Processing: Student assistants Raul Espinosa and Jeff Wilterding, 1999. The finding aid was completed in May 1999.

Administrative history:

- 1969 College of Industrial Management and Textile Science created.
 Composed of departments of Accountancy, Economics, Professional Development, Industrial Management and Textiles. W. D. Trevillian, Dean.
- 1980 (July) Thomas D. Efland named Acting Dean
- 1982 name changed to College of Commerce and Industry.

Scope and content:

This series contains the records and administrative files of the Dean and Associate Dean of the College of Industrial Management and Textile Science, W.D. Trevillian and Thomas D. Efland. The series is arranged as follows:

I. Office of the Dean

II. Office of the Associate Dean

III. Material separated

- A. Publications
- B. Photographs
- C. Oversize

The folders, which are arranged alphabetically by subject within each section, span the years 1947-1982, the bulk occurring 1970-1980.

The records consist of departmental correspondence and memoranda, publications, photographs, biographical information on faculty of the college, news releases, and student papers. The records document the administration of the college, changes to curriculum, establishment of programs of study, visits to textile plants, and presentation of seminar programs and speakers.

Prominent correspondents, in addition to Trevillian and Efland, include Clemson University administrators and heads of the departments within the College (Rex Cottle, Economics; B. J. Todd, Industrial Management; C. C. Davis, Accountancy; Ed Vaughn, Textiles; and Ralph Elliott, Professional Development.)

For a complete listing of subjects and correspondents, please see the "Folder Inventory" that follows.
