

Clemson University Statement – April 2, 2026

Clemson University appreciates the thorough and professional work conducted by the Office of Inspector General in reviewing this matter. We are pleased the report found no violations of law or University policy.

Clemson remains committed to transparency, continuous improvement and upholding the highest standards of integrity and will carefully review the recommendations outlined in the report to implement appropriate measures that enhance operations moving forward.