Each year, Clemson awards financial aid in the form of grants, scholarships, loans and part-time employment to more than 20,000 students. (UG Only: 17,874; all: 20,125)

Eighty-three percent of entering first-year students received some type of financial aid in 2021-2022.

Forty-nine percent of first-year students received an institutional recruiting scholarship, Fall 2021.

Ninety-nine percent of first-time in-state students receive state scholarships.

A majority of Clemson's graduates (52 percent) have no debt compared to the state (40 percent) and national (45 percent) averages.

The three-year default rate for Clemson borrowers entering repayment in FY2018 was 1.7 percent. This compares with the national cohort default rate of 7.3 percent.

In Fall 2021, in-state first-year students paid an average 36 percent of tuition and fees.

Clemson by the Numbers (Professional Development)

95 percent of recent graduates are confident their resume shows marketable skills and experiences.

90 percent of recent graduates feel prepared to interview for jobs and further educational opportunities.

83 percent of recent graduates say they have/had a strategy for landing a job upon graduation or gaining admission to graduate/professional schools.

72 percent of graduates completing a bachelor's degree completed participation in one experiential education opportunity (co-op, internship, student teaching, nursing practicum, etc.). Fifty-nine percent completed two or more. (Class of 2019-2020)

Within an average of six months after graduation, 89 percent of graduates are employed, continuing or planning to continue their education or are not currently seeking employment.

Within an average of six months after graduation, 62 percent of recent graduates are employed full time.

Forty-six percent of recent graduates remain in South Carolina. The top four other U.S. states are North Carolina (10.25 percent), Georgia (7.36 percent), Virginia (3.32 percent) and Florida (3.01 percent).

Eighty-one percent of co-op graduation candidates in May 2021 had already accepted a full-time position at a company or had been accepted into graduate school. Within a month after graduation, that figure grew to 85 percent.

Clemson has one of the largest voluntary co-op programs in the U.S. The program set historic highs for enrollment eight years in a row.

Students who do a co-op or internship are 20 percent more likely to have a full-time offer at graduation than their peers who do not.

About 20 percent of Clemson undergraduates go on to graduate or professional school.

Five years after graduation, Clemson undergraduates earn $13,000 more on average than their peers from comparable schools.

About 75 percent of co-ops & interns receive full-time offers from their employers (and about half of these students accept such offers).

Clemson University

Clemson University (general)

One of the most productive public research universities in the nation, Clemson University attracts and powerfully unites students and faculty whose greatest desire is to make a difference in the lives of others. Ranked among the best national public universities by U.S. News & World Report, Clemson is dedicated to teaching, research and service. Our main campus, located in Upstate South Carolina, sits on 1,400 acres in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, along the shores of Lake Hartwell. We have a presence in every South Carolina county through research facilities, economic development hubs and innovation campuses. Through the research, outreach and entrepreneurial projects led by our faculty and students, Clemson University is driving economic development and improving quality of life in South Carolina and beyond. For more information, go to clemson.edu or visit us on Facebook, Instagram or Twitter.

Let's begin/significance branding

Significance is the basic human need to matter to others, to our community and ultimately to the world. When we live a life with significance as a core value, we appreciate and honor the contributions of each individual and ultimately honor the community, state, country and world we live in. Clemson University's brand gives fresh voice to our stories of significance. let's begin® applies to our shared journey, that of the singular person, and the collective's engagement with our institution. It provides a creative framework for personifying our deeds and our actions, giving all of us the ability to clearly, consistently and specifically communicate the core and intentionally humble idea that what we say will never be as important as what we do.

Clemson location

Clemson University is located in Upstate South Carolina. Main campus sits on 1,400 acres in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, along the shores of Lake Hartwell. Midway between Atlanta, Georgia, and Charlotte, North Carolina, Clemson offers students the convenience of a small town with easy access to the attractions found in major cities. In addition, the University has a presence in every South Carolina county through research facilities, economic development hubs and innovation campuses. For more information, go to clemson.edu or visit us on Facebook, Instagram or Twitter.

Clemson Family

The Clemson Family is how we describe our goal-oriented community drawn together by one common thread: the desire to use our gifts to build others up. Clemson students, faculty and staff are instantly plugged into a network of leaders and mentors in a variety of industries, all of whom are willing and interested in lending a hand to their fellow Tigers. See what's new with the Clemson Family at clemson.edu, or visit us on Facebook, Instagram or Twitter.

Spirit and traditions

Join the Clemson Family, and you join a tradition of tremendous spirit. The heartfelt pride Clemson students, faculty, staff and alumni share is magnified every time they return to campus. Memories of afternoons spent playing on Bowman Field with friends, breakthroughs in challenging courses and Saturdays cheering on the Tigers in Death Valley are among the many moments you'll cherish long after graduation. Get a glimpse of the Clemson Spirit on our Instagram.

Land-grant mission

Clemson University fulfills its land-grant mission to be “a high seminary of learning” to develop “the main material resources of the State” for the people of South Carolina by attracting world-class researchers, building state-of-the-art facilities and providing scholarships for in-state students. United in the pursuit of this vision, Clemson and its strategic partners collaborate to move South Carolina's people and industries forward.

Military heritage

Clemson's proud tradition of military excellence dates back to its founding as a military school for cadets seeking the highest academic excellence. In 1916, ROTC was instituted under the National Defense Act, and in 1917 the entire senior class enlisted in World War I. To date, more than 10,000 Clemson men and women have served in the U.S. armed forces. We are humbled by their courage, grateful for their sacrifice and committed to serving them well as they earn their degree or begin a new career on campus.

Division of Undergraduate Studies

Division of Undergraduate Studies

The Division of Undergraduate Studies exists to promote the academic success of all Clemson University undergraduate students using a variety of support services, strategies and programs. clemson.edu/undergraduate-studies

Academic Success Center

Located at the heart of campus near the Cooper Library and Watt Family Innovation Center, the ASC helps students significantly improve their grades and maintain their academic scholarships through a better understanding of difficult class material. The free services available here include Peer-Assisted Learning, academic coaching and tutoring. Students also seek out the ASC for success strategy workshops and quiet study group areas.

clemson.edu/asc

Center for Career and Professional Development

The Center for Career and Professional Development matches students' talents and interests with internships, networking opportunities and real-world experiences — all designed to help them land that first job, pursue graduate programs and more. This includes career workshops, on-campus interviewing, experiential education opportunities (co-op program and internship programs) and others. The Center is located in a state-of-the-art facility on the third floor of the Hendrix Student Center. The Center was created through the merger of the Cooperative Education Program and The Michelin Career Center. In addition, the UPIC Program was created to manage and facilitate our extensive on-campus internship and cooperative education program. career.sites.clemson.edu. // At the Center for Career and Professional Development you'll find a variety of partnerships designed to empower and employ students, such as the University Professional and Internship Co-op (UPIC) program, which provides access to paid internships on campus. This is also where you can take a career assessment, perfect your resume and practice mock interviews. career.sites.clemson.edu

UPIC / Center for Career and Professional Development

The UPIC program offers more than 900 paid, on-campus internships to students working alongside faculty and staff in their field of interest. career.sites.clemson.edu/internship\_programs/UPIC\_program/students

The Office of Teaching Effectiveness and Innovation

The Office of Teaching Effectiveness and Innovation (OTEI) is, first and foremost, a safe haven for all members of the Clemson University teaching community to come to discuss any issues related to teaching, career development, faculty review preparation and teaching-related scholarship. OTEI aims to provide instructors, departments and colleges with training and resources that will enhance their teaching methods and positively influence student outcomes. clemson.edu/otei

The Rutland Institute of Ethics

The programs and activities of the Rutland Institute are multidisciplinary and seek to benefit the campus and the community. Campus activities focus on students, faculty and staff. Community programs are designed to reach the entire community, with special attention directed to the business, education and professional sectors. The principal academic partner of the Rutland Institute is the Clemson University Department of Philosophy & Religion. clemson.edu/ethics

Student Accessibility Services

Aligned with Clemson University's commitment to diversity, SAS envisions a welcoming campus that is readily usable and accessible by students with varied characteristics, strengths and challenges. With mentors and coaches, the University and SAS strive to provide access that is proactive, sustainable, equitable and inclusive to the widest population possible. clemson.edu/academics/studentaccess

FIRST Program

The FIRST Program helps ensure success for students who are the first in their family to attend college by offering a variety of opportunities and resources, from academic support to social activities. New first-year and transfer students are invited to apply, and participation continues throughout a student's time at Clemson. clemson.edu/academics/programs/first

Bridge and Transfer Student Services

The Bridge program is an innovative transfer program that allows accepted students to enroll in Tri-County Technical College for their first year and start their coursework at Clemson University during the following fall semester. Community living is one of the most important experiences for a first-year college student. That's why Bridge students live on campus at Clemson University during their Bridge year and are provided with an array of advising services to facilitate their seamless transfer into Clemson University at the beginning of their sophomore year. clemson.edu/admissions/bridge

Academics – Undergraduate

Academics - general

Clemson students enter degree programs that connect their personal goals with professional opportunities. Through rigorous academics and excellent academic support, Clemson students master the concepts they need to understand and gain the skills required to successfully enter 21st-century workplaces and communities. Explore our majors on clemson.edu/degrees.

Academics - general

Internationally recognized faculty members, top-tier students and abundant opportunities for meaningful research in both undergraduate and graduate degree programs confirm that Clemson University is the “high seminary of learning” its founder hoped for. At Clemson, a diverse group of researchers are driven by a shared purpose: using their unique gifts to create lasting impact and discover solutions for the world's most pressing issues. Learn more at clemson.edu.

Academics - research (undergraduate)

Each year, more than 4,600 undergraduate students at Clemson work together with peers, graduate students and faculty mentors on research projects that ignite their interests. From mass timber to microbe diversity in coastal ecosystems and even genetics, Clemson students dive into research projects across a variety of disciplines as early as the first year.

Academics - research (graduate)

Clemson University connects graduate and postdoctoral students with industry partners, government officials and state-of-the-art facilities to conduct research that solves the world's pressing problems and moves industry forward. Clemson graduate students are provided with exclusive academic resources, personalized mentorship and the opportunity to share their passion with undergraduate students. When you choose to research at Clemson, you become a powerful contributor to the Clemson Family, the state of South Carolina and the world.

College of Agriculture, Forestry and Life Sciences

The College of Agriculture, Forestry and Life Sciences conducts game-changing research designed to enhance quality of life, improve health, sustain the environment and stimulate the economy. Curricula explores plant, animal, human, molecular and packaging sciences and builds upon Clemson’s world-class academic, research and extension activities to produce scientific discoveries of global significance and graduates prepared to be leaders in their chosen fields. clemson.edu/cafls

College of Architecture, Arts and Humanities

The College of Architecture, Arts and Humanities is centered on transformative education, knowledge development and creative expression. This college offers a wide range of academic and professional programs — from visual and performing arts to design and building disciplines to humanities. Students, faculty and staff collaboratively work to anticipate and meet the needs of rapidly changing local, regional, national and global environments. clemson.edu/caah

College of Behavioral, Social and Health Sciences

The College of Behavioral, Social and Health Sciences (CBSHS) is a 21st-century land-grant college that combines work in seven disciplines — communication; nursing; parks, recreation and tourism management; political science; psychology; public health sciences; and sociology, anthropology and criminal justice — to further its mission of “building people and communities” in South Carolina and beyond. clemson.edu/cbshs

The Wilbur O. and Ann Powers College of Business

The The Wilbur O. and Ann Powers College of Business transforms students into leaders, entrepreneurs and innovators who are prepared to flourish within the global marketplace of ideas. Through immersive education, research and outreach programs that are globally competitive and committed to economic and social advancements, students become empowered, market-ready leaders, poised to shape the future. Education and research in the the Wilbur O. and Ann Powers College of Business is focused on human behavior and business practices in organizations, economies and societies. clemson.edu/business

College of Education

The College of Education is committed to improving education, beginning at birth. With a focus on serving underperforming schools and underserved communities, the College has award-winning programs that train teachers, counselors and school leaders for P-12 schools; prepare counselors for community practice; train higher education student affairs leaders; and prepare training and development specialists for business and industry. There are 14 undergraduate teacher education programs leading to certification, from early childhood, elementary and secondary to agricultural and special education.

The College of Education also houses

- the nationally acclaimed Call Me MISTER® program,
- the Charles H. Houston Center for the Study of the Black Experience in Education
- and three S.C. Centers of Excellence — the Center of Excellence for Digital Media and Learning, the Center of Excellence for Innovation in Mathematics and Science and the Center for the Recruitment and Retention of Diverse Educators. clemson.edu/education

College of Engineering, Computing and Applied Sciences

The College of Engineering, Computing and Applied Sciences educates, creates and disseminates new knowledge, and engages students in critical thinking — thereby inspiring the innovations of tomorrow, leading to transformative economic development and broadening Clemson’s impact as a land-grant university. The structure of the College encourages cross-disciplinary collaboration and provides experiential learning opportunities where students transfer academic knowledge from the classroom to hands-on application in everyday environments. clemson.edu/cecas

College of Science

The College of Science pursues excellence in scientific discovery, learning and engagement that is both locally relevant and globally impactful. The life, physical and mathematical sciences converge to tackle some of tomorrow’s scientific challenges, and our faculty are preparing the next generation of leading scientists. The College of Science offers high-impact transformational experiences such as research, internships and study abroad to help prepare our graduates for top industries, graduate programs and health professions. clemson.edu/science

Admissions

With 80+ undergraduate degree programs to choose from in seven colleges, 500+ clubs and organizations and limitless undergraduate research opportunities available through the Creative Inquiry undergraduate research program, students are sure to find a path to pursue their passion here. Learn more about applying to Clemson by visiting our Admissions page. clemson.edu/admissions

Office of Global Engagement

Clemson Abroad

Each year, hundreds of Clemson students expand their horizons by studying abroad. You can live, work and study in numerous locations around the globe through faculty-led, third-party and exchange programs. Students in a variety of majors have opportunities at the Archbold Center in Dominica; the Daniel Center in Genoa, Italy; the Clemson University Brussels Center in Belgium; and numerous other locations around the globe. clemson.edu/studyabroad

Watt Family Innovation Center

Creative Inquiry

This world-class undergraduate research program, housed in the Watt Family Innovation Center, is open to every Clemson student and gives students hands-on experiences that often inform their future career paths. Faculty mentors lead team-based investigations where students take the lead on innovative discoveries that help them stand out when applying to jobs and graduate schools. At the end of a CI, it's not uncommon for students to find themselves traveling internationally or presenting their findings at national conferences. clemson.edu/ci

Watt Family Innovation Center

This state-of-the-art environment for teaching and research hallows students to develop virtual and augmented reality applications in the Immersive Space; take ideas from concept to prototype using 3D printers in the Makerspace; and receive instant feedback from professional business mentors through the Design & Entrepreneurship Network.

Clemson University Honors College

Clemson University Honors College

More than 1,500 of Clemson's most academically competitive students belong to our Clemson University Honors College. Specialized courses, smaller classes taught by top faculty and a diverse range of innovative learning experiences both on and off campus challenge honors students to push boundaries. Along with global engagement and groundbreaking research, the honors program provides individualized funding for internships and professional development.

Nearly 1,500 of Clemson's most academically competitive students call our Clemson University Honors College home. The Honors College combines the strengths of a public, land-grant university with those of a highly selective small college. Outstanding students take specialized courses taught by our best professors and participate in a wide range of innovative learning experiences on campus, across the nation and around the world.

Campus Life

A walk across Clemson's campus transports visitors from rolling hills to Death Valley and just beyond to Lake Hartwell. The sound of the carillon bells ringing greets those within earshot of Tillman Hall, and often, the sight of an orange and purple sunset signals the end of a day spent in Clemson. Get a glimpse of campus life on our Instagram.

Housing & Dining

Living on campus

All of Clemson's 22 residence halls and five apartment complexes are within a 15-minute walk to class or downtown. Be sure to check out our 15 nationally recognized Living-Learning Communities, where undergraduates with common academic interests and life experiences share residence hall space, staff, programming and resources dedicated specifically to them. ### First-year housing

Take a virtual tour of first-year communities located across campus. Choices include suite-style living in the center of campus, traditional high-rises on the Bryan Mall and the new Douthit Hills East Neighborhood. housing.clemson.edu

Douthit Hills

Home to seven residence halls for first-year students, sophomores and upperclassmen, the Douthit Hills community is divided into East and West neighborhoods, and tucked between them is the Hub, where a variety of dining options, the campus bookstore, fitness center and open and inviting gathering spaces live. ## Athletics

Athletics programs

As a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Clemson boasts 19 NCAA athletic teams. Admission to regular-season events played on campus is included in University fees for full-time students, including football, basketball, soccer, baseball, cross-country, track and field, golf, volleyball, tennis and rowing.
