Series 1: Outgoing Correspondence, 1890-1918, undated

Extent: 5.0 cubic feet

This series is composed primarily of correspondence of a political and business nature. Included are letters to constituents regarding job requests and appointments, letters to his son, Ben Tillman, Jr., about the family farm at Trenton, SC, and correspondence with various political leaders, such as Presidents Woodrow Wilson and William Howard Taft, Congressman A. Frank Lever, Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, Congressman James F. Byrnes, South Carolina Governor Cole Blease, US Senators Morris Sheppard, Key Pittman, George C. Perkins, Elihu Root, W. E. Chandler, and John Gary Evans, Circuit Solicitor J. William Thurmond, and Assistant Secretary for the Navy, Franklin D. Roosevelt. There are many letters to President Wilson on appointments, recommendations, and bills in Congress. Tillman's correspondence with President Walter Merritt Riggs of Clemson College concerns both personal matters and information about Clemson's operations. There is also correspondence to the South Carolina delegation regarding the alleged bribery in the 1913 congressional election. The manuscript processors' notes identify the location of many prominent correspondents.

The papers are arranged in strictly chronological order, with the majority being from the period 1912-1918. The box and folder numbers in parentheses after some date ranges indicate the box and folder numbers for the series prior to reprocessing. At the end of the series are several folders of undated items and fragments of letters. There are also three letterpress volumes of Tillman's outgoing correspondence, one dating from 1894 and the other from 1899-1902.
