Find Articles & Reviews
Search for articles in some of these suggested databases. Do a Keyword search on either the director’s name or the title of the film. You could do searches for: walter salles or motorcycle diaries. Many of the search terms that would work in the Clemson Libraries Catalog will also work in the article databases.

Film and Television Literature Index (1950- present)

Communication & Mass Media Complete (coverage varies – some journals back to early 1900s)
Includes full-text journal: Studies in Hispanic Cinema (03/01/2004 to present)

MLA International Bibliography - literature, language, linguistics, rhetoric, composition, some film, and folklore, (1926-present)

Lexis-Nexis – links here directly to find book, movie, music, play & video reviews in major newspapers

Some Websites
“Movies” or “Awards & Prizes” from“Quick Reference” on our Libraries website: - includes Internet Movie Database & others

Latin American Network Information Center pages on “Cinema” from the University of Texas– covers all countries in Latin America – includes film festival information & more

Find DVDs & Music CDs
To find DVDs and videos in the Catalog, go to the “Advanced Search” tab at the top, do an “Any Keyword” search on the item’s country of origin, then do “Choose Limits” from the drop-down menus, choose “Location – Cooper Media Svcs” and “Language – Spanish”, for example (or any language you want from the list). The search should find both DVDs & VHS tapes, as well as CD recordings, if any.

To find music CDs, do a Keyword search from the “Basic Search” screen, adding the format. Examples: ginastera compact disc; celia cruz compact disc
