

APS 6 Artifact

This is a picture of one of my student's spelling test. My first grade class had been learning these words for a week and practice writing them. These ten words were also used throughout the read aloud story, which gave them the opportunity to see the words in different context. This particular student received a 100% and used great writing skills.