MY CLEMSON EXPERIENCE

“ I am humbled by this honor, because we have so many deserving students. I loved every minute of my Clemson Experience. I’m sad to be leaving, but at the same time I’m excited to represent this university moving forward. I’m so blessed every day to be a Clemson Tiger. — Leland Dunwoodie, May graduate, Milton, Ga. ”

DUNWOODIE CLAIMS NORRIS MEDAL

At the 2018 University Awards presentation, Leland Dunwoodie was the recipient of the Norris Medal, presented to the best all-around graduating senior. It is considered the most prestigious award bestowed upon an undergraduate Clemson student.

Dunwoodie served as president of the Undergraduate Student Senate during the 2017–18 academic year while maintaining President’s List honors four consecutive years as a biochemistry major.

Dunwoodie received his bachelor’s degree in May and is enrolling in medical school this month at Vanderbilt University.
