

Department TPR and PTR Documents Routing Sheet Requirements based on 2021-2022 Faculty Manual

In accordance with the Faculty Manual, each department's TPR document must be approved by the regular departmental faculty, department chair, college dean, and Provost (Chapter V,D1d).

This document is intended to support the documentation of the required approvals.

Clemson University Department of Mechanical Engineering Guidelines, Criteria, and Procedures for Appointment, Tenure, Promotion, and Reappointment

Article I: Appointment Procedures

Section 1: General Procedures for tenured / tenure track or lecturer appointments

When a new or replacement tenured /tenure-track or lecturer faculty position has been approved, the Department Chair shall initiate a search process. The Chair will appoint an ad hoc Faculty Search Committee to prepare the advertisement, to review and screen applications, to check references, to make recommendations for on-campus interviews, to be actively involved in interviews, and to compile information and recommendations from department faculty regarding interviewees. The chair of the ad hoc Faculty Search Committee shall be responsible for overseeing advertising the position, communicating with applicants and arranging for interviews. At all stages of the search, Department faculty will have access to the credentials of each applicant. Appointment will conform to University policies governing position searches, hiring, and other personnel matters.

The Department Chair shall make recommendations to the Dean from the candidates selected to interview by the Faculty Search Committee.

Section 2: Tenured / Tenure Track Faculty

The Department Tenure, Promotion, and Reappointment Committee must review any consideration for an appointment in rank beyond the Assistant Professor level, appointment with tenure, or appointment with tenure probationary periods of two years or less prior to the appointment. The Tenure, Promotion, and Reappointment Committee shall render a written opinion to the Department Chair regarding the appropriate rank for appointment and tenure recommendations and this information shall be forwarded to the Dean of the College prior to appointment.

Section 3: Lecturers

Lecturers and Senior Lecturers will possess a minimum of a MS degree consistent with the normal disciplines that are associated with the Mechanical Engineering Department and qualifications in the research field consistent with expectations of rank. Following a search for a lecturer position, the search committee shall provide recommendations to the Chair. The Chair shall make appointments for these personnel actions. The appointment terms are consistent with the Faculty Manual and documented in the appointment letter.

Section 4: Other Special Rank Faculty

When any other new or replacement faculty position (other than regular faculty or lecturer) has been approved, the sponsoring faculty member shall initiate a search process. If the position is to be funded by University funds (as opposed to research grant funds), the Department Chair shall be considered to be the sponsoring faculty member. The sponsoring faculty member will consult with the Departmental Advisory committee regarding the need for an ad hoc search committee. The sponsoring faculty member or ad hoc Faculty Search Committee will prepare the advertisement, review and screen applications, check references, make recommendations for on-campus interviews, be actively involved in interviews, and compile information and recommendations from relevant department faculty regarding interviewees. The sponsoring faculty member or chair of the ad hoc Faculty Search Committee shall be responsible for overseeing advertising the position, communicating with applicants and arranging for interviews. Appointment will conform to University policies governing position searches, hiring, and other personnel matters.

Section 5: Adjunct Faculty

The initial application of appointment as an "Adjunct Faculty" member is consistent with the Clemson University Faculty Manual.

Article II: Reappointment, Promotion and Tenure Procedures

Section 1: Review Overview for All Faculty

Each faculty member eligible for review shall be given an opportunity for review in accordance with the Clemson University Faculty Manual. The Department uses the criteria and materials specified in this document in its review for Reappointment, Promotion, and Tenure. The University schedule for the reappointment, promotion, and tenure process deadlines will be made available at the start of each academic year.

Peer review for reappointment, promotion and/or tenure will be conducted through the Department Tenure, Promotion and Reappointment Committee. The Committee shall be appointed per this document. The function of the Committee is to (1) serve as an advocate for the faculty candidate in reappointment, tenure, and promotion considerations, (2) determine if the candidate meets the established criteria for reappointment, tenure, or promotion consistent with the expectations, goals and vision of both the Department and College, and (3) report the recommendation of the Committee to the Dean of the College. The Department Chair shall render a separate and independent recommendation and forward this to the Dean of the College. After the Dean of the College has received the recommendations of the TPR Committee and the Department Chair, the recommendation are shared between the parties. The Department Chair will ensure that the faculty member under review has read and understands the recommendations both of the Committee and of the Chair and certifies this by signature.

Section 2: Committee Structure

Faculty who are subject to post-tenure mediation are not eligible for service on TPR committees.

The committee membership will be composed of five (5) full professors with primary appointment in ME for tenure, reappointment and/or promotion review. All full professors will be required to be on the ballot which will list the discipline groups (Applied Mechanics, Design and Manufacturing, Dynamic Systems and Controls, Thermal Fluid Sciences) of the candidates. If a full professor has been given time off from committee work by the ME Department Chair due to a sabbatical, FMLA, imminent retirement or other personnel reasons, this will be noted by the ME Department Chair and that individual(s) will be removed from the ballot. The regular primary faculty of the department must elect, by secret ballot, the members of the TPR committee at a faculty meeting. Each faculty member will select their top five (5) picks so that each discipline group has received at least one vote on their ballot. The four (4) full professors receiving the highest number of votes in each discipline group will serve on the committee; the fifth member will be the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes on the ballots regardless of the discipline group. Any ties will be broken by a runoff secret ballot. This election should take place in March to allow the new committee time to deal with intent to submit actions by candidates going up for tenure and/or promotion in the fall.

In the case that the department does not elect enough regular faculty with primary appointments in Mechanical Engineering to constitute a TPR committee, additional members shall be nominated by the Department Chair and elected by a simple majority of the regular primary members of the faculty. The Department Chair may not serve on this committee. The committee chair shall be appointed by the department chair from the faculty elected.

When a lecturer is being considered for reappointment or promotion to senior lecturer or a senior lecturer is being considered for reappointment, the committee will be augmented by all senior and principal lecturers in the department serving in an advising capacity. When a senior lecturer is being considered for promotion to principal lecturer or a principal lecturer is being considered for reappointment, the committee will be augmented by all principal lecturers in the department serving in an advising capacity.

In the case of other special faculty, the TPR committee may request the advice of one or more appropriately ranked faculty member(s), upon recommendation of the TPR chair.

Section 3: Request for Review and Committee Procedures for All Faculty

Each faculty member requiring or desiring consideration for reappointment, promotion and/or tenure shall offer a written request to the Department Chair by the request deadline. The Department Chair will notify the Committee Chair to initiate the formal review. The faculty member under review is obliged to deliver the supporting materials by the deadlines stated in the schedule for the appropriate review request. The Committee will evaluate the review materials and seek additional materials as needed, including external referee reviews. At the conclusion of its review, the Committee will provide a written independent recommendation to the Dean regarding the requested review. The recommendation will be based on the majority vote of the Committee. This recommendation document will bear the signatures of Committee members.

Following a Lecturer's fourth year of service, the Chair and TPR committee shall conduct a comprehensive review of the lecturer in response to either a request for promotion or to advise the lecturer with respect to progress towards promotion to Senior Lecturer. Equivalent experience at Clemson may be considered toward the four-year service requirement at the written request of the faculty member and agreement by the TPR Committee. Annual reappointment reviews will occur for the Lecturer each year until the Lecturer is granted promotion or completes their ninth year of service. If a lecturer fails to achieve promotion to senior lecturer within eight years of service, the lecturer shall not be reappointed following a ninth year of service. Each Lecturer may only request promotion in writing.

Senior Lecturers must request reappointment in the second year of each three-year appointment. Principal Lecturers must request reappointment in the fourth year of each five-year appointment.

The Committee does not evaluate the performance of tenured faculty on an annual basis. Faculty seeking promotion or early tenure must submit their request and supporting materials to the Department Chair by the appropriate published deadlines.

The Tenure, Promotion, and Reappointment Committee shall conduct its business in accordance with the following general procedures.

- 1) All members of the Tenure, Promotion, and Reappointment Committee will have access to the Portfolio and supporting materials supplied by the faculty member under review (heretofore referred to as the "Candidate"). Each Committee member will be expected to review the Candidate's Portfolio prior to deliberations.
- 2) One member of the Committee will be selected to act as Advocate for the Candidate by the Committee members. The Advocate will organize information and prepare materials for Committee deliberations. The Advocate will review supporting materials to ensure these are consistent with the information in the Portfolio. The Advocate will lead discussions relative to the requested action(s). The other Committee members are expected to critique the case consistent with their evaluation of the supporting materials.
- 3) External referees are required for both tenure and promotion actions. A qualified external referee is someone knowledgeable of the candidate's field, has a distinguished record in a related field, and has the necessary and relevant experience to offer opinion regarding the suitability of the requested action(s).
 - a. The candidate should compile and provide to the TPR Committee a list of at least five persons from outside the University as suggested external evaluators (close former associates such as dissertation advisors are not to be included). The list must include at least three names with whom the candidate has not collaborated.
 - b. These external evaluators must be able to evaluate the quality of a faculty member's scholarship. For each suggested evaluator, give his or her name, title, address, phone number, e-mail address, why that person should be considered an appropriate external evaluator of the faculty member's performance, and a description of the candidate's relationship to the suggested evaluator.
 - c. The Advocate will identify appropriate external referees and coordinate

- their contact with the Committee Chair.
- d. The TPR Committee may solicit evaluations from any name on the list submitted by the candidate and must independently solicit at least two additional external evaluations from persons not on the candidate's list.
- e. The review for tenure and/or promotion to Associate Professor must include at least four external peer evaluations with at least two chosen from the candidate's list. The review for promotion to Professor must include at least six external peer evaluations with at least three chosen from the candidate's list. All letters that have been gathered will be included in the final package.
- f. External referees will be sent the Candidate's curriculum vitae and samples of scholarly work. Upon request of the external reviewer and with the consent of the candidate, additional material may be provided to the external reviewer. 'The candidate should provide to the TPR Committee sufficient access to at least three refereed journal articles (candidate's choice) for inclusion in the distribution to the external evaluators.
- g. In an attempt to ensure that external evaluations provide useful and consistent information, the letters from the TPR Committee to the external evaluators should address the three issues identified below.
 - External evaluators should comment first and foremost on the quality of the candidate's scholarship as evidenced by the quality and impact of their research and publications.
 - External evaluators should comment on the national and international stature of the candidate within the profession (less important for tenure and promotion to associate professor, required for promotion to full).
 - External evaluators may comment on the candidate's research and graduate advising productivity, and professional service activities, (more important for tenure and promotion to associate professor, required for promotion to full).
- h. This letter of opinion becomes part of the Candidate's materials for review and is added to the Portfolio for administrative review. Due to confidentiality, the external referee letters are not provided to the Candidate but referees are advised that in the event of any grievance actions the Candidate may gain access to the letters.
- 4) The Advocate will carefully delineate the performance and accomplishments of the Candidate in a presentation to the Committee based on the materials provided, as well as any other relevant information. The Committee will deliberate on the materials package and request that additional materials be provided as needed to form their opinion. When such additional materials are needed, the Committee Chair will notify the Department Chair who will obtain the materials from the Candidate in an expedient manner and forward them to the Committee.
- 5) At the conclusion of deliberation of a Candidate's requested action, a vote is executed. Requests for reappointment, for tenure, and for promotion are considered as separate actions requiring a separate vote. Each Committee member shall have one vote on each action and voting is by secret ballot. The Committee

Chair shall count ballots. The majority vote on each requested action will rule and will be recorded as either a "recommendation for" or "recommendation against" the requested action. The actual vote count will be discarded and will not be recorded.

- 6) The Advocate will take the lead on preparing a letter consistent with the requested action and recommendation(s) of the Committee. The letter will highlight the accomplishments and recognition of the Candidate and provide argument in support of the recommendation. In the case of reappointment, the Committee will offer opinion as to observations, to existing strengths, and to suggested areas for improvement for the Candidate.
- 7) The Committee will agree on the content and wording of the letter. Each Committee member will sign the recommendation letter. The letter will be sent to the Dean of the College of Engineering, Computing and Applied Sciences; a copy of the letter will be sent to the Department Chair after the Chair has completed the Chair's recommendation letter.
- 8) The Committee Chair shall act as Committee representative in any College deliberations regarding tenure and promotion decisions.

All internal documents generated by the Committee in its deliberations are considered as confidential and shall be destroyed immediately following the conclusion of its deliberations on a Candidate.

III – Criteria for Tenure, Promotion and Reappointment for Regular Faculty Appointments

This article lists criteria that are used at the Departmental level review for tenure, promotion, and reappointment (TPR) of Clemson University Mechanical Engineering regular faculty, and suggests types of evidence that may be used to support accomplishments under each criterion. The criteria are divided into four categories, including research performance, teaching performance, student mentoring, and service, which are each evaluated for promotion to associate professor and tenure as well as promotion to professor. The numbered sub-categories in each main category are not ranked lists. The criteria for each of the four categories must be met for promotion and/or tenure, as the case may be. The examples provided under the evaluation criteria are intended to help communicate the criteria in a more specific and concrete way. They are not intended to be a check list for a minimum or sufficiency of evidence.

Research Performance

- 1. Evidence of Scholarship
 - Journal papers
 - Conference papers
 - Conference presentations
 - Invited talks
 - Books and book chapters
- 2. Funding
 - Federal funding
 - Industrial funding

- State funding
- University funding
- Gift funding
- Private foundation funding
- International funding
- 3. Research Entrepreneurship
 - Patents
 - Companies created and industry engagement
 - Software
- 4. Honors and Awards
 - Fellowship
 - International, national, state, university awards
 - Professional society awards
 - Best paper awards

Evaluation

For promotion to associate professor and tenure

Criteria: demonstrated evidence of high-quality, high-impact scholarship and sustainable research activities comparable to faculty members at the same stage of their career at peer R1 institutions

Examples: have multiple papers accepted for publication per year in reputable journals, and multiple research grants (with at least one as a PI) to support graduate students

For promotion to full professor

Criteria: demonstrated evidence of international recognition, leadership, and prominence for scholarship and research activities comparable to faculty members at the same stage of their career at peer R1 institutions

Examples: have multiple papers accepted for publication per year in reputable journals, multiple research grants (with at least one major grant and at least one as a PI) to support a healthy group of graduate students, and evidence of national/international recognition of research stature (e.g., high citation, plenary/keynote talks, national/international awards, etc.)

Teaching Performance

- 1. Evidence of Teaching Effectiveness
 - Student evaluations
 - Course materials (homework, tests, projects ...)
 - Peer evaluations, Classroom visits,
 - Alumni evaluations, Exit interviews
 - Teaching awards: department, college, university, professional
- 2. Evidence of Teaching Commitment and Innovations
 - Course development
 - Curricula development
 - Pedagogical methods development
 - Journal and conference papers
 - Conference presentations

Evaluation

For promotion to associate professor and tenure

Criteria: demonstrated evidence of competency in the classroom and growth as an educator

Examples: the student evaluation is on par with the department average; the student evaluation is consistently improving. Ability to teach effectively at both undergraduate and graduate levels

For promotion to full professor

Criteria: demonstrated evidence of continuous competency and maturation in the classroom plus the evidence contributed to the subcategory 2

Examples: significant contributions to curriculum development; new course development; leadership in teaching

Student Mentoring

- 1. PhD graduates.
- 2. MS graduates.
- 3. Current thesis and dissertation research advisees.
- 4. Undergraduate research students advised.
- 5. Postdoctoral research students and visiting scholars advised.
- 6. Advisor to student organizations.
- 7. High school students
- 8. Research productivity and honors of the advised students
- 9. Mentoring and matriculating underrepresented students

Evaluation

For promotion to associate professor and tenure

Criteria: demonstrated evidence of advising graduate students with an emphasis on PhD students, to completion

Examples: have at least one PhD graduate and multiple thesis MS students before tenure is granted

For promotion to full professor

Criteria: demonstrated evidence of continuously advising multiple PhD and multiple MS students to completion

Examples: have three or more PhD graduates in the past six years, and measurable contributions beyond PhD graduates

Service

- 1. Professional Societies
 - Organization of meetings, conferences, symposiums
 - Participation in committees, panels etc.
 - Elected and appointed leadership positions
- 2. Professional Services
 - Editorial services
 - Reviewer for funding agencies
 - Reviewer for journal and conference papers
 - Activities influencing public policies

- Public and private consulting
- Externally delivered courses and short courses
- 2. University, College and Department services
 - Department committees
 - College and university committees
 - Administrative duties
 - Advisor to student organizations
 - Faculty mentoring
 - Activities supporting DEI issues

Evaluation

For promotion to associate professor and tenure

Criteria: demonstrated evidence of adequate participation in service activities at Clemson, professional societies, and other professional entities.

Examples: one evidence of adequate participation in each subcategory

For promotion to full professor

Criteria: demonstrated evidence of significant participation in service activities at Clemson, professional societies, and other professional entities.

Examples: leadership in at least one of the subcategories, and multiple (2 and more) evidences in at least two of the subcategories

IV – Criteria for Promotion and Reappointment for Lecturer, Senior Lecturer, and Principal Lecturer Appointments

The primary role of lecturers is to provide instruction within the Mechanical Engineering Department. Reappointment to the position of Lecturer is based on fulfillment of criteria from Level I, below, bearing in mind that an individual's job duties may not encompass all the criteria listed. Promotion and Reappointment to the position of Senior Lecturer is based primarily on Level I criteria, but also includes Level II criteria. Level II contributions do not compensate for a deficiency in Level I criteria. Promotion to Senior Lecturer is intended to recognize the efforts, contributions, and performance of Lecturers who combine effective instruction with additional significant contributions to the mission of the University. Length of service as a Lecturer, in itself, is not a sufficient criterion for promotion to Senior Lecturer. Principal Lecturer is the special faculty rank that may be applied for after four full academic years of service as a senior lecturer; equivalent experience at Clemson University may be counted towards the four-year service requirement. Principal lecturers shall have no administrative duties inconsistent with those of regular faculty. Promotion and Reappointment to the position of Principal Lecturer is based on both Level I and Level II criteria. Promotion to Principal Lecturer is intended to recognize the efforts, contributions, and performance of Senior Lecturers who combine effective instruction with additional significant contributions to the mission of the University. Length of service as a Senior Lecturer is, itself, not a sufficient criterion for promotion to Principal Lecturer. The review will be based on the achievements since assuming the rank of Senior Lecturer.

Level I: Appointment to the rank of Lecturer is granted to individuals whose primary responsibility is teaching. Duties that support the department's teaching mission include:

(1) Effective classroom instruction that demonstrates both expertise and commitment

- (2) Effective lab coordination and preparation activities that support high quality labbased instruction
- (3) Effective mentoring and supervision of Graduate Laboratory Assistants
- (4) Effective mentoring and supervision of undergraduates, including student workers and undergraduate advisees
- (5) Effective evaluations: course evaluations, exit interviews, peer evaluations, classroom visits, alumni evaluations.
- (6) Effective Departmental service as assigned by the Department Chair

Level II criteria describe additional contributions that are consistent with the teaching and research mission of the University. Significant contributions to category 1 below are required, as well as significant contributions to category 2 and/or category 3 below, for Promotion and Reappointment to the position of Principal Lecturer.

1. Teaching

- 1.1 Development of new courses, curricula, pedagogical methods, or instructional materials
- 1.2 Coordination of large, multi-section course(s)
- 1.3 Teaching a genuine breadth of courses at a variety of levels, potentially including Honors courses
- 1.4 Preparation of educational materials that support lab instruction

2. Enrichment and mentorship

- 2.1 Leadership of creative inquiry classes, undergraduate research projects and service learning courses
- 2.2 Teaching award(s) and other recognitions of excellence
- 2.3 Advising graduate and/or undergraduate students
- 2.4 Publication(s) in refereed journals or conference proceedings, presentations at professional meetings, and participation in relevant professional societies
- 2.5 Submission of external grants and their subsequent approval or favorable review

3. Service

- 3.1 Conscientious service to the Department, College, University, profession, and or community (ex: outreach activities, consulting, academic advising, and committee service)
- 3.2 Effective Departmental service as assigned by the Department Chair

V – Criteria for Promotion and Reappointment for other Special Rank Faculty Appointments

The primary role of special rank faculty is to conduct and support departmental activities consistent with their rank described in the faculty manual. Evaluation criteria for reappointment and promotion will depend on the special rank and the responsibilities assigned. In the Department of Mechanical Engineering, most special rank faculty will be evaluated based on some combination of research, scholarship, and teaching. The specific duties and evaluation criteria should be included in the appointment letter and are subject to review by the TPR committee.

Criteria relative to research expectations may include:

- 1. Fulfillment of research contract obligations.
- 2. Additional funding (outside the University's E&G budget) obtained from federal, corporate, and/or state sources.
- 3. Participation in collaborative research contracts and grants.
- 4. Collaborative research contracts and grants initiated.
- 5. Publications in refereed journals and other appropriate media.

Criteria relative to teaching expectations may include:

- 1. Effective teaching that demonstrates ability and commitment, as indicated by the following possible supporting evidence:
 - 1.1. Development: courses, curricula, pedagogical methods, materials.
 - 1.2. Evaluations: course evaluations, exit interviews, peer evaluations, classroom visits, alumni evaluations.
 - 1.3. Honors and awards based on teaching.
 - 1.4. Student mentoring.

Other criteria may include:

- 1. Honors and Awards at all levels Department, College, University, National, Professional Society.
- 2. Participation in technical committees of professional societies.
- 3. Service on research advisory boards and review panels.
- 4. Support and advising of graduate and undergraduate students.
- 5. Patents and licenses awarded.

VI- Criteria for Reappointment for Adjunct Faculty Appointments

Adjunct Faculty appointments terminate at the end of the appointment period unless an application for reappointment is submitted and approved by the Departmental TPR committee and the Department Chair. The application for reappointment shall include evidence of the effectiveness of prior appointments to department, college and university missions and plans for the future appointment period.

VII – Evaluation of Criteria for All Faculty Positions

Reappointment to a tenure/tenure-track position will require demonstrable progress toward meeting the criteria of Article III.

Reappointment to a lecturer position will require demonstrable progress toward meeting the criteria of Article IV.

Promotion and reappointment to a senior and principal lecturer position will require consistent and continuous success in meeting criteria of Article IV.

Reappointment to any other entry level special rank will require demonstrable progress toward meeting the criteria of Article V.

Promotion and reappointment in a non-entry level special rank will require consistent and continuous success in meeting the criterial of Article V.

VIII – Materials to be Submitted

Section 1: Tenure / Tenure-Track Faculty

As part of the tenure, promotion, and reappointment process, a TPR portfolio is to be compiled in the faculty member's individual electronic portfolio and submitted for review at the departmental, college, and Provost levels.

In lieu of writing letters of reappointment for first year faculty, the TPR Committee, department chair, and dean complete a standard "Review for Faculty in the First Year Form".

The following items are the responsibility of the Candidate to provide:

- 1. Letter requesting tenure, promotion, and/or reappointment.
- 2. Request for Faculty Personnel Action Form, and, if appropriate, Granting of Tenure Form.
- 3. Detailed resume in the standard College format.
- 4. Top achievements -- Personal summary of what the candidate considers the top achievements that are pertinent to the TPR decision (3 pages maximum). This is the opportunity for the Candidate to present their case in summary fashion.
- 5. Teaching.
 - 5.1. Candidate's statement on teaching including philosophy, methodology, materials developed, effectiveness, challenges, etc. (3 pages maximum).
 - 5.2. The original Student Feedback Form (teaching effectiveness evaluation form) including student comments submitted by all students for all courses taught during the preceding two regular semesters. IX - Completion Dates

Dates for completing each level of review in the tenure, promotion and reappointment process are determined each year by the University, the College, and each department or school so that adequate time is provided at each level for a thorough and complete review.

Each faculty member in a special rank except senior lecturer must request reappointment annually in writing. Requests for reappointment are due to the Chair by the same date as Reappointment files for First Year 9-month Regular Faculty. Reappointment for Senior Lecturers shall occur during the penultimate year of their current appointment.

Requests for promotion for faculty members in special ranks are due to the Chair by the same date as Promotion files for Regular Faculty.

Clemson University Department of Mechanical Engineering Guidelines for Post Tenure Review

Article I: Criteria for Post Tenure Review

The faculty recognize that Post Tenure Review differs in both intent and spirit from review for promotion, reappointment and tenure. Those latter reviews are designed to assess the potential for consistent performance at or above a well-accepted norm, so as to provide reward and recognition accordingly. Post Tenure Review, on the other hand, is intended to ensure that a faculty member is maintaining a pattern of performance at a level acceptable for continued employment and consistent with rank and assigned duties.

Article II. Post Tenure Review Committee Structure

The Post-tenure Review (PTR) Committee membership will be composed of three (3) full professors with primary appointment in ME for reappointment review. All full professors will be required to be on the ballot. If a full professor has been given time off from committee work by the ME Department Chair due to a sabbatical, FMLA, imminent retirement or other personnel reasons, this will be noted by the ME Department Chair and that individual(s) will be removed from the ballot. The regular primary faculty of the department must elect, by secret ballot, the members of the PTR committee at a faculty meeting. Each faculty member will select their top three picks. A tie will be broken by a second secret runoff ballot. This election should take place in March.

In the case that the department does not elect enough regular faculty with primary appointments in Mechanical Engineering to constitute a PTR committee, additional members shall be nominated by the Department Chair and elected by a simple majority of the regular primary members of the faculty. The Department Chair may not serve on this committee. The PTR committee shall elect the chair.

Faculty members in Part II of Post Tenure Review are not eligible to serve on the PTR Committee.

Article III: Evaluation of Criteria

Post Tenure Review evaluation shall be based on the performance and activity appropriate to the current rank. In addition, consideration shall be given to achievement of individual goals established to further the Department strategic plan. The context of the review, however, must always be consistent with assigned duties and direction provided through annual evaluations during the review period.

The Post-tenure Review policies and procedures in the Department of Mechanical Engineering shall conform to those outlined in the most current version of the Clemson University Faculty Manual.

The PTR Committee shall review eForm 3 rating for the past five (5) years. All tenured faculty members receiving no more than one (1) of five annual performance ratings of "Fair", "Marginal" or "Unsatisfactory" in Part I of the Post-tenure Review process receive a Post-tenure Review rating of "Satisfactory." These faculty members are thereby example from Part II of the Post-tenure Review as stated in the Faculty Manual. The letter shall be signed by members of the PTR committee.

If a faculty member has received more than one Annual eForm 3 with "Fair", "Marginal" or "Unsatisfactory" performance evaluation, then the faculty member will undergo a full Post-Tenure Review.

Article IV: Procedures for Post Tenure Review

- 1. Upon establishing the PTR committee, the committee shall notify the Department Chair of its readiness to perform. While the committee may initiate gathering of information at any time, it may not begin the formal review process until it notifies the Department Chair.
- 2. Committee Meetings: Meetings of the committee are called at the direction of the committee chair. Committee deliberations and working documents are deemed confidential.
- 3. Faculty Member Subject to Review: Annually the Department Chair shall inform the Faculty of the Department of the members subject to Post Tenure Review in the coming academic year, in accordance with the guidelines in the Faculty Manual.
- 4. The PTR committee shall review faculty contribution and performance since the candidate's last tenure or Post-Tenure Review
- 5. The PTR committee will utilize reference letters submitted from outside the department on each individual under review. The faculty member under review will submit a list of six (6) external reviewers of which the PTR committee will select two (2) from the list. The committee requires at a minimum of four (4) letters.
- 6. A letter from the PTR committee shall be completed and signed by all members and present its recommendation to the Department Chair and Dean.
- 7. The Department Chair shall ensure that the affected faculty member is promptly informed in writing as to the results of and rational for the Department Chair and committee's recommendations.
- 8. The Department Chair shall make a copy of the committee's report available to the affected faculty member upon written request from the faculty member.
- 9. The procedures pertaining to Documents for Review, Committee Reports, Department Chair Action and Report, Report Reconciliation, Faculty Rights and Remediation are delineated in the University Faculty Manual. Other policies, Procedures, Criteria, Guidelines, including all actions and deliberations shall be consistent with University, College, and Department policies and procedures. This includes the review deadlines established by the University and/or College, and Department criteria for faculty performance.
