CLEMSON UNIVERSITY

Founding Dean | College of Education, 2014 to Present

Employ values centered leadership focused on faculty, staff and student success. Collaborate with university leadership, Board of Trustees, faculty, staff, and alumni in the development and allocation of resources (e.g., broadly defined—financial, space, personnel, etc.) and their utilization in establishing a new and independent academic college. Provide subsequent oversight of a multi-functional staff comprised of 75 full-time, tenure-track, lecturers, and clinical faculty and 29 staff members. The college enrolls 765+ undergraduate students and over 1330+ master's, specialist and doctoral students, and offers 5 Ph.D. and 1 Ed.D. programs, 14 master's degree programs, and 10 teacher preparation programs with over 150 partner and clinical sites in 24 school districts around the state. Execute fiscal administration for a $32M budget and endowment of $10M.

- Collaboratively developed and implemented an organizational business plan, budget, mission statements, college and departmental by-laws, college-wide and departmental strategic plans and tenure and promotion policies.
- Campus wide Summer School Task Force (Co-chair). Under the direction of the Provost of Clemson University, led in the development and implementation of summer session into a full third term (semester) in order to increase student success, student retention, revenue growth and efficiency in the utilization of the university campus.
- Deans Leadership Institute. Established to develop leaders (faculty and staff) within the College for both informal and formal leadership roles. Through selected curriculum and travel, participants are afforded an opportunity to expand their knowledge and engagement about the land-grant mission of Clemson's College of Education.
- Grants. Fifty-two percent increase in grant awards from 2016-2021. In FY19-20 $38M in grant submissions with $8.2M in grant awards.
- Program enrollment growth. Increase of 28.4% in undergraduate and 37.5% in graduate enrollment from 2016-2021.
- Launched strategic retention initiatives resulting in a 97% retention rate of all Pell grant recipients, a 66% graduation rate among four-year students and 91% graduation rate among six-year students.
- Establishment of Special Advisor to the Dean for Diversity and Inclusive Excellence and the formation of college taskforce for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion.
- Promotion of an inclusive and culturally diverse academic environment, increasing enrollment by non-white undergraduate students from 8% to 15.8% and non-white graduate students from 19% to 23%.
- US News and World Report. Achieved the number one ranking for College of Education online Master Education Program in US News and World Report in 2018, 2019 and 2020. Masters in Curriculum and Instruction ranked #8 and Educational Administration ranked #19.
- Nurture professional relationships within the Office of Development garnering philanthropic support in the amount of $10M for the college, national programs and centers. Additionally, procured a $1.25M endowed professorship in special education.
- University Partnership - Led in the successful development and implementation of a collaborative professional doctorate (Ed.D.) in Systems Improvement Science with three regional comprehensive universities in South Carolina.
- University/Community College and K-12 partnership. Engaged in a collaborative partnership with Greenville County Schools and Greenville Technical College in the creation of a seamless pathway from high school to a four-year degree and teaching credential in education from Clemson. The partnership, "Expressway to Tiger Town," received the 2019 Innovation of the Year Award from the League of Innovation in the Community Colleges.

- Interdisciplinary partnerships. Facilitated the collaboration of faculty from Engineering, Computing and Applied Sciences, Architecture, Arts and Humanities, Agriculture, Forestry and Life Sciences and Education in the design and implementation of a state-wide STEAM professional teaching endorsement and certificate for K-12 teachers.
- Provide oversight of nationally recognized centers and programs focused on enhancing equity, access and the academic success of students from underserved schools and communities:
 - Call Me Mister (increasing diversity in schools – 170 graduates resulting in an 85% increase in the number of African American male teachers serving S.C. elementary schools)
 - Clemson University Center of Excellence for the Recruitment and Retention of Minority Teachers (South Carolina Commission on Higher Education)
 - Reading Recovery Training Center (serving 1,450 teachers and 54,000 students – 81% of students who complete program read at or above grade level)
 - Clemson LIFE (offers college and life experience to students with intellectual disabilities in order to prepare them to live and work independently – 24 graduates to date)
 - Upstate Writing Project (statewide professional development in the teaching of writing for K-12 teachers)

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY

Dean | Graduate School of Education, 2010 to 2014

Employed values centered leadership focused on faculty, staff and student success in the oversight of 18 tenure-track faculty, 4 full-time lecturers, and 9 staff members with approximately 500+ full and part-time students. Executed fiscal administration, monitoring allocation and implementation of the annual budget throughout all academic programs. The Graduate School of Education offers five master's degree programs, two doctoral degree programs, and initial credential programs in general education, special education, counseling and guidance, and educational leadership.

- Collaboratively worked with department chairs to increase enrollment for the Graduate School of Education for four consecutive years.
- Collaboratively worked with faculty to revamp the curriculum and delivery for the Doctor of Education and Master of Educational Leadership programs. Aligned academic capabilities with organizational objectives, heightening the quality of both programs and tripling enrollment in the master's program.
- Established and provided leadership for the Center for Innovative Learning (CIL), spanning departmental and college disciplines and serving as a broad spectrum of innovative and transdisciplinary research, teaching and grant activities.
- Oversaw the acquisition and allocation of $1.2M in training grants for the Department of Education Special Education Program.
- Worked with the Director providing project oversight for the California Reading and Literature Project (CRLP). CRLP provides exceptional professional development opportunities for K-12 teachers in reading and language instruction that elevated California state reading levels.
- University/School District Partnership - Collaborated with university faculty and leaders in the Santa Maria School District to establish the Central Coast Learning Center. The Center offers a master's and administrative credential program designed to prepare school principals to lead bilingual and underserved communities on the central coast.
- Business Partnership - Led in the development and establishment of the partnership between CLU and Corwin Publishers for the online professional development program "Read 2 Earn."
