A. Curriculum (Registrar)
   1. The Bachelor of Science in Marketing offers concentrations in technical marketing, services marketing, sports marketing, and general marketing management.
   2. The Master of Science in Marketing is intended for students interested in advanced studies in analytical marketing. This program is taught entirely in Greenville.

B. Primary Users:
   Undergraduate students
   Master's students
   Faculty

C. Secondary Users:
   Undergraduates and graduates majoring in other business subjects
   Marketing professionals
   Community members

II. Scope of In-House Collection:
The book collection is not particularly strong, but has emphasis in the areas of advertising, consumer behavior and marketing management. The collection overlaps with management and finance. Inclusion of material is based primarily on support of academic programs. Many of the needs of the undergraduates are met by the Reference Collection. Selected non-academic current issues at a popular reading level for use in all areas of study are also included.

A. Formats Guidelines
   1. Print Sources
      Print material will continue to be purchased for the collection.
   2. E-books
      E-books will be given consideration as needed or requested. E-books will also be purchased through Patron Driven Acquisition (PDA).
   3. Electronic Sources
      These sources will be evaluated for their need and wide appeal. Databases will be considered as recommended or needed. E-journals will be considered over print journal subscriptions.
   4. Audiovisual
      DVD's will be purchased on a highly selective basis.
B. Language Guidelines
Only English language materials will be purchased.

C. Geographical Guidelines
Generally, information focusing on marketing issues involving the United States will be purchased. Some special topics in international marketing (i.e. International market research reports, export marketing, and doing business in foreign countries) will be purchased on a selected basis.

D. Chronological Guidelines
Selecting will focus on current, up-to-date information. Books of historical importance will also be selected/retained.

E. Publication Date Guidelines
Generally the selector will purchase materials published within the last two years. Materials requested by a faculty member, or highly recommended in a review source, will also be considered, regardless of publication date.

F. Materials selected for the Marketing collection:
1. Bibliographies: Narrow subject scope bibliographies will be selected as appropriate to the focus of the collection.
2. Career guidance and job-seeking guides: Will be purchased for management and MBA only.
3. Clemson University Information: Material relating to the College of Business and Behavioral Sciences will be retained.
4. Dictionaries, Directories, Biographical Sources, Almanacs and Yearbooks: Are purchased as needed for the collection.
5. Guidebooks and workbooks: Books which are targeted for practitioners or other business people will be purchased selectively as needed. Books consisting of checklists or books which are primarily worksheets to fill-in are not appropriate for our audience and will therefore not be purchased.
6. Handbooks and Manuals: The circulating collection will include current, authoritative handbooks and manuals as needed for the collection.
7. Journals: Every effort will be made to preserve the current journal collection, and to add new titles as funds allow. Evaluation tools will be used to identify core journals, to ensure that they will not be cut. As well as core lists from recognized sources, journals deemed important by the Marketing faculty, will also be retained. Subscriptions for electronic journals will be added when requested or whenever possible.
8. Databases: Electronic databases that can be used to locate journal articles, business information, and other publications for research in the Marketing area will be purchased. There are several online services carried by the library which are of interest to Marketing faculty and students. Relevant databases can be found on the Marketing subject page.
9. Textbooks: Textbooks which are used in classes taught at Clemson will not be purchased. Other textbooks may be purchased, if they are deemed appropriate in supporting the curriculum.

Primary Subject Classifications, LC Call Numbers and Collecting Levels:

Serials (journals) published prior to 1980 that have not circulated in over ten years may be evaluated for removal from the collection or for off-site storage.
