International Student Arrival Guide:

To help you prepare for your Clemson Experience, we developed our International Student Arrival Guide, which offers resources to help you with the transition to living and studying at Clemson University.

International Student Orientation:

Our office will host New International Student Orientation on Clemson's main campus in August for both

Summer and Fall admissions. This is a separate session than Undergraduate and Graduate Student Orientations that will focus primarily on maintaining your immigration status as an International Student at Clemson University. We will also provide important information on course requirements, synchronous vs. asynchronous course enrollment, work authorization opportunities and timelines, etc.

Students pursuing Automotive Engineering degrees at CUICAR do not need to attend our main campus sessions as our office will join your departmental orientation.

We will provide more information when the schedule is finalized. Until then, please refer to the information provided in this email series and the International Student Arrival Guide or contact our office if you have any questions.

Other Orientations:

Clemson University will host other orientation sessions including New Undergraduate Student Orientation, New Graduate Student Orientation as well as orientations for individual academic departments. We encourage you to review your academic department's website or contact your Advisor/Student Coordinator for information regarding their orientation sessions and plan your arrival accordingly.

SEVIS Check-in within the iStart Portal:

One of the first items to take care of when you arrive in the U.S. is to complete your SEVIS Check-In using the iStart Portal. Please note the following:

- SEVIS Check-In cannot be completed prior to your arrival in the U.S.
- You must first log in to Clemson's VPN or be on Clemson's on-campus network (eduroam) before accessing the iStart Portal.
- SEVIS Check-In is critical if you are a new Graduate Assistant (GA) and need to apply for a social security number (SSN) to begin your GA position. If you delay completing your SEVIS Check-In, it will delay your applying for and receiving your SSN.
 - Students paid by Clemson University must upload the Employment Verification Letter \(EVL\) completed by their hiring department to the SEVIS Check-In e-form.
- SEVIS Check-In is completed through the iStart Portal and does not require you to come in-person to International Services.
- You must submit all four sections of the SEVIS Check-In e-form.
- Information on how to complete your SEVIS Check-In can be found here.

Late Arrivals, Deferrals, and Cancelations:

It is recommended that all international students arrive no later than the start of the term, May 13, 2025. If you cannot arrive by this date, you must communicate with your academic department and professors to confirm whether you are permitted to arrive after the start of the term. For those students arriving more than 2 weeks after the start of the Summer term, you must gain authorization from your academic department and log in to the iStart Portal and submit the Late Arrival Support e-form to receive authorization from our office.

If you are unable to attend Clemson University this Summer term, you will first need to request the deferral of your admission. Graduate students must request the deferral from their academic departments. Once approved, a new admission letter will be issued by Graduate Admissions.

Undergraduate students must request deferral from Undergraduate Admissions. Once approved, a deferral approval letter will be issued by Undergraduate Admissions. Once you obtain the deferred admission letter, please log in to the iStart Portal and submit the Deferral Request e-form to defer your F-1 SEVIS record and I-20.

If you will not attend Clemson University and wish to cancel your F-1 SEVIS record, please email is@clemson.edu requesting the cancelation of your record.

Applying for an SSN at the Social Security Administration:

To receive a stipend for a GA position or to be paid for on-campus employment, international students must have an SSN. Applying for and receiving an SSN can be an issue for new students arriving on campus for the first time who need to begin receiving their stipend. Information on what an SSN is and the steps for applying can be found here.

Some additional tips to assist in applying for an SSN:

- Complete your SEVIS Check-In and upload your completed EVL immediately upon arrival in the U.S.
- If you already have an SSN issued by the U.S. Social Security Administration (SSA), you do not need a new SSN. Once issued, an SSN does not expire and does not need to be renewed.
- You are required to apply in-person for a social security number at a local SSA office. There are SSA offices in Anderson, Greenville, Charleston and other cities throughout South Carolina.
- You must take the documents listed on our webpage when you visit the SSA office.

Submitting Student Immunization Records:

All new undergraduate and graduate students (domestic and international) are required to upload a completed Student Immunization Form along with supporting immunization documents to the MyHealth-e portal. The immunization form and other information on this process can be found on their website here. If you cannot upload to this portal, these documents can be mailed to Redfern Health Center, Clemson University, Box 344054 Room 34, Clemson, SC 29634-4054 or faxed to +1 864-656-0760.

Submitting Final Transcripts to the Graduate School:

Final official transcripts are transcripts sent directly to Clemson University's Graduate Admissions Office from the issuing institution. Graduate Admissions accepts unofficial transcripts during the admission process, but official transcripts are required of applicants who are admitted and intend to enroll at Clemson. Please note:

- Your final official transcripts must be sent, in a sealed envelope, directly from the issuing institution to the Office of Graduate Admissions, 220 Parkway Drive, E-209 Martin Hall, Clemson University, Clemson SC 29634.
- The title of the degree earned and the date awarded must be noted for the transcript to be considered final official.
- Official certificates or diplomas in sealed envelopes from the issuing institution should accompany any transcripts that do not note the degree earned and date awarded directly on the transcripts.
- Graduate Admissions will not accept faxed copies of transcripts as official.
- A transcript in an envelope that has been opened is no longer considered official.
- English translation of all international transcripts is required and more information on this can be found here.

- Additional helpful resources for questions concerning submission of final official transcripts can be found here or by contacting Graduate Admissions.

Submitting Final Transcripts to Undergraduate Admissions:

Clemson University requires first-year undergraduate applicants to self-report their high school transcripts. Students who are admitted to Clemson will be required to send official transcripts prior to enrollment. After submitting your application, a link to the SRAR system will be available in your Applicant Portal. Additional information on International Undergraduate Admissions can be found here.

Please note our office will be closed and our staff will be unable to respond to emails during the following dates:
