Administrative History

- 1916 The Clemson "Y" took an active part in promoting some form of intramural sports. For years these activities were supervised by P. B. Holtzendorff and his staff. [1953-1954 YMCA Handbook, p. 86.]
- 1926 James G. Gee, Athletic Director and Head of the Department of Physical Education

- 1927 Fall of 1927 the Department of Physical Education was created as an administrative unit with four divisions: intercollegiate athletics, intramural athletics, required physical education and corrective gymnastics, and professional courses.
- 1932 Intramural athletics at Clemson were sponsored by the college YMCA. During the session 1932-1933, company sports were directed by George Fred Kirchner, Class of 1933. Under his guidance, sports were organized on a competitive basis between companies and battalions in inter-company sports. [1933-1934 YMCA Handbook, p. 105.]
- 1945 When [Fred] Kirchner went to Appalachian Teachers College as Physical Director in 1945, Joe Sherman directed the work for one year.
- 1946-1955 John Robert Roy Cooper was in charge of the intramural program.
- 1955-1956 The Department of Athletics directed all intramural sports. Before this time, the intramural program was operated jointly by the YMCA and the Athletic Association. [1955-1956 YMCA Handbook.]
- 1957-1970 Billy "Bill" Hugh Wilhelm was hired as head coach of baseball and director of intramural sports replacing Rock Norman (Absalom Willis "Rock" Norman).
- 1970-1985 Banks McFadden directed intramural activities under the sponsorship of the Department of Athletics. The intramural office and equipment room were relocated to Fike Field House.
- 1985-2004 James R. Pope, Jr. served as Intramural Director and Director of Campus Recreation
