

CONTAINER LIST

DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS

Box	Folder	Title
		Articles
1	1	"Liberty Corporation Found Home in South long ago," from The Greenville News – October 16, 1977
	2	"Liberty Life Making a Record for Progress," from The Greenville News – circa 1922
	3	Home Insurance Companies Magazine, advertising articles about Liberty & Southeastern Life Insurance Companies – 1933
	4	Home Insurance Companies Magazine, duplicate
		Boards & Presidents
	5	Board Members & Presidents of The Southeastern Life Insurance Company – 1905-1939
		Directors
	6	Directors of Liberty & Southeastern Life Insurance Companies – 1939-1970
		Field Agents
	7	Information on field agents William Kennedy and J. P. Smith – 1937-1957
		Furman University
	8	"Furman Alumni: Leaders in Many Fields," from The Greenville News – 1976
		Histories
	9	Brief histories celebrating 75th & 80th anniversaries of Liberty Life, with a chronology of Liberty's history, 1905-1978, 1980 & 1986
	10	"Early Developments of Life Insurance and Southeastern Life Insurance Company to 1930," by J. K. Davis – circa 1979
	11	Hipp Family History & Genealogy, 1749-1943 , by G.L.C. Hendrix – circa 1975
	12	Historical correspondence solicited by Robert Ritchie – 1969
	13	The Liberty Spirit: History of The Liberty Corporation 1905-1985 , by Doyle Boggs – 1986
	14	The Liberty Life Insurance Company, 1919-1953 , by Zane Knauss, 1979-1980, Comprehensive but incomplete, missing pages 1 & 90- , Chapters I, II, III
	15	IV & V
	16	VI & VII

17	VIII & IX
18	The Liberty Life Insurance Company – 1919-1930
19	Historical notes on development Southeastern & Liberty Life – 1905-1941
20	History and organization of The Liberty Life Insurance Company – 1942
21	History of The Southeastern Life Insurance Company, 1921-1941 , by J. K. Davis – 1979
22	History of WIS Radio & Television, So Rich A Heritage , by Louis Lang – 1969, Chapters I & II
23	III & IV
24	V, VI, VII
25	VIII
26	IX
27	X
28	XI
29	XII
30	XIII
2	31 XIV
32	XV & XVI
33	XVII
34	XVIII
35	XIX
36	XX
37	XXI
38	XXII
39	XXIII

Interview Notes

40	Agnew, Paul, J. K. Davis, and Harris Gravely – circa 1979
41	Hipp, Francis, and Herman Hipp – circa 1979
42	Hunt, Frank, and Roy Hunt – circa 1979
43	Lindsay, John, and C. Wallace Martin – circa 1979
44	McDonald, R. E., Mildred Merrill, and Mack Patton – circa 1979
45	Ritchie, Robert, and John & Martha Rivers – circa 1979
46	Robelot, Thomas, and Mary Olive Rude – circa 1979
47	Satterfield, W. M., and Robert Scales – circa 1979
48	Shafto, Richard – circa 1979

Knauss, Zane

49	Research Material – circa 1979 & 1980
----	---------------------------------------

Lists

50	Interviewees on tape and reference sources – circa 1979
----	---

Publications

- 51 Fiftieth Anniversary 1905-1955, Liberty Life Insurance Company – 1955
- 52 A Brief History: A Half Century of Service and Progress, Liberty Life Insurance Company – 1955
- 53 Financial Freedom For The Family, A Tribute to W. Frank Hipp, Man of Achievement, August 24, 1889 to January 3, 1943 – August 1943
- 54 Our New Home, Liberty Life Insurance Company – 1955
See The Liberty Spirit and So Rich A Heritage

Publication Material for The Liberty Spirit: History of The Liberty Corporation

- 55 Corrections, Editions, Production Schedules, Proofs, Part 1 – 1984-1985
- 56 Part 2
- 57 Distribution Information and Lists – 1986
- 58 Draft & Printing Proposals, with related memoranda – 1984-1985
- 59 Photograph Correspondence & Pictures-Taken List – 1985-1986
- 60 The State, Special 50th Anniversary Edition, 1930-1980

Releases

- 3 61 Taped Interviews, Information – 1979

Reports

- 62 “An Executive Summary on the Corporate Image of Liberty Life Insurance Company: An Analysis of Public Attitudes, Habits and Opinions” – May 1965
- 63 The Liberty Corporation Company Report – November, 1979 & “Long-Range Corporate Growth Program” report for Liberty Life Insurance Company – October 1965
- 64 Operations Committee Report, “The Thrift Series: A New Line of Debit Ordinary Insurance” – April, 1966

Research Material

- 65 Corporate Profiles and Shareholder Information – 1981-1982 & Disclosure Information on Publicly Owned – 1966-1972
- 66 The Liberty Corporation’s Corporate Contributions – 1983 & Liberty Life Insurance Sales and Management Strategies for Finance, Marketing, Teamwork, and Universal Life – 1974-1980
- 67 Press Releases, The Liberty Corporation – 1970-1984
- 68 Material about The Liberty Life Insurance Company, compiled by R. D. Ritchie – 1965 & 1969
- 69 Material about The Southeastern Life Insurance Company, compiled by J. K. Davis and R. D. Ritchie – 1969

Statements & Guarantees

- 70 The Southeastern Life Insurance Company – 1909-1915

Transcriptions of Interviews

- 71 Campanaro, Richard W., February 3, 1982, edited & complete
72 Davis, J. K., September 19, 1979, edited & complete
73 Hilliard, R. Glenn, February 2, 1982, edited & complete
74 Hipp, Francis, October 12, 1979, two copies: edited & unedited, both complete
75 Hipp, Herman, October 24, 1979, two copies: edited & incomplete to page 17, unedited & complete to page 30
76 Hunt, Roy, circa 1979, edited & complete & Maxwell, Len, and Jim
Athearn, circa 1979, shared, edited & complete
77 Merrill, Mildred, circa 1979, edited & incomplete to page 15
78 Rude, Mary Olive, circa 1979, two copies: edited & incomplete, unedited & complete
79 Satterfield, W. M., September 17, 1979, edited & incomplete
80 Scales, Robert, August 13, 1979, Part 1, Side A, edited & complete
81 Part 2, Side B, edited & incomplete

Transcripts

- 82 Meeting Minutes, Board and Finance, The Southeastern Life
Insurance Company – 1905 & 1907

Tributes

- 83 Boyd Calhoun Hipp, 1922-1976 – 1976

Typescripts

- 84 Draft history, The Liberty Spirit: History of The Liberty Corporation, by Doyle Boggs – 1984, Introduction & Prologue
85 Chapter One
4 86 Two
87 Three
88 Four
89 Five
90 Six
91 Notes
92 Revised draft history, The Liberty Spirit – 1984, Introduction & Prologue
93 Chapter One
94 Two
95 Three
96 Four
97 Five
98 Six
99 Notes
100 Pre-publication version, The Liberty Spirit – 1985, Cover, Title Pages,
Acknowledgements, Table of Contents, Preface, and Prologue
101 Chapter One
102 Two

103	Three
104	Four
105	Five
106	Six
107	Chronology, Notes, and Index
108	Pre-publication version corrections, The Liberty Spirit – 1985
109	Draft history of the Southeastern Life Insurance Company, by J. K. Davis – circa 1979
110	Draft M.A. Thesis, Mr. G. Richard Shafto: Influences On and Contributions To The Broadcasting Industry in South Carolina , by Ramanlal Mangaldas Modi – 1971, Table of Contents, Introduction (Chapter I), and Chapter II
111	III
112	IV
113	V & VI
114	Appendixes, Bibliography, and Proofreader Notes

CASSETTE TAPES

Box	Tape	Side	Title
1	1	A	South Carolina Insurance Commission Conversion with Gordon Henry concerning early Hipp family members to the Commission, possibly the first was John Calhoun Hipp. W. Frank served from 1930 to 1943 and Francis M. served from 1958 to 1970. The Commission presented an award to the Hipp family in 1978. Charles A. Batson – circa 1979 Conversation about radio and television acquisitions during his career with The Broadcasting Company of the South and Cosmos Broadcasting Corporation. Mentions Frank Blair and Frank McGee, they were early WIS announcers. End. Conversation with SC Insurance Commission representative about home-grown insurance businesses. End. Glenn Hilliard A short discussion concerning his work with Jack Lindsay, creating the papers which formed The Liberty Corporation, the proposed TLC-SCNB merger, and other legal business.
		B	James C. Self, Jr. – circa 1979. Short discussion concerning his father and grandfather's association with The Southeastern Life Insurance Company. His father, James Cuthbert, bought two shares of Southeastern stock on November 21, 1906. Questioned about J. H. Self, he indicates J. H. was his uncle. Mentions C. F. Haynsworth's long association with Southeastern Life. Confederate Museum Questions to, and answers from, John Martin about Col. Elliot Estes, co-founder of The Southeastern Life Insurance Company.
2		A	Harris P. Gravely – circa 1979. Conversation concerning his start with Liberty Life in 1951, his promotion to Controller, the initiation of an unprecedented internal controls and audit system, internal changes and restructuring, set up a strict accounting system with checks and balances, oversaw the change from the old master book cash accounting system to data processing, talks about Francis and Herman, and second- and third-generation executives.
		B	Harris Gravely continued He talks about retirement; personal achievement versus promotion or rewards from competition; and comments on the future of the company.
3		A	Detroit/Montreux Jazz, RCA Consumer Conversation Knauss' personal business conversations
		B	R. Glenn Hilliard – circa 1979. He describes various corporate subsidiaries, including: Hampton Insurance Companies, Incorporated, Market Advertising, Incorporated, Bent Tree Corporation, LPC of North Carolina, Incorporated, Spratlin Financial Corporation, First City Mortgage and United Fidelity, Charter

Fund and Fund Mortgage, and LaMarick Beauty Salons, Incorporated. Discusses his thoughts and feelings concerning the history and growth of The Liberty Corporation.

- 4 A Francis M. Hipp
This interview was transcribed, see Transcriptions of Interviews, DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS, Box 2, Folder 17. Recorded October 12, 1979, Hilton Head Island, SC. Francis discusses his thoughts and feelings concerning the history and growth of Liberty Life and The Liberty Corporation during his sixty-two-year career with the two companies.
- B Francis Hipp – continues
- 5 A Francis Hipp – continues
Mary Olive Rude
This interview was transcribed, see Transcriptions of Interviews, DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS, Box 2, Folder 22. Recorded October 24, 1979, Greenville, SC. Mary describes what it was like to work for W. Frank Hipp; the transition in leadership to Francis after Frank's death; and other historical and personal perspectives about the company.
- B Herman N. Hipp
This interview was transcribed, see Transcriptions of Interviews, DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS, Box 2, Folder 18. Recorded October 24, 1979, Greenville, SC. Herman discusses his thoughts and feelings concerning the history and growth of Liberty Life and The Liberty Corporation during his fifty-year career with the two companies.
- 6 A Herman Hipp – continues
 B G. Richard "Dick" Shafto
Discusses his long association with W. Frank Hipp; WIS, WIST, and the other company radio stations; histories of The South Carolina Broadcasting Company, The Broadcasting Company of the South, and Cosmos Broadcasting Corporation, including reasons for name changes, acquisitions, and the introduction of television; the growth of broadcasting over his fifty-year career in the business.
- 7 A Dick Shafto – continues
Discusses the five-year negotiation process for broadcasting rights to WSPA Spartanburg/Greenville conducted with Walter Brown, Roger Peace, Donald Russell, and Alester G. Furman, Jr.
- B Dick Shafto – continues
- 8 A Frank D. Hunt – circa 1979
Discusses his start with Liberty Life in 1933, just after Southeastern Life was acquired; had a B. S. degree in Commerce and was assigned a debit in Spartanburg around Milltown; organized the Personnel Department; and,

- as Agency Auditor, headed the Premium Accounting Department, the largest department at Liberty Life at that time.
- B Alex A. Kroeg – circa 1979
Discusses his start with Southeastern Life in Accounting and Underwriting in 1934; he played golf with W. Frank Hipp every afternoon before WWII; he left the company for awhile and rejoined Liberty Life's Group Sales in 1954; he retired in 1977. End.
- John I. Smith
Conversation concerning his activities on the State Development Board, his associations with Liberty Life, Southeastern Life, and The Liberty Corporation. End.
- Alester G. Furman, Jr.
Discussion concerning his connections with Liberty, Southeastern and The Liberty Corporation.
- 9 A Roy F. Hunt
This interview was transcribed, see Transcriptions of Interviews, DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS, Box 2, Folder 19. Recorded October 3, 1979, Poinsett Hotel, Greenville, SC. Roy discusses his thoughts about the history and growth of Liberty Life and The Liberty Corporation during his long career with the two companies.
- B Roy Hunt – continues
- 10 A Liberty Life, General Explanation – circa 1979-1981
A well-informed executive discusses the general management and sales philosophy of The Liberty Life Insurance Company. Poor audio quality. A note attached to the original tape reads: "Unable to transcribe this tape, 11/17/81." However, some parts of the tape are understandable.
- B Liberty Life, General Explanation – continues
Person being interviewed identifies himself as one of four executive vice-presidents with Liberty Life and that he heads the marketing division.
- 11 A Liberty Life #1, History – June 21, 22, 23, 1976
This tape, along with the three following tapes, contains detailed descriptive histories of Liberty and Southeastern Life from 1905 to the formation of The Liberty Corporation in 1968, and are narrated by Bo Moore. First, an introduction to the subject matter, i.e., what records are used, their relation to the subject, who created them, and where the records are located within the Liberty Life Building and The Liberty Corporation Archives; then, Southeastern Life from 1905 to 1929, and a biography of W. Frank Hipp from 1889 to 1919.
- B Liberty Life #1 – continues, Liberty Life from 1919 to 1932
- 12 A Liberty Life #2, History – June 24, 1976
Liberty Life and Southeastern Life from 1932 to 1941; the merger of Liberty Life and Southeastern Life in 1942; the death of W. Frank Hipp,

- and the transition in leadership in 1943 to and with Francis, Herman, and B. Calhoun Hipp.
- B Liberty Life #2 – continues, Liberty Life from 1942 to 1965
- 13 A Liberty Life #3, History – circa June 1976
This portion contains a history of Liberty Life from 1965 to 1968; broadcasting interests from 1931 to 1968; Surety Life and Southeastern Life from 1942 to 1968; and some information about Liberty Investors Benefit Insurance Company (LIBCO) from 1967 to 1968.
- B Liberty Life #3 – continues
The formation of The Liberty Corporation in 1968; information about the proposed Liberty Corporation - South Carolina National Bank (TLC-SCNB) merger; the Hipp brothers from 1943 to 1968; brings conclusion to the subject matter, i.e., summation of the material, weaknesses and gaps in the documentation, and recommendations for further research.
- 14 A Liberty Life #4, The Liberty Corporation Archives – circa June 1976
Here is recorded a description and an evaluation of The Liberty Corporation Archives. Quoting from Moore's narration, "it is intended to be a description of and guide to some of the more important materials in The Liberty Corporation Archives, as well as suggestions for adding additional material to those archives."
- B Blank
- 2 15 A Leonard A. Maxwell – circa 1979
This interview was transcribed, see Transcriptions of Interviews, DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS, Box 2, Folder 20. Len discusses his thoughts concerning the history and growth of Liberty Life and The Liberty Corporation, emphasizing communication's role as developer and disseminator of corporate information to the public.
James L. Athearn – circa 1979
This interview was transcribed, see Transcriptions of Interviews, DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS, Box 2, Folder 20. Jim discusses his work in communications and with the company in general.
- B C. Wallace Martin - Recorded c. 1979.
Conversation with Martin covering the time he managed and shared ownership in WIS Radio from 1947 to 1962.
- 16 A R.E. McDonald – circa 1980
McDonald talks about working for W. Frank Hipp, with H. Vogel, P. Agnew, and the Hipp brothers; insurance sales and receipts during the Depression; processing death claims and tracking missing persons; and other company memories during his long career with the company.
- B R.E. McDonald – continues
Discusses his social life with Hipp, Vogel, and Agnew; Hipp's first marriage; Hipp did things secretly for people they never knew about, yet he was close with his money and paid low salaries. Asked what he thought Hipp would have done with company had he lived, McDonald replied, "I don't think he could have taken it as far as Francis has."

Clint E. Edwards – circa 1980

Edwards started as an actuary with J. K. Davis in 1964; says Davis was Actuary for both Southeastern and Liberty until after WWII; Lucian Lee was hired about 1949, John Sloan and Bill Morrow joined later. Discusses insurance, mainly the differences between ordinary and debit sales; the process of writing new insurance policies; changed the old rating system based on skin color to one based on socioeconomic circumstances; and other insurance changes due to the times.

17 A Broadcasting Museum, Charleston
Patsy Hicken

Conversation with Hicken, Director of the Broadcasting Museum of Charleston, concerning biographies of Louis Burke and Fred Jordan. End.

W.W. McEachern

A short conversation with McEachern, President of South Carolina National Bank, about the bank holding company and his membership on the Liberty Life Board of Directors. Interrupted by another interview with Len Maxwell.

Leonard A. Maxwell – circa 1979

This is an additional conversation with Maxwell concerning his advertising and public relations work with Liberty.

B R.E. McDonald – circa 1979

This is an earlier interview with McDonald about work he did for W. Frank Hipp during the Depression, i.e., he picked up cash receipts from around South Carolina, delivering about $1,000 cash to Hipp every Saturday. W. Frank then put the cash in a wall safe. This was how Hipp had cash on-hand during the Depression. End. Short conversation with Martha Rivers, while waiting to interview John Rivers.

Walter Harper – circa 1979

Harper's recruitment as Director of the Board and his relationship with Ernest Hollings, Francis Hipp, James Self, and others; was head of the North Carolina State Commerce and Industry Division when recruited by Hollings and Hipp, and as a well-known, professional leader it was hoped he could generate and develop business activity for the state; was with the Board for seven and a half years – June, 1959 to January, 1967; discusses Hipp's vital role on the board and with Liberty, a key figure.

18 A Macon G. "Mack" Patton – circa 1980

Patton started working for Liberty on April 1, 1975. At the time of the interview he had been only with Liberty for five years. Discusses business activities of The Liberty Corporation, including insurance sales, radio and television broadcasting, and savings and loan; the purpose of life insurance speculating on the future of insurance as a product; broadcasting

- and increased investment costs; competition in the industry; family ownership and the balance between family and public interests; and the dramatic growth of the company since 1943 - $500,000 to several billion.
- B Mack Patton – continues
Discusses the future of the company; the ownership base within the Hipp family; and aspects of the corporation's history and growth.
- 19 A Mackie "Cactus" Quave – circa 1979
Quave discusses his start with Cosmos Broadcasting at WIS-Radio when FM aired in 1948 and his commercial work at the Columbia studios; places he lived and worked in the city have been razed; was the ESSO reporter before EXXON; wants to do a then and now documentary; people began their careers at the station, Roger Miller; talks about Francis Hipp.
Frank Harden
Harden talks about his involvement with WIS and WIST. He discusses FM frequency issues that were prevalent in South Carolina, but specifically how they effected WIS in Columbia and WIST in Charlotte.
- B Knauss – Personal conversations
- 20 A Robert D. Ritchie – August 8, 1979, Free Masonry Office, Greenville, SC
Ritchie discusses the history and growth of Liberty Life under W. Frank Hipp's leadership; describes Hipp's mental and physical abilities; and relates plans and actions they implemented for the company during their association.
- B Robert Ritchie – continues
Discusses life with Liberty after WWII, focusing on management styles of Francis and Herman compared with that of W. Frank.
- 21 A Blank
B Robert Ritchie – continues
Discussion returns to W. Frank, concentrating on his idiosyncrasies and how he dealt with the company and certain employees.
- 22 A Blank
B John & Martha Robinson Rivers – circa 1979
Conversation with Martha Rivers concerning a verbal agreement made with W. Frank Hipp in 1937 for her husband to buy WCSC in Charleston. John Rivers discusses the Jordan affair of 1942 and buyout; litigation with Santos who co-owned air time at WCSC with Jordan; and the unsigned memorandum – Hipp agrees to River's purchase of WCSC.
- 23 A W. M. Satterfield
This interview was transcribed, see Transcriptions of Interviews, DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS, Box 2, Folder 23. Recorded September 17, 1979, Greenville, SC. A discussion with the field agent who spent fifty-one years selling life insurance for Southeastern and Liberty Life

Insurance Companies. He talks about working a debit during the Depression when premiums were reduced to one and two cents a week; the change from debit to ordinary insurance after WWII, and other stories.

James K. Davis

This interview was transcribed, see Transcriptions of Interviews, DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS, Box 2, Folder 15. Recorded September 19, 1979, Greenville, SC. J.K. discusses his thoughts and feelings concerning the history and growth of Southeastern and Liberty Life.

B J. K. Davis – continues

24 A J. K. Davis – continues

Mildred Merrill

This interview was transcribed, see Transcriptions of Interviews, DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS, Box 2, Folder 21. Recorded October 3, 1979, Greenville, SC. This conversation is with the woman who served as secretary to both W. Frank and Francis Hipp, she relates her thoughts and feelings concerning their influence on the growth of Liberty Life.

B Mildred Merrill – continues

Thomas H. Robelot – September 17, 1979, Greenville, SC

Tom remarks on his more than forty years with Liberty Life. Asked why, at age twenty, he decided on an insurance career he replied: “I saw promotion potential in a close-knit, tightly-run organization, and I liked W. Frank Hipp.” He saw no indications that Francis or Herman were being groomed for leadership in the company, no one had titles to indicate position or rank, people were called what they did, Robelot did Mail & Supplies for a time.

25 A Thomas Robelot – continues

Discusses his thoughts and feelings concerning people, policies, history, and growth of the company during his career.

B Thomas Robelot – continues

26 A Robert R. Scales, Jr.

This interview was transcribed, see Transcriptions of Interviews, DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS, Box 2, Folders 24 & 25. Recorded August 13, 1979, Greenville, SC. This discussion is with the man who was legal counsel for Liberty Life Insurance Company and The Liberty Corporation for thirty-six years. Talks about the legal aspects of his work.

B Robert Scales – continues

Discusses his thoughts and feelings concerning the history and growth of insurance, broadcasting, and corporate entities of the business.

27 A Robert Scales – continues

Discusses how Francis became company president; W. Frank showed no favoritism; Scales took company cases to the Supreme Court three times in his career; Francis' management style compared to his father's; and company name changes with resultant policy lapses and adjustments.

B Robert Scales - interview continues

PHOTOGRAPHS

Box	Folder	Title
1	1	Board of Directors The Liberty Life Insurance Company – circa 1960
	2	Building Site New Home Office Building, The Liberty Life Insurance Company – 1953
	3	Executives The Liberty and Cosmos Broadcasting Corporations – circa 1970
	4	Francis M. Hipp, Herman N. Hipp, and Associates 1 Francis Hipp presenting an award – circa 1955 2 Francis and Herman Hipp with associates – circa 1955 3 Francis with associates – circa 1965
	5	The Liberty Life Insurance Company Agents and Activities 1 The Liberty Life Insurance Company 19th Anniversary Convention, Columbia, South Carolina – July 23, 1938 2 Liberty Life, Sales Meeting – circa 1955 3 Sales awards to Liberty Life agents, Jack Howorth (at left) and others – circa 1962 4 The 10,000th Liberty Life Accident & Health Policy, issued to client James F. Smith by E.E. “Jack” Baswell – 1962 5 Liberty Life, Agents – circa 1965 6 Liberty Life, Agent Training Meeting, T.R. Morris (with cigar) – circa 1965 7 T. R. Morris again – circa 1965 8 Liberty Life, Agent Training Meeting – circa 1965
	6	Office Pictures – Liberty Life 1 Offices and secretaries – circa 1950 2 Switch Board, New Home Office Building – circa 1955 3 Computer Room, New Home Office Building – circa 1955 4 Office personnel – circa 1965
	7	Model and Plans for The New Liberty Corporation Headquarters & Office and Residential Complex 1 Model of the New Liberty Corporation Headquarters – 1980 2 Plans for the New Liberty Corporation Office & Residential Complex – 1980
	8	Montgomery, Walter S. (1859-1929) Member, Board of Directors, The Southeastern Life Insurance Company – circa 1920
	9	Southeastern Life Insurance Company 1 Agents – circa 1915-1920, 1926
10	2	“Best Renewel Record” Trophy – circa 1920

- 11 Southeastern Life Insurance Company Building and Downtown Greenville, South Carolina
- 1 Construction of Southeastern Life Building, Main at Broad Streets,
Greenville, SC – circa 1914
 - 2 Postcard picture, Southeastern Life Building – circa 1915
 - 3 View of the Masonic Temple to the Southeastern Life Building, downtown Greenville – circa 1925
 - 4 The Southeastern Life Building, Greenville, circa 1930.
 - 5 The Imperial Hotel and Auto Storage Company, downtown
Greenville – circa 1935
- 12 Southeastern Life Insurance Company Building with Employees – circa 1915
- 13 Southeastern Life Cartoon
Depicts the move from Spartanburg to Greenville – 1915
- 14 Southeastern Life Certificate of Insurance, H.R. Gudmundson – 1922
- 15 W. Frank Hipp, Founder & President of Liberty Life – circa 1941
- 16 H. L. Vogel and C. H. Goldsmith, Office Party – circa 1950
- 17 WIS-TV, studio & editing – circa 1978
- 18 The Liberty Spirit: History of The Liberty Corporation
Photographs used during production, not printed in final version.
- 1 Anderson's Mill
 - 2 Cosmos Broadcasting studio
 - 3 Ezell Hardware, Spartanburg – 1905
 - 4 Three GIs – 1944
 - 5 John Harris & family
 - 6 Hoechst Fiber Industries, Spartanburg – 1978
 - 7 Mill village house – 1912
 - 8 Mill village house – 1913
 - 9 Mill workers checking cloth, Pacolet Mills – 1925
 - 10 Mill workers & supervisors – 1902
 - 11 Morgan Family Leaves Farm – 1941
 - 12 Negro tenant farmhouse – 1913
- 19 Photographs used during production, printed in final version.
- 1 Trade Street in Spartanburg – circa 1912
 - 2 Main Street, downtown Greenville, turn of the century – circa 1900
 - 3 Inman Mill – circa 1920
 - 4 Cloth Room workers, Saxon Mill – 1925
 - 5 Baseball team representing textile mill in Arcadia – circa 1926
 - 6 Students in front of their cotton mill village school – circa 1920
 - 7 Mill workers & supervisors – circa 1919 (Note indicates 1902 date.)
 - 8 The State, reprint of July 10, 1930 edition commemorating WIS
Radio's Golden Anniversary – 1980
 - 9 Farmer standing in cotton field, near Woodruff – 1931

- 10 Working the fields, with tractor and mules, near Woodruff – 1936
 - 11 Robert Hickman, News Director & Anchor, WIS-TV – circa 1965
 - 12 Bowaters Carolina Corporation Plant, Catawba - circa 1960
- Graphic Art used during production and printed in final version.
- 1 Plaque, “Members of the $500,000,000.00 Club Liberty Life Insurance Company”
 - 2 Graph, Cosmos Broadcasting Properties
 - 3 Logos, WIS-TV 10 Columbia
 - 4 Cosmos Broadcasting Corporation
 - 5 Palmetto & Crescent
 - 6 “Have a Good Life”

SEPARATION LIST

Item Title

Oversize Photographs

- 1 Three items, all photographs, two of The Southeastern Life Insurance Building with Agents and Employees and one of Standings of Agents year-to-date.