

RICHARD CHAMPION SERIES. 1 Mss volume.

The Richard Champion Series consists of a bound, seventy-two page typescript compiled by Paul Quattlebaum in 1956. The volume is a scrapbook of material copied from various authors. It chronicles the career of Richard Champion (1743-1791) as a merchant, a manufacturer of porcelain, and a political activist. Champion, an English Quaker, created porcelain which compared favorably with that of Josiah Wedgwood. A staunch Whig, Champion emigrated to Camden, South Carolina in 1784 and later served as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention of 1790. Paul Quattlebaum compiled this manuscript at the behest of his cousin, Rev. W. Dan Quattlebaum of Pasadena, California, himself an ardent porcelain collector.
