

Clemson University Statement regarding IG Review:

Clemson University will cooperate fully with the Inspector General's review. We are confident the review will confirm that Clemson acted appropriately.

We entered into no transactions or agreements for this project and ended all engagement on a potential research park with the Newry Development in November 2024. We have shared information about our involvement, making records publicly available on our website.