike Hartline to set up a scoring drive that ended a few plays later with Hartline throwing a 7-yard touchdown strike to Cobb. The Wildcats stopped USC on its final two drives of the half to maintain a 17-14 lead at the half.

Hartline was forced to leave the game with a knee injury on the third play of the second half and was replaced by Will Fidler. Jeffery and Garcia connected on their third score of the game on a 22-yard touchdown through the air midway through the third quarter to give USC a 21-17 lead. The Wildcats cut the lead to one after a 35-yard field goal from Seiber.

Midway through the fourth, the Gamecocks increased their lead to 28-20 after a 2-yard touchdown plunge by Garcia. The Wildcats responded with an eight-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a 2-yard touchdown run by Cobb to cut the lead to two before the failed two-point conversion attempt.

Cobb led the offense with 229 all-purpose yards and two scores on the day. Locke carried the ball a career-high 24 times for 89 yards and a touchdown. He now ranks 25th on the all-time UK rushing list with 1,157 career yards. Senior tackle Corey Peters led the Wildcat defense, posting seven tackles and a career-high 2.5 sacks. Linebacker Sam Maxwell also made seven stops and an interception against the Gamecocks.

Kentucky earned its first victory over Auburn in 43 years, aided by a defensive second-half shutout and two touchdowns in the final seven minutes, during a 21-14 come-from-behind victory in front of 86,217 at the Tigers' Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Auburn got on the scoreboard first when Jake Ricks blocked a 38-yard UK field goal attempt. The ball was picked up by AU's Neiko Thorpe and returned for a touchdown to give the Tigers a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

Kentucky scored on its first possession of the second quarter with true freshman Morgan Newton under center for his first career start in place of the injured Mike Hartline. Newton scored his first career rushing touchdown with a 4-yard scamper into the endzone. The Tigers broke the 7-7 tie just before the half when Ben Tate ran up the middle for a score on a fourth-and-one play at the UK 1-yard line.

After a scoreless third quarter, UK began the fourth quarter by charting the longest touchdown drive of the game to tie the score at 14. Now with Will Fidler at quarterback, the Wildcats drove 75 yards in 12 plays, capped by Fidler's 2-yard plunge for the score. Following a three-and-out series by the Kentucky defense, the Wildcats scored again. A 61-yard run by Randall Cobb moved the ball to the Auburn 3-yard line. Cobb rushed around the left end three plays later for a 4-yard touchdown to provide the winning score.

The UK offense totaled a season-high 282 rushing yards – the most against an SEC opponent in 14 years. The Wildcats produced two 100-yard rushers in the game as Locke gained 126 yards and Cobb rushed for 109 markers, both career-high rushing totals. Each of the three quarterbacks – Newton, Fidler and Cobb – ran for one UK touchdown in the victory.

Wildcat defenders held Auburn below 21 points for the first time in seven games this season and limited AU to a season-low 315 yards on offense. Danny Trevathan and Sam Maxwell achieved career highs in tackles with 14 and 10, respectively. Fellow linebacker Micah Johnson charted a season-high 14 stops, his third double-digit tackling effort of the year. Defensive back Calvin Harrison notched his third career interception in the first quarter. After missing the previous two games because of injury, cornerback Paul Warford returned to tie a career high with three breakups.

KENTUCKY 36, ULM 13 // 10/24/09

Kentucky jumped out to an early three-touchdown lead over the University of Louisiana at Monroe en route to a 36-13 defeat of the Warhawks to record its 17th consecutive non-conference victory, matching the school-record streak previously set from 1954-60, on Military Appreciation Day and Hall of Fame Weekend at Commonwealth Stadium.

On UK's first possession, fullback John Conner's career-long run of 39 yards set up his rushing touchdown two plays later from the ULM 1-yard line to give the Wildcats a quick lead. After the UK defense forced the Warhawk offense into another three-and-out series, Randall Cobb returned the ULM punt 73 yards for a touchdown – the first punt return score of his career.

Cobb kick-started UK's first drive of the second quarter with a 28-yard run on a QB keeper from the Wildcat formation. On the next play, Cobb executed the same play for an 11-yard touchdown to extend the UK lead to 21-0. ULM answered on its next drive, capping it off with a 10-yard touchdown pass from Cody Wells to Luther Ambrose. The Cats answered with a four-play, 83-yard scoring drive that ended with Will Fidler's 25-yard TD pass to Conner to push the score to 28-7 just before the half.

ULM scored the only points of the third stanza on a 3-yard touchdown run by Frank Goodin. UK's Matt Roark blocked the extra point attempt, the fourth blocked kick of his career, to yield a 28-13 score.

Early in the fourth quarter, Wells fumbled a snap and recovered it in the endzone to give UK a safety and 30-13 advantage. Midway through the final quarter, UK's Randall Burden snared his first career interception and returned it 50 yards for a touchdown. Kentucky safeties Matt Lentz and Ashton Cobb ended ULM's final two possession with interceptions, marking UK's first game with three picks since the 2008 season opener at Louisville.

The UK defense held its opponent to its lowest point total of the season for the second straight game. Led by DeQuin Evans' three tackles-for-loss, UK posted a total of seven TFL in the game, a season high. Linebacker Danny Trevathan led the Wildcats in tackles for the second straight game, charting eight stops.

MISSISSIPPI ST. 31, KENTUCKY 24 // 10/31/09

Behind a powerful rushing attack led by tailback Anthony Dixon, Mississippi State scored three touchdowns in the third quarter to spark a come-from-behind 31-24 victory over Kentucky in front of a Homecoming crowd of 67,953 in Commonwealth Stadium.

MSU started the scoring with a 33-yard field goal from Derek DePasquale. Kentucky took its first lead of the game behind Derrick Locke's 10-yard touchdown run on the next series to give the Wildcats a 7-3 advantage after one quarter. Locke had his second 100-yard game of the season with a 103-yard performance.

The UK defense stopped the next two MSU drives behind interceptions from Sam Maxwell and Randall Burden. Burden returned his pick eight yards to the Bulldog 41-yard line. The Wildcats capitalized on the great field position with a touchdown drive that ended with an 11-yard touchdown rush from quarterback Morgan Newton to give UK a 14-3 lead. MSU made the score 14-10 on the next series with a 1-yard touchdown run from Dixon after quarterback Chris Relf rushed 52 yards to the UK 3-yard line two plays prior.

After Kentucky forced MSU to punt with 27 seconds remaining in the first half, UK's Randall Cobb returned the kick 46 yards to the Bulldog 26-yard line. On the last play of the half, kicker Lones Seiber extended UK's lead to 17-10 going into the locker rooms.

The Bulldogs opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 2-yard run by Christian Ducre, tying the game at 17-17. The Wildcats regained the lead after a 3-yard touchdown run from Cobb on the next series to put UK up 24-17. MSU quickly knotted the score again at 24-24 with a 67-yard touchdown pass from Tyson Lee to O'Neal Wilder. Dixon, who rushed for 252 yards, tallied the game-winning touchdown on the next possession with a three-yard run.

Mississippi State held on in the fourth quarter as Bulldog linebacker Jamar Chaney ended both UK drives inside the MSU 20-yard line with an interception and a quarterback sack on fourth down to secure the win.

Cobb led UK with 237 all-purpose yards. Linebacker Micah Johnson led the defense with 11 tackles, recording his eighth career double-digit tackling effort. Defensive end Taylor Wyndham led the team with 2.5 tackles-for-loss, part of a career-high six stops against the Bulldogs.

KENTUCKY 37, EASTERN KY. 12 // 11/07/09

Morgan Newton completed 20 of 29 passes for 187 yards and two touchdowns in leading Kentucky to a school-record 18th consecutive non-conference victory by defeating Eastern Kentucky 37-12 in front of 67,053 at Commonwealth Stadium.

Kentucky scored first on a 1-yard plunge into the end zone by Moncell Allen with less than five minutes remaining in the first quarter. The Wildcats extended the lead to 10-0 midway through the second quarter with a 22-yard field goal from Lones Seiber.

On the next possession, ECU used a fake field goal to get on the scoreboard. Holder Marcus Williams caught the snap and ran 9 yards for the touchdown, but a muffed snap on the conversion kept the score at 10-6. Alfonso Smith scored a touchdown for the Cats just before the half, busting the ball into the end zone from 1-yard out to put UK up 17-6 at the break.

In the third, Kentucky scored two touchdowns with under 2:30 remaining in the quarter on passes by Newton. The true freshman quarterback threw his first collegiate scoring pass to tight end Maurice Grinter, who hauled in a 14-yard reception. Just over a minute later, on the first play after an interception by Sam Maxwell, Newton connected with Chris Matthews on an 18-yard touchdown strike to give the Wildcats a 30-6 advantage. Newton finished the game with career highs in every passing category.

Freshman tailback Donald Russell scored his first career touchdown, and UK's longest play from scrimmage this season, on a 79-yard run midway through the fourth quarter to put UK up 37-6. ECU's H.B. Banjoman rushed for a 2-yard touchdown late in the game to yield the final margin. UK's Matt Roark blocked the PAT attempt to record his fifth blocked kick of his career and second PAT block this year.

UK's defense picked off multiple passes for the third consecutive game, including Cartier Rice's first career pick at the end of the first half in addition to the Maxwell interception. Taiedo Smith led the defense with a career-high six tackles. DeQuin Evans recorded three tackles-for-loss in a game for the second time this season.

Kentucky played without two of its offensive standouts, Randall Cobb and Derrick Locke, who missed the game because of injuries.

KENTUCKY 24, VANDERBILT 13 // 11/14/09

A potent Kentucky rushing attack and stout second-half defense led the Wildcats to a 24-13 win at Vanderbilt to record its second consecutive SEC road victory and post its fourth win over the past five games in front of 33,675 fans at Vanderbilt Stadium.

UK claimed its sixth win of the season, making the Wildcats bowl-eligible for the fourth-straight year. The victory marked the first time since 1953-56 that UK has won at least six games in four consecutive seasons. A season-high 308 yards rushing by UK in the game was the most against an SEC opponent since rushing for 310 at South Carolina in 1995.

The Wildcats scored on their second drive of the game. On a trick play, tailback Derrick Locke threw a 41-yard pass to quarterback Morgan Newton down the right sideline to advance to the VU 21-yard line. On the next play, Randall Cobb scampered for a 21-yard score out of the "WildCobb" formation to put UK up 7-0. The Commodores cut the lead to 7-3 on the next possession after a 42-yard field goal from Ryan Fowler.

In the second quarter, Fowler booted a career-long 47-yard field goal to cut the UK lead to one. The Wildcats answered with a 36-yard field goal from Lones Seiber on the next possession. After VU made an interception at the UK 20, quarterback Mackenzi Adams threw a 21-yard touchdown strike to John Cole to give the Commodores a 13-10 lead going into the locker rooms.

Kentucky dominated the second half on both sides of the ball. UK scored on the first drive of the half, going 75 yards on 10 plays, capped by a 3-yard rushing touchdown by Cobb. Derrick Locke scored the final touchdown for the Cats in the fourth quarter on a 14-yard run. Locke recorded his third career 100-yard game after carrying the ball 25 times for 144 yards - both career highs.

UK's defense shut down the VU offense in the second half. The Commodores were limited to one first down, 31 total offensive yards, 0-of-5 on third downs and held the ball only 6:56 time of possession after the half.

For the game, Kentucky held Vanderbilt to 199 yards total offense, the best showing since UK limited VU to 91 total yards in 1996. The Wildcats held VU to 11 first downs, the fewest against an SEC opponent since limiting South Carolina to nine first downs in 1999. Calvin Harrison picked off Adams just before the half, giving UK at least one interception in six consecutive games. Sam Maxwell led the defense with nine tackles, including one for a loss, and forced a fumble.

KENTUCKY 34, GEORGIA 27 // 11/21/09

TENNESSEE 30, KENTUCKY 24 OT // 11/28/09

After trailing at halftime 20-6, the Kentucky offense outscored Georgia 28-7 and the Wildcat defense retrieved four turnovers in the second half to both defeat the Bulldogs in Athens and claim its third consecutive SEC road win for the first time in 32 years in front of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium.

UK opened the scoring on its second possession with a 20-yard TD pass from Morgan Newton to tailback Derrick Locke, putting UK up 6-0 early. UGA then dominated the remainder of the half, holding the Cats off the scoreboard on four straight possessions while scoring on all four of its own to score 20 straight points.

The Bulldogs started with a 21-yard field goal by Blair Walsh in the first to cut the Wildcat lead in half. UGA opened the second quarter with a 21-yard touchdown pass from Joe Cox to Rantavious Wooten to give the Bulldogs a 10-6 edge. On the next possession, Cox threw a touchdown strike 20 yards to Orson Charles. Walsh added another field goal from 45 yards out just before the half to give UGA a 20-6 lead at intermission.

The Wildcats changed the momentum of the game on the opening kickoff of the second half. Moncell Allen knocked a fumble loose that was recovered by Matt Roark on the Georgia 14-yard line. Kentucky took immediate advantage of the miscue as Randall Cobb rushed for a 12-yard touchdown two plays later to cut the UGA lead to 20-13. The Bulldogs also scored on a two-play drive midway through the third when Cox connected with Wooten for the second time to cushion the UGA advantage.

UK responded with a four-play, 49-yard drive, capped by a 21-yard touchdown pass from Morgan Newton to La'Rod King. King's first career touchdown reception closed UK to within a touchdown at 27-20. On UK's opening drive of the fourth quarter, Locke took a screen pass and raced 60 down the sideline for a touchdown, his second TD catch of the game to knot the score at 27-27. Just over a minute later, Wildcat defensive tackle Shane McCord intercepted a Cox pass and rumbled 15 yards to the Georgia eight-yard line. Three plays later, Cobb ran it in from the one-yard line for his second rushing touchdown of the game to give UK the winning margin.

The Wildcat defense halted two potential scoring drives by UGA late in the game when Danny Trevathan recovered a fumble on the UK one-yard line with 2:21 remaining in the game, his first career fumble recovery. On the Bulldogs' final possession, Sam Maxwell intercepted Cox's pass with 1:45 remaining in the game, his fifth interception of the season. A Georgia native, Maxwell finished with a career-high 11 tackles. Corey Peters notched a career-high 10 stops and charted a career-best two pass breakups against the Bulldogs. Micah Johnson also posted 10 tackles.

Tennessee running back Montario Hardesty rushed for a career-high 179 yards and three touchdowns, including the game-winning score in overtime, to lead the Volunteers to a 30-24 win over Kentucky in front of 70,981 fans in Commonwealth Stadium, the sixth-largest crowd in school history.

The UK defense started the scoring as linebacker Sam Maxwell intercepted a pass from UT quarterback Jonathan Crompton on the Volunteers' opening drive and returned it 56 yards for a touchdown. Maxwell's pick was his fourth in the last five games and put UK up 7-0. Tennessee responded on its next possession with a three-play, 60-yard drive that ended with a Hardesty 9-yard touchdown run to knot the score at seven. At the end of the quarter, Randall Cobb converted a fourth-and-1 play at the UT 31 and then ran for a 17-yard touchdown four plays later to give the Wildcats a 14-7 advantage.

The Volunteers tied the score in the second quarter on its longest drive of the game. Hardesty capped off an eight-play, 66-yard drive with a 14-yard touchdown run. Kentucky answered with a touchdown on its longest drive of the game as Derrick Locke wrapped up a nine-play, 54-yard movement with a 1-yard plunge into the end zone. Locke's sixth rushing touchdown of the season gave UK a 21-14 lead at the half.

The Wildcat defense thwarted a UT scoring threat early in the second half when Corey Peters stopped Crompton on a 4th-and-goal from the UK 1-yard line. The Volunteers scored later in the quarter when Crompton threw a 16-yard touchdown strike to tight end Luke Stocker to tie the game for the third time. UT took its first lead of the game at 24-21 after Devin Mathis connected on a 30-yard field goal at the end of the quarter.

The fourth quarter remained scoreless until the final minute of the game. With just over two minutes left in regulation, UK's Ashton Cobb caused a fumble by Stocker which was recovered by Wildcat defensive end Taylor Wyndham at the UT 37-yard line. Seven plays later Lones Seiber tied the score at 24 on a 23-yard field goal with 33 seconds on the clock. In overtime, UK started on offense but did not score as Seiber's 49-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left. Tennessee then took over on offense and Hardesty clinched the game on a 20-yard dash to the end zone on the Volunteers' third play from scrimmage.

On defense, Micah Johnson totaled a career-high 16 tackles, giving him six double-digit performances this season and 10 for his career. Maxwell's sixth pick of the season tied him for third all-time for interceptions in a season. Defensive end DeQuin Evans made two tackles-for-loss, including a sack. He leads the team in both categories this season with six sacks and 12.5 TFL.

CLEMSON 21, KENTUCKY 13 // 12/27/09

GAYLORD HOTELS MUSIC CITY BOWL, NASHVILLE, TENN.

The exciting duo of Derrick Locke and Randall Cobb combined for 224 all-purpose yards and senior Lones Seiber kicked two field goals, but Clemson downed the Kentucky 21-13 in what would turn out to be head coach Rich Brooks' final game on the sidelines.

Played at Nashville's LP Field before a crowd of 57,280, the game was primarily dominated by the defenses. Kentucky gained 277 total yards and Clemson's potent attack was limited to 321 total yards.

True freshman quarterback Morgan Newton drove the Wildcats 61 yards, the final 17 on a touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Chris Matthews. Seiber provided the rest of the scoring for the Wildcats, booting field goals of 39 and 44 yards.

Clemson, champion of the Atlantic Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference, gradually moved back into contention. The Tigers tied the score at 7-7 on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Parker to Jacoby Ford, then went ahead 14-10 at halftime with one-yard run by Jamie Harper.

Trailing 14-13 to start the fourth quarter, the Wildcats forced a three-and-out and took over at their own 13-yard line. Newton completed a short pass, but Clemson linebacker Kavell Konnor forced the ball loose and the Tigers recovered the only turnover of the game. All-America tailback C.J. Spiller scored three plays later as Clemson went up 21-13.

Kentucky tried to battle back on the following possession, keeping the drive alive on a fourth-down conversion by punter Ryan Tydlacka. Four plays later, Newton came up inches short on a fourth-and-eight scramble, and the Wildcats turned the ball over on downs. Clemson was able to run out the remaining time on the clock.

Spiller, the ACC Player of the Year, was the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite his gaudy numbers entering the game and Heisman-caliber resume, the Kentucky defense did a solid job on Spiller, allowing him just 67 rushing yards and one TD.

Sophomore linebacker Danny Trevathan led the UK defense with eight tackles, including one for loss, and caused one fumble. Junior cornerback Paul Warford and senior linebacker Micah Johnson added five tackles each.

The loss snapped Kentucky's three-game bowl winning streak, the longest in school history. Following the game, Brooks announced he probably would step down as head coach and turn the headset over to offensive head coach, and selected coach-in-waiting, Joker Phillips. Brooks finalized the decision a week later.

The game marked the second time in four seasons Kentucky played Clemson in the Music City Bowl. The Wildcats won the previous meeting in 2006, 28-20.

Coach Rich Brooks concluded his career by taking Kentucky to a school-record four-straight bowl games.

In-state rivals Kentucky and Louisville played a back-and-forth thriller last season, with the Wildcats hanging on to win, 31-27.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL HISTORY

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its most recent, Trevard Lindley; from Professor A.M. Miller to Coach Joker Phillips; from old Stoll Field to Commonwealth Stadium; from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference; and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first African-American player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest – vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 119 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 1,169 contests and owns 567 wins, 558 losses and 44 ties. The 567 victories rank 45th among NCAA Bowl Subdivision (formerly Division I-A) programs in most wins.

Kentucky football has won one national championship, two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in 14 bowls.

UK football has had 15 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 22 first-team All-Americans (selected 26 times), 14 Academic All-Americans (selected 17 times), 73 first-team All-SEC players (selected 97 times), and 453 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear. Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, who the students asked to coach despite his admitted limited knowledge of the game. Miller began the 1892 season, then graciously stepped aside later in the year for John A. Thompson, who had more experience with the sport.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easily for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage took the reins of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. Bryant quickly grabbed the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first national championship and Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with defending national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

In the 1990s, research by Jeff Sagarin, who compiles the Sagarin Computer Ratings for USA Today, indicated that UK is the national champion for the 1950 season under that ranking system.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the task of following in Bryant's footsteps. He stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his term at UK came in 1964, a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss in Jackson, Miss.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, in Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) in University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) in Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) in Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) in Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) in Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white. In all, Curci worked nine years, the longest term of any UK head coach.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

After an 0-10-1 mark in Claiborne's first season, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 win over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Claiborne won 41 games during his eight seasons with the Wildcats. Claiborne and Bryant are the only two UK coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky cap-

59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

The 1995 season was highlighted by tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, broke three SEC records, and broke or tied 15 school records. Williams had 429 all-purpose yards in a win at South Carolina, the second-highest single-game total in NCAA history.

The arrival of Coach Hal Mumme in 1997 unleashed a lightning bolt of enthusiasm for Kentucky football. Mumme's dynamic "Air Raid" offense put UK among the national leaders in passing yardage and total offense and the '97 team broke or tied 51 school records and 15 Southeastern Conference records.

Coach Bear Bryant (left inset) guided Kentucky to eight consecutive winning seasons and four bowl games from 1946-53. Other legendary UK football names include Art Still, who earned consensus first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1977 and All-America quarterback Tim Couch (right inset), who led Kentucky to its first New Year's Day Bowl appearance in 47 years in the 1999 Outback Bowl.

tured the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a then-league record of 17 players named to the 1989 honor roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's second-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

After Claiborne's retirement, Bill Curry took over as head coach in 1990. Curry returned UK to the bowl scene in 1993 as the Wildcats played in the Peach Bowl.

In 1994, the Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a then-record

Kentucky returned to the bowl scene in 1998 when the Wildcats won seven games. Quarterback Tim Couch was a first-team All-American, SEC Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Heisman Trophy while rewriting NCAA, SEC, and UK record books. Wide receiver Craig Yeast became the leading pass catcher in SEC history. The Wildcats capped their season by playing Penn State in the Outback Bowl, the school's first New Year's Day bowl game in 47 years.

Following the Outback Bowl season, Commonwealth Stadium was expanded. UK enclosed both end zones and added personal suites in time for the 1999 season, boosting seating capacity to 67,606. The Wildcats celebrated the stadium expansion with another bowl season. All-America tight end James Whalen helped lead UK to the 1999 HomePoint.com Music City Bowl, marking the school's first back-to-back bowl appearances since 1983-84.

Guy Morriss coached the Wildcats in 2001-02. He guided UK to seven wins in '02, but the Wildcats could not go to a bowl game because of NCAA probation. Derek Abney returned six kicks for touchdowns, more than any player in one season in NCAA history, and was named first-team All-America along with punter Glenn Pakulak. Pakulak emerged as the best punter in school history and won the Mosi Tatupu Award as National Special Teams Player of the Year.

Inheriting a roster weakened by probation was the major obstacle for Rich Brooks when he took over as head coach in 2003. Brooks' rebuilding efforts began bearing fruit in 2006. The Wildcats had their best season in 22 years by winning eight games, including a win over Georgia and a 28-20 upset of highly favored Clemson in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

Led by quarterback Andre' Woodson, tailback Rafael Little, wide receiver Keenan Burton, tight end Jacob Tamme and linebacker Wesley Seven-time NFL All-Pro center Dermontti Dawson was one of the former Wildcat football players inducted into UK Athletics' inaugural Hall of Fame class in September 2005.

Woodyard, the 2007 season contained some of the most exciting moments in school history.

UK notched its first win over a Top-10 opponent in 30 years with a dramatic comeback victory over No. 9 Louisville. UK reached the Top-10 rankings for the first time since 1977 and the popular "ESPN GameDay" crew made its first visit to campus. UK also knocked off No. 1-ranked LSU -- the eventual national champion -- with a 43-37 triple-overtime thriller. The campaign was capped with another Music City Bowl win, this time over traditional power Florida State.

Led by a maturing defense, the momentum continued in the 2008 season when the Wildcats defeated East Carolina in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. That marked the first time in school history that UK won bowl games in three consecutive seasons.

Kentucky set a school record by going to a fourth-straight bowl following the 2009 season. Coach Rich Brooks retired after seven seasons, handing the reins to former Wildcat player and long-time assistant coach Joker Phillips.

WILDCAT TRADITIONS & LEGENDS

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 119 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats," which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A AND 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins

Rich Brooks led the Wildcats to an unprecedented four consecutive bowl appearances and three bowl victories during his seven-year tenure (2003-09) as UK's head coach.

Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

RICH BROOKS

Rich Brooks coached the Wildcats from 2003-09 and became the first coach in school history to go to four-straight bowl games. After enduring three years of rebuilding caused by an NCAA probation, Brooks guided UK to post-season play from 2006-09, winning a school-record three straight following the 2006, '07 and '08 seasons

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK football history. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson and Steve Meilinger.

UK CHEERLEADERS 18-TIME NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented 18th national cheerleading championship in 2010 at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995-2002, 2004-06 and 2008-10 and have been the runners-up on five occasions. Jomo Thompson is coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 40 students comprise the squad, 16 of whom represent the school at the championship.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the SEC Academic Honor Roll than any league school, including a then-record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in Aug. 2000.

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93 and '94, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its incoming freshman class.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THE STAFF

Blanton Collier had the challenge of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings and Bill Arnsperger.

Bear Bryant's Sugar Bowl champion Wildcats earned the 1950 national title, according to the Sagarin computer ratings.

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and downs at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DiGIURO SCHOLARSHIP

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 2010 winner of the scholarship is offensive lineman Dustin Luck.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

The goalposts came down after UK's 1997 overtime win against Alabama.

GOALPOSTS

The Commonwealth Stadium goalposts have been torn down twice since the stadium opened in 1973.

They were first toppled on Oct. 4, 1997, following Kentucky's 40-34 overtime win vs. Alabama. It was Kentucky's first victory against the Crimson Tide in 75 years, prompting the UK student body to storm the field. "If I weren't so old, I'd have torn them down myself," said then-UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton.

It happened again on Nov. 4, 2006, after the Wildcats' dramatic 24-20 triumph over Georgia. It was UK's first win over the Bulldogs in 10 years and the crowd brought down the east goalpost.

Citing safety concerns, UK has installed collapsible goalposts, which will prevent repeats of the popular -- but potentially dangerous -- celebration ritual.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As is the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 46-18 record in those 64 contests.

THE IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals," the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R.

In 1965, Nat Northington became the first African-American football player to sign with an SEC school.

Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats football and basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

MASCOTS

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 academic year at Kentucky. Gary Tanner was the original Wildcat, dancing and entertaining thousands of UK fans at Commonwealth Stadium and Rupp Arena during athletic events.

Today, the Wildcat mascot also attends several academic functions as well and generally serves as a friendly ambassador for the University.

Scratch, another costumed mascot, was unveiled in August of 1996. During UK games, the Wildcat and Scratch entertain with enthusiastic dances and cheers.

"Blue" is UK's 'live' wildcat mascot. "Blue" has a permanent residence in the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife's Salato Wildlife Center three miles west of Frankfort on US 60 and is on display and free to view by the public. Through the years, UK has had other official live mascots with colorful names. Records indicate that the first wild animal, named "Tom," was given to the University in 1921. Other live mascots followed, including "TNT," "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale" and "Colonel."

MINUS NINETY-THREE

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, in Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Kentucky is the 1950 national champion, according to Jeff Sagarin, who handles computer rankings for USA Today. Sagarin, who has generated computer ratings since the 1970s, has reconstructed earlier seasons and his computer rates the Wildcats as tops for the 1950 campaign.

At the time, the national champs were crowned after the regular season but before the bowl games. UK finished the regular season with a 10-1 record and No. 7 ranking before knocking off No. 1 Oklahoma, 13-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Four teams can lay claim to the 1950 title, according to the official NCAA record book. Six selectors went with Oklahoma (final record 10-1), six picked Tennessee (11-1), two chose Princeton (9-0), and one -- the Sagarin ratings -- named Kentucky (11-1).

THE FIRST NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

NIGHT GAMES

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October -- football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1:10 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate live national or regional television.

NAT NORTINGTON

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in an SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game in Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded the Outland Trophy, signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

THE PRINCE OF WALES

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles, the Prince of Wales, his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles' first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Prince Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc." William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when it comes to Wildcats football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats," which details

KENTUCKY FIGHT SONG

On, on U of K, we are right for the fight today,
Hold that ball and hit that line,
Every Wildcat star will shine,
We'll fight, fight, fight,
For the blue and white,
As we roll to that goal, varsity,
And we'll kick, pass and run,
'til the battle is won,
And we'll bring home the victory.

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

The sun shines bright on my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corntop's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.

(Chorus)

Weep no more, my lady!
Oh! Weep no more today!
We will sing one song for my old Kentucky home,
For my old Kentucky home far away.

The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy, and bright;
By-n-by hard times come a-knocking at the door,
Then my old Kentucky home, goodnight!

UK ALMA MATER

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
Sound her praise with voice united;
To the breeze her colors fling.
To the Blue and White be true;
Badge triumphant age on age;
Blue, the sky that o'er us bends;
White, Kentucky's stainless page.

Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to Commonwealth Stadium.

Since his retirement from UK, Rice has written a weekly historical column for The Cats' Pause magazine and he continues to be a rich historical resource for the UK media relations office.

STOLL FIELD/MCLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium," thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as more than 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty." The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

WILDCATS NICKNAME

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant Philip Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had “fought like wildcats.” The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972).

WINNING STREAK

Kentucky ended one of the longest winning streaks in college football history when the Wildcats faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl.

Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners.

At the time, the 31-game winning streak was the fifth-longest in NCAA history and today it still ranks as the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its fifth NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. Kentucky has been named national champion for the 1950 season by the Sagarin Ratings. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its third national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2.

KENTUCKY SUPERFAN JIM BROWN

If it has to do with Kentucky football, Jim Brown has seen it all.

When the 91-year-old Brown began attending UK football games, Franklin D. Roosevelt was president, bread cost a few cents a loaf, and Bear Bryant was just a cub.

With one exception we'll get to later, Brown was present for every UK home football game from 1938 until his streak ended during the 2009 season -- a total of 412 home games.

"I'm all for Kentucky football," Brown said. "I liked football from an early age, when I was a little kid in Western Kentucky. Football was the big thing in the 1920s and I followed UK in the sports pages."

Brown's streak began in 1938 when he enrolled as a UK freshman. A standout halfback in high school, he had hoped to play for the Wildcats, but was unable to try out for the team because he had to work his way through school. That didn't stop him from going to the games. In fact, it took a world war to separate Brown from Kentucky football.

"I was in a race with Uncle Sam to graduate before I got inducted into the service," Brown said. "I graduated in 1942 and got sent to Wright Field in Dayton. You couldn't get gasoline, and I didn't have a car anyway, so I caught the train from Dayton to Cincinnati to Lexington to see the games that season. I didn't miss any games in 1943 because, like a lot of schools, UK didn't field a team that year."

World War II finally got bigger than Kentucky football in 1944. Brown was a navigator/bombardier on a B-25 in Asia, part of a squadron called the "Burma Bridge Busters," definitely too far for a weekend excursion to catch the Cats. But he was discharged just in time for the 1945 season, and he didn't miss a home game for 64 straight seasons.

(An interesting side note is that the "Burma Bridge Busters" were the subject of a 2003 documentary by the History Channel. Brown was one of the members of the squadron who was interviewed and featured in the documentary.)

A member of what has become known as "The Greatest Generation," Brown helped build America -- literally. He was involved with the construction business, a lumber company, and in real estate.

Even his marriage had a tie to Kentucky football. He married Carolyn Rodes, daughter of William "Black Doc" Rodes, a UK football star in 1915-16.

The Browns didn't always live in Lexington. They lived in Carrollton from 1952-63, and in Winchester from 1965-78. All the while, he kept turning out to see his favorite team.

"I always worked on Saturday mornings (at the lumber company). I left a lot of people standing in the store, saying 'I have to go to Lexington,'" Brown recalled with a laugh. "I wasn't trying to set a record. It just happened."

Brown's favorite gridiron memories involve the 1949-50-51 teams that played in the Orange, Sugar and Cotton Bowls, along with the mid-1970s teams that won an SEC championship and a Peach Bowl.

"People who go back that far feel that our 1950 team probably was our best," said Brown, referring to the Wildcat squad that is the 1950 national champion, according to the Sagarin computer ratings. "(Quarterback) Babe Parilli was as good at deception as anyone I've ever seen. I was in a game in Atlanta against Georgia Tech, and a Tech fan was sitting beside me. He said, 'It looks like Parilli is shaking hands with everybody in the backfield before he hands the ball off.'"

"That bunch in 1977 was probably the second-best team we've had," Brown continued. "They had a lot of terrific athletes, especially (future NFL stars) Art Still and Derrick Ramsey."

As much as he enjoys talking about the past, Brown is just as excited about the present and future. After 52 years of marriage, wife Carolyn passed away in 1999. He married again in 2002, and new wife Mary Anne Goodson Brown also is a UK grad.

Brown is happy with the progress made at the University.

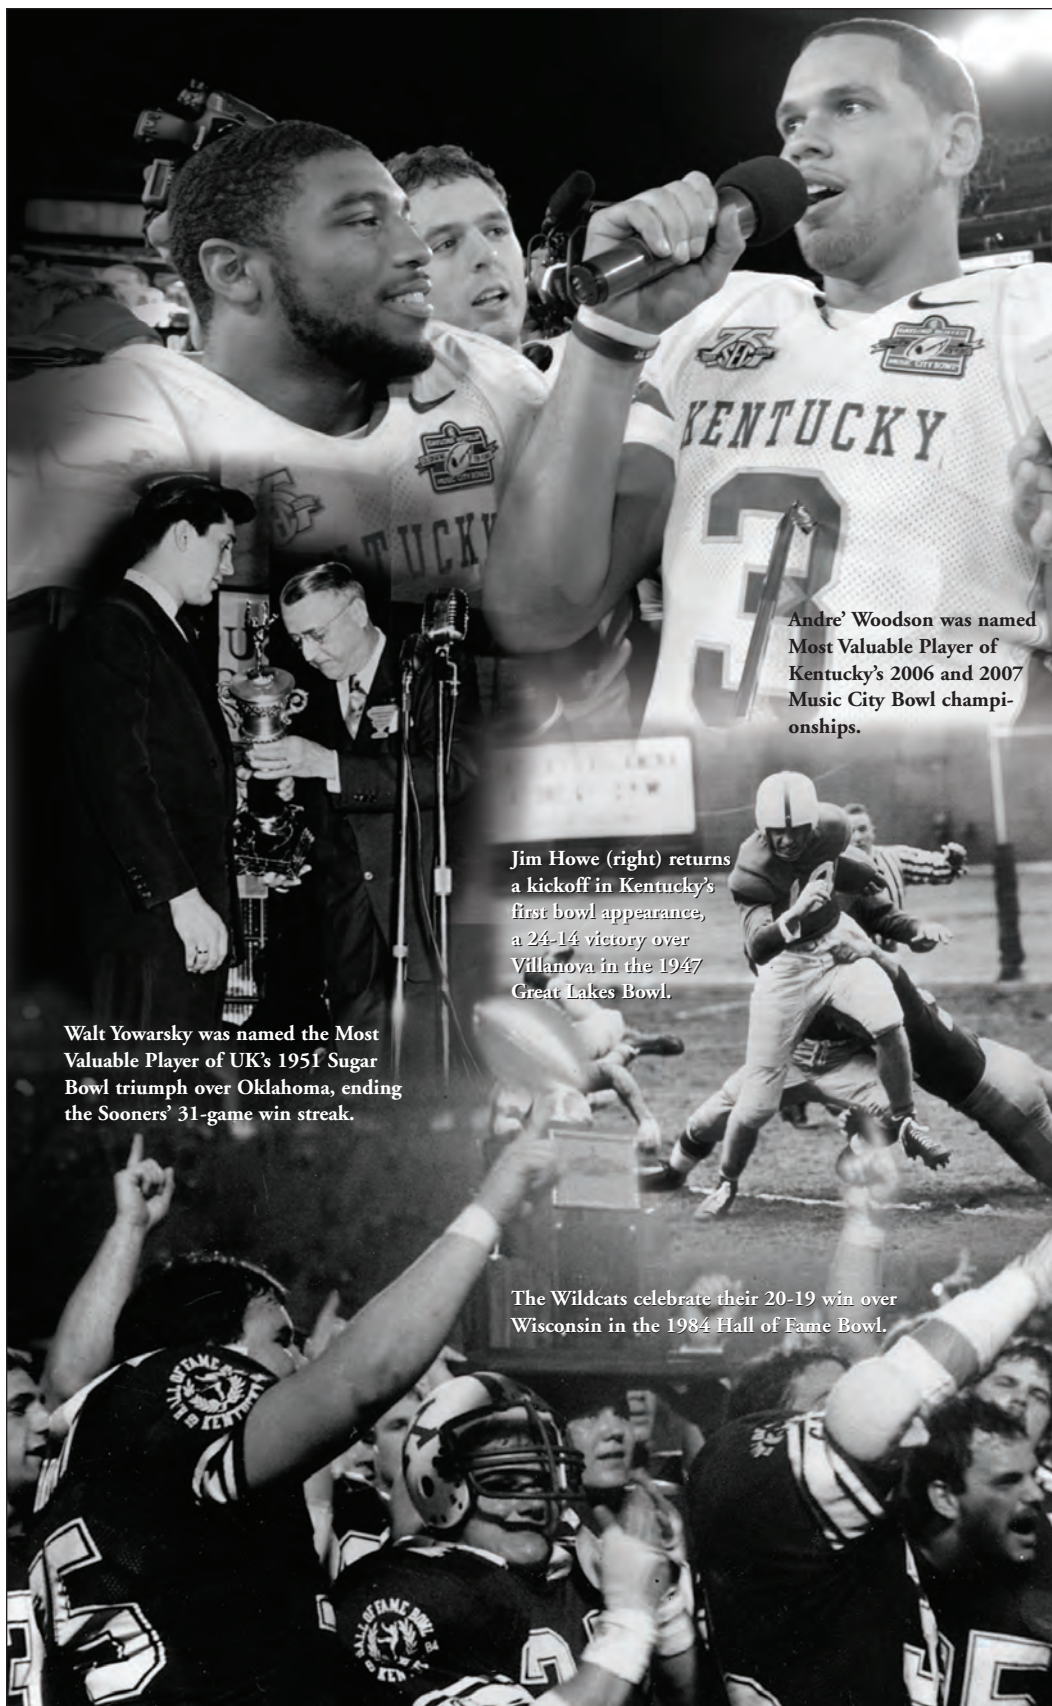

"We're going in the right direction with the new AD (Mitch Barnhart) and President (Lee) Todd. The whole university is charting an exciting course."

Brown's streak finally came to an end when an illness forced him to miss the Alabama game in 2009. However, he continues to go Kentucky games. And, he's a model of faithfulness in more than football. He has a 44-year streak of perfect attendance at the Lexington Rotary Club. He's also a pillar of Crestwood Christian Church, where he is an elder emeritus. Asked about his consistency, Brown replied in what must be the understatement of the year.

"I've always had a tendency to be loyal," he said.

KENTUCKY BOWL HISTORY

Andre' Woodson was named Most Valuable Player of Kentucky's 2006 and 2007 Music City Bowl championships.

Jim Howe (right) returns a kickoff in Kentucky's first bowl appearance, a 24-14 victory over Villanova in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl.

Walt Yowarsky was named the Most Valuable Player of UK's 1951 Sugar Bowl triumph over Oklahoma, ending the Sooners' 31-game win streak.

The Wildcats celebrate their 20-19 win over Wisconsin in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl.

SEE MOE GO FOR 429 YARDS

Moe Williams enjoyed the greatest day ever by a UK running back on September 23, 1995, in the Wildcats' 35-30 win at South Carolina ... Williams compiled 429 all-purpose yards (299 rushing, 57 receiving, 73 kickoff returns) — the second highest total in NCAA history ... Williams set three SEC records and broke or tied five school records ... He was named National Player of the Week by the National Football Foundation and National Offensive Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated.

TEAM RECORDS

UK UPSETS No. 1 OLE MISS BEHIND KESTNER

Rick Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson in 1964 . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

BISHOP'S THEFT GIVES UK VICTORY

Darryl Bishop of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 . . . One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

DR. LEE T. TODD, JR., PRESIDENT

Lee T. Todd, Jr. became the 11th president of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2001.

Todd is a native of Earlinton, Ky. and a graduate of UK and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. President Todd is the sixth UK alumnus to hold the presidency. He is a former UK engineering professor; a successful businessman who launched two worldwide technology companies, both based in Kentucky; and a public advocate for research, technology, and an entrepreneurial economy in the Commonwealth.

President Todd serves as chair of the Advisory Board for the National Science Foundation's Directorate for Education and Human Resources Committee. He is immediate past chair of the Board of Directors for the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities (APLU) and is presently chair of the APLU Science Math Teacher Imperative (SMTI). He is immediate past president of the Southeastern Conference (SEC)

Executive Committee and represents the SEC as a member of the NCAA Division I Board of Directors as well as on the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) Committee. President Todd is a member of the Executive Committee of the Business Higher Education Forum. He serves on the Equitable Resources Board of Directors and is chair of the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education's STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) Task Force. He is chair of the National Consortium for Continuous Improvement in Higher Education's (NCCI) Leveraging Excellence Award selection panel.

Under Todd's leadership, his alma mater has achieved a greater level of national prominence. To that end, he launched the University of Kentucky's Top 20 Business Plan in December 2005. The plan is a quantitative analysis of what it will take for UK to achieve its state-mandated goal of building a Top 20 public research university. Widely hailed as the first business plan in the nation by a public university, it has been featured by national media outlets and recognized by peer institutions.

President Todd has spearheaded an effort to revitalize health care in Kentucky. In June 2006, UK unveiled the Commonwealth's Medical Campus of the Future, a multi-phased project aimed at providing Kentuckians with cutting-edge, 21st century health care. As part of the revamped academic medical campus, UK is constructing a new, one million square foot University of Kentucky Albert B. Chandler Hospital and has completed a new College of Pharmacy.

He is married to the former Patricia Brantley, a UK graduate who earned her master's degree from Simmons College in Boston. They have two adult children, UK graduates Troy and Kathryn.

MITCH BARNHART, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mitch Barnhart is in his ninth year at the University of Kentucky, with unparalleled accomplishments in his past and unprecedented goals for the future.

Looking to build on the successes under his direction, Barnhart's ambitious course for the future was revealed in November 2008 with the 15 by 15 by 15 Plan. The goals are to win at least 15 conference or national championships and rank among the NCAA's top 15 athletic programs by 2015 – all of which would be unprecedented achievements for UK Athletics – while continuing to expand the department's service to the commonwealth of Kentucky. Another goal is a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average for UK's 500-plus student-athletes on an annual basis.

The goal Barnhart set nine years ago to mold an athletics department that competed with integrity, won championships with class and succeeded in the classroom is beginning to come to fruition with the close of the 2009-10 athletics season.

UK continued its annual improvement in the Directors' Cup standings with a finish of 29th place in 2009-10. It was the school's best showing since Barnhart's arrival, its top finish since the 1997-98 season and only three slots away from the best mark in school history.

The primary academic target was met at the conclusion of the 2010 spring semester as UK's student-athletes notched a composite 3.04 GPA, the highest semester of the Barnhart era, but Barnhart wants to continue to see academic success and improvement in the future. In addition, UK has consistently posted strong numbers in the NCAA Academic Progress Rate as every one of UK's 22 varsity sports have avoided penalties in the APR's six-year existence. Graduation rates, which date back to classes that entered six years ago, are beginning to show the improvement Barnhart emphasized upon his arrival in 2002.

Barnhart's connection to UK student-athletes is evident by his individual interaction and dedication to provide the support services necessary to meet their needs. UK Athletics spends more than $1.5 million annually on its nationally renowned Center for Academic and Tutorial Services. He also began the CATSPYs, an annual awards program that honors the best of UK Athletics.

Additional initiatives begun under Barnhart's leadership include fully funding all 22 varsity sports with maximum number of scholarships and coaches, creating the UK Athletics Hall of Fame and the construction of the Joe Craft Center, a $30 million facility that includes practice and administrative space for a variety of sports.

Barnhart's influence reaches far beyond the fields of competition. Despite athletics' urgent financial needs, Barnhart founded a $1.2-million annual contribution to the University's scholarship program, a donation that was increased to $1.7 million annually in 2009-10.

Social responsibility in the Commonwealth of Kentucky also is a priority for Barnhart, who is extremely active in community service and encourages UK athletics staff and student-athletes to do the same.

Barnhart has been involved on the national level as well and in 2010 will become the chair of the NCAA Basketball Issues Committee.

Barnhart arrived at UK from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-83).

Barnhart is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University in 1982.

His family includes his wife, Connie, three children, Blaire, Scott, Kirby Willoughby and her husband, McKenzie.

KENTUCKY ATHLETICS

Our Mission

The University of Kentucky has a goal to become one of America's 20 best public research universities. In support of that goal, the University of Kentucky Athletic Association (UKAA) is dedicated to having a nationally prominent program with integrity, while keeping the focus on the student-athlete.

Our vision is to educate our student-athletes through graduation and compete for championships in all sports within a framework of fiscal responsibility, with a commitment to diversity in all areas, and to be compliant with university, state, SEC and NCAA rules and regulations. A high-energy departmental culture will be established that values integrity, sound fiscal policy and excellence in developing student-athletes to their full potential in academics and in competition.

UKAA'S Five Principles

The UKAA uses the following five principles, which reflect the commitment to excellence and mission of the department:

- Be accountable and socially responsible
- Possess integrity
- Keep the focus on the student-athletes
- Provide sound fiscal management
- Compete for championships

COVERING KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for working media, videographers and photographers for UK's home football games should be requested at this website: www.sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than July 31. Requests for single games should be made as far in advance as possible.

The University of Kentucky follows guidelines set by the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference in issuing credentials.

On a space-available basis, season credentials are granted to daily newspapers, magazines, radio stations and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis – i.e., weekly news conferences and all home games. Additional requests are considered on a space-available basis.

Credentials will not be mailed. On game day, credentials may be picked up at media will call, located between gates 11 and 12 of Commonwealth Stadium, beginning two hours prior to kickoff. Credentials also may be picked up at the Media Relations Office in the Joe Craft Center, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Approved parking passes will be mailed in advance.

Photographers, videographers and television reporters accompanying their cameramen must wear armbands in order to get field access. Armbands should be picked up at media call between gates 11 and 12 of the stadium.

INTERNET CREDENTIALS

The official Web site of each participating institution and representatives of contractual rights-fee paying media will be granted access. Other Internet representatives not earning credentials through the criteria listed above will be considered on a game-by-game basis.

SEC INTERNET REAL-TIME POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

The 2010 edition of the University of Kentucky Football Media Guide

is a comprehensive source of information for media covering the Wildcats. Additional information or photos can be obtained by calling UK Media Relations at (859) 257-3838. E-mail addresses and other contact info are on the next page. Our website is UKAthletics.com.

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

University of Kentucky Coach Joker Phillips conducts a teleconference on most Sundays following Wildcats football games. The teleconferences are up to 20 minutes in length with the primary purpose of reviewing the previous day's game. The starting time is TBA.

Media members can participate in the teleconference by dialing a MEDIA ONLY telephone number which can be obtained from the UK Media Relations Office.

The teleconferences will begin on Sept. 5 and run through Nov. 14. No teleconference is planned for Nov. 21, the Sunday after UK's open date. Please contact the UK Media Relations Office (859) 257-3838 for further information.

MONDAY NEWS CONFERENCE

Coach Joker Phillips will conduct a weekly press conference on most Mondays during the season. The news conferences will be conducted in the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Parking is available outside Gate One of Commonwealth Stadium. Media members may access the Wildcat Den at Gate Three of the stadium.

Selected Wildcat football players will be available at the press conferences. The weekly news conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 30 and continue on Mondays thereafter. News conferences conclude on Nov. 21. No news conference is scheduled for Nov. 14, the Monday prior to UK's open date.

The news conference schedule is as follows:

- lunch is from 11:15 a.m. to 11:45
- UK player interviews from 11:45 a.m. to 12:05 p.m.
- UK Olympic sports coach from 12:05 to 12:15 p.m.
- Coach Joker Phillips from 12:15 to 12:35 p.m.

TUESDAY VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

The University of Kentucky video office will provide a highlight feed on Tuesdays during the season. The feed will begin on Aug. 31 and conclude on Nov. 23. There will be no feed on Nov. 23, the Tuesday of UK's open date.

The video feed will include Wildcat highlights and interviews from the previous day's news conference.

video coordinator Shane Fannin at (859) 257-9863.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERVICES

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Charles Bloom, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the year.

SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via teleconference. Each coach is given 10 minutes to address media questions about his upcoming football game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

This is the schedule for the Wednesday teleconferences, all times Eastern:

11:00 a.m.	Les Miles, LSU
11:10 a.m.	Steve Spurrier, South Carolina
11:20 a.m.	Urban Meyer, Florida
11:30 a.m.	Bobby Johnson, Vanderbilt
11:40 a.m.	Derek Dooley, Tennessee
11:50 a.m.	Nick Saban, Alabama
12:00 p.m.	Bobby Petrino, Arkansas
12:10 p.m.	Houston Nutt, Ole Miss
12:20 p.m.	Mark Richt, Georgia
12:30 p.m.	Dan Mullen, Mississippi State
12:40 p.m.	Gene Chizik, Auburn
12:50 p.m.	Joker Phillips, Kentucky

The SEC Internet address is accessible for media and public usage at www.secsports.com. The Web site is updated continuously with information on all 12 conference schools and their sports. The SEC also operates a media-only site. Media should contact the SEC Media Relations Office for access information.

WILDCAT PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Media Relations Office.

Approximately 3-5 players are usually available at the Monday news conference. Depending on class schedules or other commitments, most players are available to the media after practice, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Post-practice interviews will be conducted at the Nutter Training Facility or by telephone. On game days, interviews will be granted only after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online

"simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Football Championship Game. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete. Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

The university dormitories, dining halls, team locker and weight rooms, and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Media Relations Office personnel.

RADIO CALL-IN SHOWS/INTERNET CHATS

As specified by the Southeastern Conference, no league players will be allowed to participate in live radio shows or on live chat sessions on a non-institutional Web site except for immediate postgame coverage.

INTERNET

The official University of Kentucky athletics Internet site is UKathletics.com. Statistics and game notes are available on the website.

For home games, live in-game statistics and a live blog are available on the website. After the game, notes and quotes also will be posted on the web.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Most Kentucky football practices are closed to the media, although interviews are available after practice. Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office, (859) 257-3838, for practice and interview times.

GAME SERVICES

Media may not shoot video or still photos during 11-on-11 sessions of practice. Video is not to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly scheduled news program).

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting media and/or photo credentials. The media parking areas are located in the Blue Lot and Purple Lot at Commonwealth Stadium. Both are accessible via Alumni Drive.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Approved media or photo credentials can be obtained at the Media Will Call table, located between gates 11 and 12 of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

PRESS BOX

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members only. It is located on the south side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium between the upper and lower grandstands. The media entrance to Commonwealth Stadium is between gates 11 and 12.

The photo deck, radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and VIP booths are located on the press box level of Commonwealth Stadium. All can be accessed via the press box elevators.

TELEPHONES

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is equipped with six courtesy telephones with long-distance capabilities for use by the media on a first-come, first-served basis. Members of the media wishing to order phone lines can do so by contacting Larry Bell or Tom Lilly of the UK Phone Services Department. The telephone number is (859) 257-0712. Please order phone lines as far in advance as possible.

WIRELESS INTERNET

The Commonwealth Stadium press box offers free wireless Internet service to media members. Instructions will be provided in the press box on game day.

For further questions, contact Susan Lax, UK Association Media Relations Director, in seat 94 of the press box.

VISITING RADIO

The official visiting radio broadcast network personnel should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Two phone lines (including one ISDN) will be made available in the broadcast booth, plus one phone line and two dry pair in the locker room area, at a cost to be determined by Mike Dodson of IMG Sports, (859) 226-4678.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting Larry Bell or Tom Lilly of the UK Phone Services Department at (859) 257-0712.

FIELD-LEVEL PHOTO ROOM

The field-level photo area is located in Room 144, in the southwest portal leading off the field (same portal as used by the visiting team). There will be a pregame meal and soft drinks served in the room. Flip cards will be available. Statistics and play-by-play sheets will be brought to the room during the game. Internet connections (first-come, first-served) have been installed.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

UK Coach Joker Phillips will conduct his post-game news conference in the Wildcat Den, located under the north grandstand. Phillips begins his post-game news conference approximately 20 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den is located in the northwest corner (nearest flagpole) of Commonwealth Stadium.

The Kentucky locker room is CLOSED to all members of the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the Wildcat Den following the conclusion of Brooks' news conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the contest in order for members of the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the southwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference room is located next to the visitors' locker room. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their post-game comments from that area.

UK ON THE AIR

The University of Kentucky is in the midst of a landmark 10-year deal for the University's expanded multi-media marketing rights.

The agreement was signed in 2005 with IMG College (formerly Host Communications) and Gray Television. IMG, UK's radio and television partner for most of the past three decades, teams with Lexington TV station WKYT to pay the University $80.5 million during the term of the contract, making it one of the most lucrative deals of its kind in NCAA history.

In addition to radio and TV rights for football and men's basketball, the Big Blue Network also features women's basketball and baseball, corporate sponsorships, stadium and arena signage, and the official athletics website, UKathletics.com.

At press time, IMG has compiled 54 radio stations, including two stations – WHAS (840 AM) in Louisville and WCKY (1530 AM) in Cincinnati – with clear-channel 50,000-watt signal.

The agreement with IMG enhances UK's national and regional broadcasting presence. Also enhancing UK's national presence is the Southeastern Conference's new 15-year deal with ESPN and CBS. Every SEC football and men's basketball game is available via CBS or an ESPN affiliate which began in 2009.

ESPN's deal, reportedly worth more than $2 billion, will have rights to every SEC home football game not on the CBS package and all league matchups will be shown on some outlet, including at least 20 a year on ESPN or ESPN2. That includes two primetime Thursday night matchups and Saturday night games.

In addition to the SEC TV pacts, the Big Blue Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats home and selected away games that are not televised by CBS or ESPN. The network serves eight over-the-air stations and Fox Sports Net South on cable.

For the 2010 football season, the UK radio broadcast team consists of play-by-play announcer Tom Leach (21 years with the network, 13th season on play-by-play), former Wildcat Jeff Picoro (eighth season) as the analyst, pregame host/sideline reporter/post-game host Dick Gabriel (21st season), and pregame analyst Oscar Combs (13th season).

The TV crew includes Rob Bromley (30th season) on play-by-play, with the analyst and sideline reporter to be determined. Working behind the scenes to pull the broadcasts together is the job of Mike Dodson, Vice-President for Broadcasting at IMG College. He is in his 16th year as the technical engineer for all game-day UK football and men's basketball broadcasts.

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

NEW FACILITIES

Featuring the latest technology, in recent years UK has built:

- New locker rooms at Commonwealth Stadium and Nutter Training Center
- New outdoor practice fields
- New indoor practice field
- New team and position meeting rooms

COACHES WITH NFL EXPERIENCE

Head Coach Joker Phillips has a coaching staff with 25 years of NFL experience. In addition to Phillips, UK coaches with NFL experience include defensive coordinator Steve Brown, running backs coach Larry Brinson, wide receivers coach Tee Martin and offensive line coach Mike Summers.

UNWAVERING FAN SUPPORT

Kentucky ranks in the nation's top 25 in attendance and has broken the school attendance record for three-straight years.

UK

hope to be the first class in school history to go to five-straight bowl games.
