

CAMPUS RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS 2019-20

The Department of Campus Recreation strives to provide quality recreation experiences to the students, faculty and staff of Clemson University through its programs and facilities. These experiences afford the diverse campus community opportunities to interact while participating in a wide variety of instructional and competitive activities that promote the development of the mind and body.

FACILITIES

460,425

Total number of swipe-ins

18,769

Total number of unique users

VIRTUAL PROGRAMING ENGAGEMENTS

847

Liked, viewed or participated in

SPACES ADDED

Andy Quattlebaum Outdoor Education Center: 16,500-square-foot state-of-the-art outdoor education center supporting outdoor education, intramural sports, fitness and wellness, and special event programming.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

519

Total number of student employees

100%

of students employees are certified in the safety certification for their job

DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

3

Princeton Review ranks Clemson the No. 3 college “Where Everyone Plays Intramural Sports” — The Best 386 Colleges (published August 2020), based on the data from the 85-question survey of 143,000 students from the 386 schools in its book.

PROGRAMS

 INTRAMURAL SPORTS

5,303 Unique participants

28,074 Total swipe-ins

 CLUB
SPORTS

1,534 Unique participants

33 Teams

 FITNESS AND WELLNESS

3,320 Unique participants

52 Online classes

 OUTDOOR RECREATION AND EDUCATION

503 Unique trip participants

3,956 Outdoor rentals