PROCEDURES

This policy establishes the following mandated procedures for hiring at Clemson University:

1. Hires must comply with all state and federal laws and regulations as well as University policies and guidelines.
2. Throughout the hiring process, hiring managers must obtain approvals as outlined in the applicable hiring guidelines.
3. Under current state law (S.C. Code of Laws 8-11-120), all job openings must be advertised for a minimum of five business days.
4. All individuals seeking a position at Clemson University are required to apply.
5. All posted positions require interviews prior to an offer being extended.
6. Hiring managers are required to check a minimum of three references for a candidate prior to extending a job offer.
7. All hires are contingent upon the new employee satisfying the University’s requirements for pre-employment background checks.
8. All hires are contingent upon the employee being eligible to work in the United States.
9. Current state regulations and University Policy may limit certain persons’ consideration for a position (i.e., immediate family members of individuals who supervise or manage the position). See Clemson’s Ethics Policy for more information.
10. Final candidate selection must be based on the objective review and evaluation of the actual duties and responsibilities of the job and the interviewers’ best assessment of the candidate’s ability to perform each of the duties and responsibilities.
11. All offers of employment require a written offer letter.
12. Clemson University verifies the credentials of all faculty appointments.
13. Hiring managers must address special considerations when hiring minors, individuals retired from Clemson University or another South Carolina state agency, or individuals who separated from Clemson University or another state agency by means of a Voluntary Incentive Program. See the applicable hiring guidelines for further information.
14. New employees participate in a University onboarding program to ensure compliance with this policy and facilitate a smooth transition to the University community.

Any deviation from the above procedures must be approved as outlined in the applicable hiring guidelines.
