

ROBERT F. POOLE    BIOGRAPHICAL AND COLLECTED MATERIALS    SERIES 9

Extent: .3 cu. ft.

Provenance: Office of the President

Access: Unrestricted

Processing: Dennis S. Taylor, University Archivist, August 1987

Description:

This series contains a variety of materials that relate to the life of Robert F. Poole. Included are lists of Poole's publications, a list of graduate students he advised during his career as associate professor at North Carolina State College, vitae and biographical sketches that appeared in biographical directories, and genealogical information about the Poole family. One item, a datebook kept by Poole in 1943, contains entries of his personal and office appointments; a register of guests is contained in the same folder. The series also contains clippings from newspapers that reported Poole's public addresses and remarks on various issues, his attendance at meetings and conferences, and his death and funeral. A number of memorial tributes paid to President Poole by Clemson College and service organizations are found within the series.

Please see the "Separation List" for a listing of photographs and other oversized materials.

Subject headings:

Clemson University--History
Clemson University--Office of the President
Clemson University--Presidents
Robert Franklin Poole 1893-1958

Folder inventory

Folder	Title
1	Collected biographical materials, 1917-1958
2	Newspaper clippings, 1940-1958
3	Datebook, 1943, and Guest Book, 1946-1954

Separation List

Oversize scrapbook, Joint Civilian Orientation Conference, 1953