What is Emergency Management?

• Framework to reduce vulnerability to hazards and cope with disasters
  • Coordinate and integrate before, during, and after an emergency
• All-Hazards approach
  • Natural
  • Technological
  • Man-made
Why Emergency Management?

• Threats and hazards exist
• Significant impact
• Success
  • Reduce the loss of life
  • Minimize property loss & damage to environment
  • Protect the community from threats and hazards

Emergency Management at Clemson

• Office of Emergency Management
• Emergency Management Council (EMC)
• Emergency Operations Center (EOC)
• Building Security Coordinators (BSCs)
Planning

• Emergency Management Council
• Assessments
• Risk Management
• Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan
• Checklists & Standard Operating Procedures
• Business Continuity Management
• Disaster Recovery
• Facilities Management

Training and Exercises

• Training for responders and the public
• Homeland Security Exercise and Evaluation Program
• Discussion Based Exercises
• Operations Based Exercises
Outreach

- Create a Culture of Preparedness
  - Training Opportunities
  - Schools
  - Churches
  - Businesses
  - Families
  - Social Media

On-Scene Coordination

- Organize on-scene operations using the Incident Command System
- Ensure key locations are established
- Establish check-in processes
- Identify key contingency plans
- Project expansion of the incidents and needs
- Coordinate Regional Resources
- Establish planning cycle
Emergency Operations Center

- Focus
  - Supporting responders
  - Continuing University Operations
- Centralize the command, control, and coordination
- Coordinate support from county, state, and federal resources
- Develop, coordinate, and execute University & site restoration plans for impacted areas
- Bridge to Executive Leadership Team during emergencies

COVID Updates

- COVID Website has the most up to date information
- Masks are strongly encouraged
- Main campus and CUCAR non-residential students and employees must test between August 9-17, 2021
- On-campus test results do not need to be uploaded; Ensure you schedule an appointment in advance
Questions?

• For more information
  Clemson University Office of Emergency Management
  864-656-9933
  Emergency@Clemson.edu